Regulation 25A inserted

3. After regulation 25 of the principal regulations the following regulation is inserted —

“

Duty statements

25A. (1) Without limiting regulation 36, the chief executive officer may from time to time prepare and issue duty statements for teachers.

(2) A duty statement is a document providing for the duties that a teacher is to perform.

(3) A duty statement —

- (a) need not be exhaustive of all of the duties that a teacher is to perform;
- (b) may be expressed to apply to —
 - (i) a particular teacher; or
 - (ii) any group or category of teachers, either with or without exceptions;
- (c) may be expressed to apply at all times or at a specified time or for a specified period;

- (d) may confer a discretionary authority on the principal;
- (e) may be amended, added to or cancelled by the chief executive officer; and
- (f) may be replaced by another duty statement made by the chief executive officer.

(4) A duty statement for a teacher is not binding on the teacher unless a copy of it has been given to the teacher personally by the principal.

(5) Subject to subregulation (4), a teacher is to comply with a duty statement that applies to the teacher or the group or category of teachers to which the teacher belongs.

(6) In this regulation —

“duty statement” includes any amendment or addition to a duty statement.
