Medical Referees—Kalgoorlie Area

Doctors Gregory Everett Murphy and Philip James Reid have recently been appointed as Medical Referees in the Kalgoorlie area in order to facilitate the use of the Kalgoorlie Crematorium.

At the time I advised that the Australian Medical Association had been requested to circularise its members in the Kalgoorlie area inviting additional applications from medical practitioners with at least five years experience in general practice for appointment as Medical Referees.

The period for applications to be received has now closed and in response to this request the Department has received only one application from Dr Malcolm Hodson, who complies with the requirement concerning five years experience in general practice for appointment as Medical Referees.

I recommend that Dr Malcolm Donald Hodson be appointed as a Medical Referee and that you sign the attached Executive Council paper.
