PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY G. L. DUFFIELD, GOVERNMENT PRINTER AT 3.30 PM

Publishing Details

The Western Australian Government Gazette is published by the State Print for the State of Western Australia on Friday of each week unless disrupted by Public Holidays or unforeseen circumstances.

Special Government Gazettes and Extraordinary Government Gazettes are published periodically, only the special gazettes are included in the subscription price.

The following guidelines should be followed to ensure publication in the Government Gazette.

- Material submitted to the Executive Council for gazettal will require a copy of the signed Executive Council Minute Paper.
- Advertising should be received by the Manager, Publication Sales no later than 3.00 p.m. on Wednesday.
- Lengthy or complicated notices should be forwarded several days before advertised closing date for copy. This is to ensure inclusion in current edition. Failure to observe this request could result in the notice being held over until the following week.
- Proofs will be supplied only when requested.
- No additions or amendments to material for publication will be accepted by telephone.

Send copy to:

The Manager,
Publication Sales
State Print
Station Street, Wembley, 6014
Telephone: 383 8851 Fax: 382 1079

Advertisers should note:

- All Notices should be written in 'plain English'.
- Signatures (in particular) and proper names must be legible.
- All copy should be typed and double spaced.
- If it is necessary through isolation or urgency to communicate by facsimile, any confirmation forwarded later must be endorsed to the effect that this copy is only confirmation of previously transmitted facsimile copy already received by the State Print. This is to alleviate the problem of copy appearing twice.
- Documents not clearly prepared and in the exact format for gazettal will be returned to the sender unpublished.
- Late copy received at Publication Sales after 3.00 p.m. Wednesday will be placed in the following issue irrespective of any date/s mentioned in the copy (unless otherwise advised).

DAIRY INDUSTRY

DI401

DAIRY INDUSTRY ACT 1973

Directions by the Minister to the Dairy Industry Authority under section 27

I, Ernest Francis Bridge, Minister for Agriculture, being the Minister for the time being administering the Dairy Industry Act 1973, pursuant to the powers conferred by section 27 of that Act, hereby direct the Dairy Industry Authority to determine applications for market milk quota made to it under section 26 of the Act in respect of the quota year commencing on 1 January 1991, on the following basis or principles—

1. (1) Subject to this paragraph, a dairyman holding a market milk quota at the end of the 1990 Quota Year shall, upon application duly made, be granted initially, a market milk quota for the 1991 Quota Year of an amount that is not less on a daily basis than the sum of the amount of market milk quota held by him at the end of the 1990 Quota Year.
Provided that:
 - (a) the dairy premises to which the application relates and in which milk is to be produced are the same as the dairy premises referred to in the quota certificate held by the applicant, or the registered premises authorised by the Authority under section 28 (2a) immediately before the end of the 1990 Quota Year; and
 - (2) Notwithstanding that the requirements of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph may apply to a dairyman, unless such requirements are satisfied by a dairyman in his application, he shall not be granted a market milk quota.
 - (3) Where a dairyman short supplies market milk quota issued to him at any time during the course of the 1991 Quota Year, the quota shall be reduced in accordance with the approved terms and conditions for short supply.

2. (1) The Authority may refuse an application if approval of the application would result in the applicant or the applicant together with any person associated with the applicant (as determined by the Authority in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph) holding a market milk quota of more than 2 300 litres daily for the 1991 Quota Year.
- (2) The Authority may determine that a person is associated with an applicant if that person holds a market milk quota and is in the opinion of the Authority—
- (a) a partner of the applicant;
 - (b) a corporation of which the applicant is an officer or director;
 - (c) where the applicant is a corporation, an officer or director of the corporation;
 - (d) an officer or director of any corporation of which the applicant is an officer or director;
 - (e) an employee or employer of the applicant;
 - (f) an employee of a natural person of whom the applicant is an employee;
 - (g) a corporation whose directors are accustomed or under an obligation whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the applicant or, where the person is a corporation, of the directors or management of that person;
 - (h) a corporation in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of which, or of the directors or management of which, the applicant is accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act;
 - (i) a corporation in which the applicant holds a substantial interest; or
 - (j) where the person is a corporation—a person who holds a substantial interest in the corporation,

PART II—MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL

Ordinary Meetings

4. (1) Ordinary meetings of the Council shall be held at such time as the Council may from time to time determine, provided that at least one Ordinary meeting shall be held in each calendar month.

