ZZ402IN THE MATTER OF THE MEDICAL ACT 1894

and amendments

and

IN THE MATTER OF DR. PHILIP RICHARD COURTENAY RANDALL

Medical Practitioner of Unit 1, 52 Highclere Blvde, Marangaroo, Western Australia

The Medical Board of Western Australia held an Inquiry on the 15th December 1993 with reference to an allegation that Dr. Philip Richard Courtenay Randall had been guilty of infamous or improper conduct in a professional respect contrary to section 13 (1) (a) of the Medical Act 1894 as amended. The charges arose as a result of Dr. Randall having—

- (a) in the period April 1991 to October 1991 prescribed pethidine for his wife, notwithstanding that to his knowledge she was addicted to pethidine;

- (b) in the period October 1991 to March 1992, whilst his wife was registered as a drug addict with the Health Department, he accompanied her to different medical practitioners for the purposes of obtaining a prescription of pethidine for her use, when he was aware that a medical practitioner was prohibited from prescribing pethidine to a drug addict without the prior written consent of the permanent head of the Health Department; and
- (c) in the period April 1992 until September 1993 he wrote prescriptions for pethidine in the name of patients other than his wife which prescriptions for pethidine were intended for and used by her.

Dr. Randall pleaded guilty to the charge, and the orders made by the board were—

- (1) that the complaint against Dr. Philip Richard Courtenay Randall of improper conduct in a professional respect had been established;
- (2) that Dr. Philip Richard Courtenay Randall be reprimanded;
- (3) that the following conditions be imposed on the practice of Dr. Philip Richard Courtenay Randall—
 - (a) that his rights to prescribe or administer narcotic analgesics be removed;
 - (b) that he attended a psychiatrist of the board's approval and undergo any therapy recommended and that regular, at least quarterly, reports on his progress be made to the board; and
 - (c) that he no longer treats his wife as a patient for any medical condition;
- (4) that Dr. Philip Richard Courtenay Randall pay the costs of the inquiry as determined.

Dated at Perth this 15th day of December 1993.

By Order of the Medical Board of Western Australia,

K. I. BRADBURY, Registrar.
