		(xv) No building shall be constructed within fifteen metres (15.0 metres) of a Public Access Way (PAW) boundary.
		Tourist Accommodation Controls.
		(xvi) The use of a 'short stay residential and holiday dwelling area' shall be confined to the construction of serviced holiday accommodation and related facilities. The accommodation may be in the form of a group of self contained dwelling units, villas or chalets constructed within one complex with the number of dwellings being limited to forty five (45) within any one 'short stay residential and holiday dwelling area' as defined on the Development Guide Plan 'The Cascades Tourism Village'.
		(xvii) The dwellings constructed within a 'short stay residential and holiday dwelling area' shall be used for the sole purpose of rental or hire accommodation for the use of non permanent occupants. No other uses are permitted.
		(xviii) No person shall within any 'short stay residential and holiday dwelling area' occupy a dwelling unit, villa or chalet or any other form of accommodation for more than a total of three months in any one twelve month period.
		(xix) Notwithstanding any other condition herein the Council may permit the permanent occupancy of up to three dwellings within any 'short stay residential and holiday dwelling area' for the sole purpose of the residential occupancy of the proprietor, the manager, and any staff (and their immediate family) of the tourist and holiday accommodation business being conducted within a 'short stay residential and holiday dwelling area' as defined on the Development Guide Plan.
		Development Guide Plan Variations.
		(xx) A full plan of development for any area or lot as defined within the Development Guide Plan 'The Cascades Tourism Village' must be approved by Council prior to approval and commencement of any partial development within any such area or lot. The Council may at its discretion permit minor design variations on any subsequent stage of the development of a lot.
		(xxi) In assessing a development application the Council may impose any approval condition relating to building setback from boundaries, building design, building construction and building material types provided that, in the opinion of the Council, the imposition of the approval condition is reasonable and will promote a better use of the site subject of the development application.

Performance Contract.

- (xxiv) The owner(s)/subdivider(s)/developer(s) of The Cascades Tourism Village and individual lots contained therein will be required, from time to time, to establish a trust fund or pay a development bond to guarantee the undertaking of specific civil works or other such development as required by Council.
- (xxv) Development(s) on created lots are to reach a stage satisfactory to Council prior to endorsement of diagrams of survey for any subsequent lots.
- (xxvi) If in the opinion of the Council and State Planning Commission approvals for development and subdivision pursuant to the overall Subdivision Guide Plan and Development Guide Plan have not been obtained and substantially implemented within a period of five years of the granting of final approval to this Amendment, the provisions of this Amendment shall cease to have force and effect, and the Scheme thereafter shall be read as if the Amendment had not been made.

3. Introducing further interpretations into Part 1, Clause 1.7 Interpretation of the Scheme Text by adding the following—

Camping Area: means land used for the lodging of persons in tents or other temporary shelter.

Hostel: means a lodging house which is not open to the public generally but is reserved for use solely by students and staff of educational establishments, members of societies, institutes or associations.

Reception Centre: means land and buildings used by parties for functions on formal or ceremonious occasions, but not for unhosted use for general entertainment purposes.

Restaurant: means a building wherein food is prepared for sale and consumption within the building and the expression shall include a licensed restaurant, and a restaurant at which food for consumption outside the building is sold where the sale of food for consumption outside the building is not the principal part of the business.