Meeting Day and Time

5. (1) The Council shall resolve the days and times each month when Council meetings shall be held at the first meeting held after the annual election.

(2) No alteration to the days or times of Council meetings other than a temporary alteration to remain in force for not more than one month shall be made unless at least two months' notice of the motion to alter such days or times shall be given and such alteration shall be agreed to by an absolute majority of the Council.

Notice of Meetings

6. Notice of all meetings of the Council shall be given to Councillors of the Council as follows—

(1) Council meetings other than those convened under s. 172 (2) or s. 172 (3) of the Act.

The Notice shall be in writing and shall be signed by or on behalf of the Clerk and shall state the place, date and hour of holding the meeting and shall state the business to be transacted. The notice shall be served on each of the members of the Council at least forty-eight (48) hours before the time of commencement of the meeting.

(2) Special Meeting convened under s. 172 (2) of the Act.

The provisions of the preceding subclause shall apply except that the notice shall be signed either by the Mayor or the Clerk. At an Ordinary or Special Meeting of Council a notice convening a Special Meeting under section 172 (2) of the Act may be given for a meeting to be held later the same day after the conclusion or adjournment of the meeting at which the notice is given.

(3) Special Meeting convened under s. 172 (3) of the Act.

The Notice shall be in writing and shall be signed by the three Councillors calling the meeting and shall state the place, date and hour of holding the meeting and shall state the business to be transacted. The notice shall be served on each of the other Members of the Council at the times and in the manner specified.

(4) A notice of meeting shall be served on each Councillor—

- (a) by delivering it to the Councillor personally; or
- (b) by delivering it to the Councillor's usual place of abode or business
- (c) by sending it to the Councillor by post or electronic mail at the Councillor's usual place of abode or business and a notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served at the time when in the ordinary course of post it would have reached the address to which it was sent.

(5) Notwithstanding the requirement in any preceding clause that the notice convening a Special Meeting of Council be in writing, such notice may be given by telephone in the following circumstances—

- (a) The notice under section 172 (2) of the Act convening a Special Meeting and specifying the time of the meeting and the object of the meeting may be given in a person-to-person telephone call to each of the Councillors by the Clerk before holding the meeting.
- (b) The notice under section 172 (3) of the Act convening a Special Meeting and specifying the time of the meeting and the object of the meeting may be given in a person-to-person telephone call to the Mayor and each of the other Councillors by the Clerk at least 24 hours before the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting provided that a notice in writing in the form prescribed by section 172 (3) signed by at least three (3) Councillors shall first have been delivered to the Clerk.

(6) A copy of all Council and Committee Agenda shall be made available for public inspection free of charge at the Council Administration Centre, the Council Public Library and such other venues as may be determined by Council from time to time at least forty-eight (48) hours before the scheduled commencement time of the meeting at which they apply.

Notice of Adjourned Meeting

7. When a meeting of the Council is adjourned to a day and hour other than the next Ordinary Meeting of the Council notice of the adjourned meeting shall, if time permits, be sent in the manner provided by Clause 6 of this by-law to each Councillor specifying the nature of the business to be transacted.

Failure to Receive Notice not to Invalidate Proceedings

8. Failure to receive a notice on the part of any of the Council shall not affect the validity of any Ordinary or Special Meeting of the Council so long as all reasonable steps have been taken to serve such notice.

Mayor to Preside

9. The Mayor, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Council and in the Mayor's absence, or if after being present retires, the Deputy Mayor shall preside and in the Deputy Mayor's absence or if after being present retires then one of the Councillors chosen by majority vote of the Councillors then present shall preside.

Quorum

10. (1) Except in cases where section 173 (4) of the Act applies the number of Councillors necessary to form a quorum—

- (a) where the total number of Councillors is an even number, is one half of that total;
- (b) where the total number of Councillors is an odd number, is the integer nearest to but greater than one half of that total.

(2) Subject to clause 12, every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated in the summons as a quorum is constituted.

