11. Cross Liability (Applicable to Section 2 only)

The word "Insured" shall be deemed to apply to each person comprising the Insured in the same manner as if a separate Policy had been issued to each of them and the act, error or omission of one shall not prejudice the right of any other to indemnity under this Insurance but the total liability of the Company in respect of all the individuals and entities comprising the Insured shall not exceed the Limit of Liability as stated in Memorandum 7 above.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. No Admission or Settlement

The Insured shall not admit liability for or settle any claim or incur any costs or expenses in connection therewith without the written consent of the Company. 2. Notice of Claims

The Insured shall give notice to the Company in writing as soon as practicable of any circumstances giving rise or likely to give rise to a claim under this Policy and the Insured shall:

- (a) within fourteen days from the date of such notice (unless the Company has in writing agreed to extend such period) deliver to the Company a detailed statement in writing of the loss sustained;
- (b) At all reasonable times permit the Company to enquire into, investigate and examine the circumstances of the alleged loss by the Insured, and the claim in respect thereof, and the Insured shall, at his own expense upon being required so to do by the Company produce all books, vouchers, correspondence, documents, receipts, and all other information in his possession or control relating to the alleged loss, and shall furnish copies of such of them and otherwise give all possible assistance as may be required by the Company so far as they relate to such claim or may in any way enable the Company to ascertain the correctness thereof or the liability of the Company under this Policy.

8. Right of Company Upon Breach or Non-Compliance

9. Queen's Counsel Clause

The Company agrees to pay claims which may arise under this Insurance without requiring the Insured to dispute any claim unless a Queen's Counsel (to be mutually agreed upon by the Insured, the Firm and the Company) advises that the claim could be contested with a reasonable prospect of success by the Insured and the Insured or the Firm consents to such claim being contested, but such consent is not to be unreasonably withheld. In the event of any dispute arising between the Insured, the Firm and the Company as to what constitutes an unreasonable refusal to contest a claim the Chairman for the time being of the Board shall nominate a Referee to decide this point only and the decision of such a Referee shall be binding on all parties.
