PUBLIC PROSECUTIONSPS301*DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS ACT 1991
STATEMENT OF EXTRADITION GUIDELINES

1. These guidelines are to be read in conjunction with paragraphs 89-91 of the Statement of Prosecution Policy and Guidelines.
2. Approval for extradition may be sought by Police, the Ministry of Justice or other relevant government agency.
3. Before determining a request for extradition, the Director of Public Prosecutions may consult with and require information from a relevant agency.
4. Applications for approvals for extradition should be in writing, presenting reasons for the extradition of a particular fugitive offender.
5. In urgent cases, approval may be sought and given orally. An oral approval must be followed by a full report of the circumstances from the requesting agency as soon as possible.
6. The following factors, if applicable, will be taken into consideration in deciding whether approval is given:
 - (a) The country or state from which the fugitive is to be extradited.
 - (b) The nationality of the fugitive.
 - (c) Whether the fugitive is to be charged with an offence or, having been charged, has absconded.
 - (d) The nature and gravity of the offence or offences alleged against the fugitive.
 - (e) The existence of reasonable prospects of conviction.
 - (f) Any delay after discovery of the fugitive's whereabouts.
 - (g) The likely disposition following conviction.
 - (h) Where a person is in custody, whether the provisions of the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1983 should be utilised.
 - (i) The likely cost of extradition.
 - (j) The existence of assets held by the fugitive which could satisfy an order in relation to breach of bail or a confiscation order and where such assets are to be found.
7. In seeking approval for extradition or in providing information, the Director of Public Prosecutions should be advised if and to what extent the fugitive might reasonably constitute a risk to the public, either at large or for the purposes of transportation to Western Australia. Advice to the Director of Public Prosecutions should include recommendations as to whether the fugitive should be extradited on bail or in custody. If in custody advice should include information on the number of officers required to effect extradition, cost of economy airfare for the fugitive and officer(s).
8. Approval for extradition may be given by the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Deputy Director, or any duly authorised Crown Prosecutor.

JOHN McKECHNIE, Director of Public Prosecutions.

PS302DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS ACT 1991
GUIDELINES FOR DISCLOSURE OF MATERIAL ADDITIONAL TO THE CROWN CASE

1. The duties of the Crown to disclose the case for the prosecution are set out in paragraphs 57-65 of the Statement of Prosecution Policy and Guidelines issued 1 November 1992. These guidelines deal with disclosure of material not directly relevant to the Crown case.

DUTIES OF POLICE

2. In all matters following a committal for trial on indictment, police must deliver to the office of Director of Public Prosecutions, as soon as possible after committal, all other documentation, material, and any other information held by any police officer concerning any proposed prosecution witness, which might be of assistance or interest to either the prosecution or the defence.
3. A police officer shall certify that to the best of that officer's knowledge or belief, all such documentation material or information has been disclosed.

OBLIGATIONS OF THE PROSECUTION

4. The prosecution, upon request by the defence, shall, subject to any claim for immunity on the grounds of public interest, disclose all such documentation, material or information either by making copies available or allowing inspection.
5. Some material however may raise for consideration the need to balance competing public interests. On the one hand there is a public interest in full disclosure to assist the attainment of justice. On the other hand there is also a public interest in maintaining the confidentiality of certain material, particularly material not directly relevant to the case.
6. A prosecutor may withhold or delay disclosure of specific material where the prosecutor is of opinion that, in the public interest, the material should be immune from disclosure.
7. Some of the factors to be considered are where:
 - (a) the material is clearly irrelevant;
 - (b) withholding is necessary to preserve the identity of an informant;
 - (c) withholding is necessary to protect the safety or security, including protection from harassment, of persons who have supplied information to the police;
 - (d) the material is protected by legal professional privilege;
 - (e) the material, if it became known, might facilitate the commission of other offences or alert a person to police investigations;
 - (f) the material discloses some unusual form of surveillance or method of detecting crime;
 - (g) the material is supplied to the police only on condition that the contents will not be disclosed;
 - (h) the material contains details of private delicacy to the maker;
 - (i) the material relates to the internal workings of the police force;
 - (j) the material relates to national or State security.
8. Where the prosecutor declines to disclose material, or alternatively delays disclosure of material, the prosecutor should advise the defence that material has been withheld and claim an immunity against disclosure in respect of that material.
9. If a dispute arises as to the claim for immunity, the matter should be submitted to the court for resolution prior to trial.
10. Where the circumstances require, a prosecutor may seek an undertaking that the material will not be disclosed to parties other than the accused's legal advisers and the accused.
11. The Crown's duty of disclosure is a continuing obligation.

JOHN McKECHNIE, Director of Public Prosecutions.

Regulation 5 amended

3. Regulation 5 (2) (b) of the principal regulations is amended by deleting "$2.75" and substituting the following —

" $4.50 "

Regulation 7A inserted

4. After regulation 7 of the principal regulations the following regulation is inserted —

Annual payment by fishing or diving charter operators in lieu of admission fees

7A. (1) If —

(a) the owner of a vessel in which persons are carried to the Island for reward for the sole purpose of participating in recreational fishing, or recreational diving, from that vessel, pays to the Authority, subject to subregulation (3), the annual payment calculated in accordance with Schedule 5 —

(i) in advance of and in respect of a financial year; and

(ii) for the number of visits declared by the owner to be made by the vessel to the Island during that financial year;

and

(b) an adhesive label issued by the Authority on receipt of the annual payment is exhibited on the vessel in such a position as to be clearly visible from the exterior, a person who is carried to the Island on the vessel during that financial year for the sole purpose of participating in recreational fishing, or recreational diving, from that vessel shall be deemed to have paid the admission fee prescribed by regulation 5.

(2) At the time when the owner of a vessel makes a declaration of the number of visits to be made to the Island under subregulation (1) (a) (ii), the owner shall also declare the number of visits, if any, made by the vessel to the Island during the previous financial year.

(3) If the number of visits made by a vessel to the Island during the previous financial year is greater than or less than the number declared by the owner in respect of that financial year, the Authority may make an appropriate adjustment to the annual payment that the owner is required to pay under subregulation (1) (a).

(4) In this regulation —

“declare” and “declared” mean declare or declared to, and in a manner approved by, the Authority; and “owner” includes a charterer, lessee or bailee.