Quorum Must be Present

11. The Council shall not transact business at a meeting unless a quorum is present.

Absence of Quorum

12. If at any meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour after the time appointed for that meeting the Mayor or in the Mayor's absence the Deputy Mayor or in the Deputy Mayor's absence the majority of the Councillors present or any one Councillor if only one be present or the Clerk if no Councillor be present may adjourn the meeting to any date not later than seven days from the date of the adjournment.

Meeting Counted Out

13. If at any time during any meeting of the Council a quorum is not present the Chairman shall thereupon suspend the proceedings of the meeting for a period of five minutes and if a quorum be not present at the expiration of the period the meeting shall be deemed to have been counted out and the Chairman shall adjourn it to some future date.

Names Recorded

14. At any meeting at which there is not a quorum of Councillors present, or at which the Council is counted out for want of a quorum the names of the Councillors then present shall be recorded in the Minute Book.

Distinguished Visitors

15. If a distinguished visitor is present at a meeting of the Council, the Chairman following the carrying of a motion permitting it, shall invite the distinguished visitor to sit beside the Chairman or at the Council or Officers' table.

Reporters

16. Accredited newspaper reporters shall be permitted to attend at Ordinary, Special and Committee Meetings of the Council in such part of the Council Chambers as may be appropriated for their accommodation but they shall withdraw during any period when the Council is sitting behind closed doors.

Withdrawal of Motions

63. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the Council which shall be signified without debate; and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon the motion or amendment after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal unless that permission is refused.

Limitation of Withdrawal

64. An original or substantive motion shall not be withdrawn until any amendment proposed thereto has been withdrawn or negated except with the consent of the Council which shall be signified without debate.

No Digression

65. A Councillor shall not speak otherwise than upon the question then before the Council except to make a personal explanation.

*Division 5—AmendmentsNature of Amendments

66. An amendment to a motion shall take one or more of the following forms—

- (a) that certain words be omitted therefrom;
- (b) that certain words be omitted therefrom and others substituted;
- (c) that words be added.

Amendments to Relate to Motion

67. Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion on which it is moved.

Amendment to be Read

68. Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

One Amendment at a Time

69. Only one amendment shall be discussed at a time but as often as an amendment is lost another amendment may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote except that where an amendment is carried one further amendment to the original motion as amended and no more may be moved.

Notice of Further Amendments

70. In speaking to an amendment a Councillor may give notice of their intention to move a further amendment.

Amended Motion Treated as Original Motion

71. Where an amendment is carried the original motion as amended shall for all purposes of subsequent debate and subject only to clause 69 be treated as an original motion.

*Division 6—VotingAll Councillors to Vote

72. At every meeting of the Council save where the Act otherwise provides every Councillor present shall vote and if any Councillor who is entitled to vote fails to vote the Chairman shall call upon them to vote.

Equality of Votes

73. Where there is any equal division of votes upon any question the question shall be resolved in the negative.

Method of Taking the Vote

74. (1) The Chairman shall in taking the vote on any motion or amendment put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative and may do so as often as is necessary to enable the formation and declaration of an opinion as to whether the affirmative or the negative has the majority on the voices or by a show of hands except where the Councillor is prevented by physical disability which precludes compliance and the Councillor indicates to the Chairman their voting intention.

(2) The Chairman may declare the number of votes for and against all motions and those details will be recorded in the Council Minutes.

Division May be Called

75. The result of voting openly shall be determined on the voices or by a show of hands except where the Councillor is prevented by physical disability which precludes compliance and the Councillor indicates to the Chairman their voting intention and on the result being declared any Councillor may call for a division.

Division Procedure

76. Upon a division being called for the Chairman may order that division advice be given as deemed necessary and after the lapse of three minutes from the giving of the division advice no Councillor shall be permitted to enter or leave the chamber until after the division has been taken.

Division—How Taken

77. The division shall thereupon be taken by those voting in the affirmative passing to the Chairman's right hand side and those voting on the negative to the Chairman's left hand side.

Recording of Voting

78. The names of Councillors who voted on the question on which there is the division shall be recorded by the Clerk in respect of every division together with details of whether they voted in the affirmative or the negative.

*Division 7—GeneralRescission of Resolution

79. (1) A resolution of any meeting of the Council shall not be revoked, rescinded, or altered at the same or any subsequent meeting except in the manner provided by section 177 of the Act as follows—

- (i) At the same meeting at which it is passed, if all the Members of Council who were present in the Council Chamber at the time the resolution was passed are also present in the Council Chamber at the time the rescission or alteration is proposed.
- (ii) At a meeting other than at which it was passed, rescind or alter a resolution—
 - (a) where notice of the motion to rescind or alter is not given, if a motion to that effect is carried by an absolute majority of the Members of the Council; or
 - (b) where the Councillor intending to propose the rescission or alteration has, through the Clerk, given written notice of their intention to each of the other Councillors at least seven days before the meeting, if a motion to that effect is carried by a majority of the Councillors voting on the proposal at the meeting; but not otherwise.

Negatived Motions

80. A motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived by the Council shall not again be entertained within a period of three months except with the consent of an absolute majority of the Council.

Suspension of Standing Orders

81. Who May Move Motion

86. (1) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move the adjournment of the Council.

(2) A Councillor shall not at the same sitting of the Council move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the Council.

Resumption of Adjourned Meeting

87. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried the debate on the question (if any) under debate when the motion was moved shall be continued immediately upon the Council resuming after the adjournment.

Names Of Speakers to be Recorded

88. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration at the time of the adjournment and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject but this clause does not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

*Division 2—That Debate be AdjournedMotion for Adjournment of Debate

89. (1) A Councillor may at the conclusion of a speech of any other Councillor move without notice that the debate be adjourned to a later hour of the same meeting or to a subsequent meeting of the Council.

(2) On a motion that the debate be adjourned the mover may speak for not more than five minutes the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second and no other debate shall be allowed; but if the question then before the Council is a motion from a Committee the Chairman of the Committee concerned or in his absence a Councillor thereof may speak for not more than five minutes.

Who May Move for Adjournments

90. (1) A Councillor who has not spoken on the question then under debate may move the adjournment of the debate.

(2) A Councillor shall not at the same sitting of the Council move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the same debate.

Speaker on Resumption of Adjourned Debate

91. On resuming an adjourned debate the Councillor who moved its adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.

Names of Speakers Recorded

92. On a motion for the adjournment of a debate being carried a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under debate and they shall not be permitted to speak on any resumption of the debate on that subject but this clause does not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

Counting Out of Council During Debate of Motion

93. Where the debate on any motion moved and seconded is interrupted by the Council being counted out that debate may on a motion with notice be resumed at the next meeting at the point where it was so interrupted.

*Division 3—That The Question be PutMotion That Question be Put

94. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice and without comment that the question under consideration be now put and upon that motion being formally seconded the same shall immediately be put without debate.

Who May Move, Majority, etc.

95. A motion that the question under consideration be put shall not be moved by a Councillor who has already spoken on the question and that motion shall not be carried without the consent of a two-thirds majority of the Councillors then present.

Right of Reply

96. When it is decided by the Council that the question under consideration be put the mover of the question under consideration shall if debate has ensued and if otherwise entitled to do so be permitted to speak in reply for not more than five minutes before the question is put but subject thereto the question shall be at once put.

Motion and Amendment Included

97. Whenever it is decided by the Council that the question be put the question to be so put includes the main question as well as any amendment thereto.

*Division 4—That the Council Proceed with the Next BusinessMotion that Council Proceed With the Next Business

98. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice and without comment that the Council do proceed with the next business and upon that motion being formally seconded it shall be immediately put without debate.

Question Considered Dropped

99. Where the Council decides to proceed with the next business the question which was then under discussion shall be considered as dropped.

Limitation of Time Between Motions

100. During the same debate on any question a motion that the Council do proceed with the next business shall not be moved within one hour after a similar motion has been lost.

*Division 5—That Meeting be ClosedMotion that the Meeting be Closed

101. (1) A Councillor at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor or on the conclusion of any business move without notice that the meeting of the Council be now closed.

(2) On a motion that the meeting of the Council be closed the mover may speak for not more than five minutes the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second and the mover of the motion (if any) then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes; but no other debate shall be allowed.

When Motion Lost

102. If a motion that the meeting of the Council be closed is lost a similar motion shall not be moved until the matter then under discussion and the next item on the notice paper has been concluded, or alternatively, any other items not exceeding two as nominated by the Chairman as having precedence.

Who may move motion

103. (1) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move that the meeting be closed.

(2) A Councillor shall not at the same meeting of the Council move or second more than one motion that the meeting be closed.

Procedure—Question Under Debate When Motion Carried

104. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried the debate on the question (if any) under debate when that motion was moved shall stand adjourned to its place on the notice paper for the next meeting of the Council.

Record of Speakers

105. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration up to the closing of the meeting and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same motion but this clause does not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

Division 6—That Council do Sit Behind Closed Doors

106. Ordinary, Special and Committee Meetings of the Council shall be open to the public except on such occasions as the Council by resolution which may be moved without notice directs otherwise.

Business Behind Closed Doors

107. (1) After the carrying of a resolution under Clause 106 of this by-law the business at that meeting of the Council shall not be open to the public but shall proceed behind closed doors until the Council by resolution decides that the meeting shall be open to the public.

(2) Upon the carrying of such a resolution the Chairman shall direct all persons other than Councillors and servants of the Council to leave the Council Chambers and every person shall forthwith comply with such direction.

(3) Any person failing to comply with a direction pursuant to subclause (2) of this clause commits an offence and may with the use of reasonable force if necessary be removed from the Council Chambers.

(4) While a resolution made under this clause is enforced, the operation of Clause 43—Speaking Twice shall be suspended unless the Council by resolution otherwise determines.

(5) Any resolution mentioned in this subclause may be moved without notice.

Confidential Matters

108. All matters and questions considered or discussed by the Council other than in meetings open to the public shall be treated as strictly confidential and shall not without the authority of the Council or the Committee (as the case may be) be disclosed to any person other than the Mayor, Councillors or Officers of the Council (and in the case of Officers only so far as may be necessary for the performance of their duties) prior to the discussion of that matter at a meeting of the Council held with open doors.

Reading of resolutions passed

109. Upon the public again being admitted to the meeting in accordance with Clause 107 the Clerk shall unless the Council by resolution otherwise decides read out the resolutions passed by the Council whilst it was proceeding behind closed doors and details of any divisions taken.

PART VI—DISTURBANCE AND BREACH OF ORDERNo Adverse Reflection on Council

110. A Councillor shall not at any meeting comment adversely upon a resolution of the Council except on a motion that the resolution be rescinded or amended.

No Adverse Reflection on Councillor

111. A Councillor shall not comment adversely upon the character or actions of another Councillor or impute any motive to a Councillor unless the Council resolves without debate that the question then before the Council cannot otherwise be adequately considered.

Record of Words Spoken

112. (1) Any Councillor may require the Clerk to take down any particular words used by a Councillor immediately upon their being used if such words are considered by the Councillor to be in contravention of Clause 111.

(2) The proceedings of all Council and Standing Committee Meetings (other than when Council moves to sit behind closed doors) shall be tape recorded with all tapes retained for at least a period of thirty (30) days following the minutes having been confirmed, provided that, the tape recordings of any meetings may be retained in excess of the thirty (30) days period for legal or pending legal action purposes, following the written request for retention to the Clerk from any Councillor or Elector, following the confirmation of the minutes and within the thirty (30) days retention period.

(3) Access for the purpose of listening to the confirmed tape recording of any Council or Standing Committee meeting (other than when Council has moved to sit behind closed doors) shall be given to any Councillor at the Council Administration Centre.

Demands for Withdrawal

113. If any Councillor commits a breach of Clause 110 or 111 the Chairman may require that the Councillor unreservedly withdraw any offending comment and to make a satisfactory apology; and if the Councillor declines or neglects to do so the Chairman may direct such Councillor to cease speaking and resume their seat if necessary and may call on the next speaker.

Disturbance by Members or the Public

114. (1) A Councillor shall not make any undue noise or disturbance or converse aloud while any other person is addressing the Council excepting—

- (a) to raise a Point of Order
- (b) to call attention to want of a quorum.

(2) A person not being a Councillor shall not at any meeting of the Council interrupt the proceedings of the Council;

(3) Any person not being a Councillor interrupting the proceedings of the Council shall when so directed by the Chairman forthwith leave the Council Chambers.

115. The Chairman may call the attention of the Council to continued irrelevance, tedious repetition, unbecoming language or any breach of order or decorum on the part of a Councillor or any person not being a Councillor and may direct that Councillor or person not being a Councillor if speaking to discontinue and thereupon the Councillor or person not being a Councillor shall cease speaking and resume their seat if necessary.

Respect for Chairman and Speaker

116. When the Chairman is putting any question a Councillor shall not walk out of or across the Chamber and shall not whilst any other Councillor is speaking pass between the speaker and the Chair.

Chairman to Preserve Order

117. The Chairman shall preserve order and may call any Councillor or any person not being a Councillor to order wherever there is cause for so doing.

Members May Direct Attention to Breaches of Order

118. Every Councillor shall be entitled to direct the attention of the Chairman to an infraction of the Standing Orders by the Chairman, any other Councillor or any person not being a Councillor or to draw the attention of the Chairman to any matter covered under Clause 115.

Retraction or Apology on Any Matter

119. Whenever the Chairman has decided that any motion, amendment or other matter before the Council is out of order in accordance with the Standing Orders it shall be rejected and whenever anything said or done in the Council by any Councillor or any person not being a Councillor is similarly decided to be out of order in accordance with the Standing Orders that Councillor or any person not being a Councillor shall be called upon by the Chairman to make such explanation, retraction or apology as the case may require.

120. When a Councillor persists in any conduct which the Chairman decides is out of order in accordance with the Standing Orders or refuses to make any explanation, retraction or apology required by the Chairman under Clause 119 the Chairman may direct that Councillor to refrain from taking any further part in the then meeting of the Council other than by recording of their vote and the Councillor shall comply with such direction.

Serious Disorder

121. (1) If at a meeting of the Council the Chairman is of the opinion that by reason of disorder or otherwise the business of the Council cannot effectually be continued the Chairman may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen minutes whereafter the Council shall reassemble and decide whether business is to be proceeded with and that question shall be decided forthwith and without debate.

(2) Where after any proceeding under subclause (1) of this clause the Chairman is again of the opinion that the business of the Council cannot effectually be continued the Chairman may close the meeting.

PART VII—COMMITTEES*Division 1—Standing CommitteesAppointment of Standing Committees

122. In addition to such Occasional Committees as may from time to time be appointed there shall be the following Standing Committees—

- (a) Corporate Services
- (b) Technical Services
- (c) Community Services
- (d) Such other Standing Committee or Committees as may be appointed by the Council.

Composition of Committees

123. (1) Each Standing Committee shall comprise not less than three or more than four Councillors inclusive of the Mayor where the Mayor indicates the intention of being a member of such Committee in accordance with Sections 182 (2a) and (2b) of the Act; provided however that the total membership of a Standing Committee shall be less inclusive of the ex officio member than one half of the total number of the Councillors of the Council.

In the event of a Councillor not being able to attend a meeting of a Committee to which the Councillor has been appointed the Councillor shall advise the Clerk who shall then endeavour to arrange for the Councillor's deputy in order of seniority to attend in the absent Councillor's stead.

(2) Any Councillor may attend as an observer any meeting of a Committee of which they are not a member and with the approval by a simple majority vote of the Committee, such approval subject to withdrawal at any time by the Committee by a simple majority vote, be permitted to take part in any discussions or deliberations at that meeting but shall not be permitted to take any part in the voting on any of the proceedings.

Term of Office

124. Subject to Clause 125 the members of each Standing Committee shall be appointed at the first meeting of the Council held after the annual election and shall hold office until the commencement of the first meeting of the Council held after the next annual election or until the termination of the Councillor's term of office whichever occurs first.

Council May Change Membership

125. (1) Council may by resolution carried pursuant to a notice of motion by a simple majority or on a motion moved without notice by an absolute majority change the membership of any Committee or appoint substitutes for members absent pursuant to leave granted by the Council.

(2) In the event of equality of votes for two or more Councillors in an election for member of a Committee the question shall be determined in the negative.

*Division 2—Occasional CommitteesAppointment of Occasional Committees

126. The Council may appoint Occasional Committees to perform any duty which may be lawfully entrusted by it to a Committee.

Number of Members

127. An Occasional Committee may comprise any number of members not exceeding the largest minority of the total number of members of Council.

Standing Committee Not to Interfere

128. A Standing Committee shall not interfere in any matter which has for the time being been entrusted to an Occasional Committee.

Details of Appointment

129. An Occasional Committee shall not be appointed except on a motion setting out—

- (a) the duties proposed to be entrusted to such Committee; and
- (b) either—
 - (i) the names of the Councillors of whom with the Mayor it is intended to constitute the Committee; or
 - (ii) the number of Councillors intended to constitute the Committee and a provision that they be elected by a separate motion.

*Division 3—GeneralCalling of Meetings

130. The Clerk shall call a meeting of any Standing Committee at least once each calendar month and also when requested so to do by the Mayor or Chairman or any two members of that Committee.

Standing Orders to Apply Mutatis Mutandis

131. Except in so far as they limit the number of times a Councillor may speak these Standing Orders shall be observed at meetings of Committees but the Chairman of a Committee may have and exercise both a deliberative and in the case of equality of votes a casting vote.

Quorum of Committee

132. At any meeting of a Committee the number of members necessary to form a quorum—

- (a) where the total number of the members of the Committee is an even number is one half of that total plus one; or
- (b) where the total number of the members of the Committee is an odd number is the integer nearest to but greater than one-half of that total.

Meeting Lapses if No Quorum

133. Every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated in the summons as a quorum is constituted but if a quorum is lacking one half hour after the appointed time of the meeting, the meeting shall lapse.

PART VIII—GENERALRepresentation on Public Bodies

134. (1) Whenever it becomes necessary to nominate a Councillor to represent the Council on a Public Body or State instrumentality that nomination shall be made by Council.

(2) Notice of the necessity to make that appointment shall be given at the Council Meeting immediately preceding the meeting at which it is intended to make the appointment.

Motions Affecting Expenditure

135. Where a motion or amendment would have the effect of incurring expenditure not provided for in the budget estimates that motion or amendment shall not be moved other than in the form of a reference of the question to the Corporate Services Committee.

Meetings of Electors

136. (1) The Standing Orders apply so far as is practicable to any meeting of Electors but where there is any inconsistency between the provisions of this by-law and the provisions of section 171 of the Act the latter prevails.

(2) Minutes of Electors' Meetings to be presented for receipt and consideration of Council at the next scheduled meeting of Council following the Electors' meeting with the mover and seconder of any motions carried together with two (2) persons opposed to the adopted motion who were recorded as being in attendance at the Electors' meeting at which the motion was put, being given the opportunity to address Council prior to the receipt and consideration of the minutes.

Non-Electors not to Speak For Vote

137. A person who is not an elector is not entitled to vote at a meeting of Electors and may not take part in any discussion at that meeting unless the meeting by a motion permits the person to do so.

Petitions

138. Apart from those petitions to the Governor and others specifically prescribed under the Local Government Act (which shall be in the form prescribed) petitions and requests to Council of a general nature will be received by Council provided that the meaning and legibility of the petitions and requests is clear.

Cases Not Provided for in Standing Orders

139. The Chairman shall decide all questions of order, procedure, debate or otherwise in respect of which no provisions or insufficient provision is made in this by-law taking as a guide the procedure of the Western Australian Parliament in that behalf. The decisions of the Chairman in all such cases shall be final in that particular case unless a majority of the Councillors then present shall on motion made forthwith without discussion dissent therefrom.

Electors' Forum

140. Any Elector may during the Electors Forum segment of the Agenda with the consent of the Chairman, speak on any matter before the Council or Committee provided that—

- (i) the Elector has requested the right to do so in writing addressed to the General Manager/Town Clerk by noon on the day of the meeting.
- (ii) the Electors speaking right to be exercised before Council debates the particular Agenda item.
- (iii) the maximum period for Electors Forum to be fifteen (15) minutes.

Penalty

141. Any person committing a breach of these Standing Orders is liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00).

Notice of Intention to Borrow

Proposed Loan 156

The notices which appeared in the Government Gazette on pages 3505 on 20th July, 1990, and page 4180 on 14th September, 1990, are amended as follows—

The period of the loan was incorrectly advertised for ten (10) years and should have read five (5) years with repayments at the office of the Council by ten (10) equal half-yearly instalments of principle and interest.

The Loan will therefore be renegotiated after four-yearly intervals and not two-yearly intervals as advertised.
