DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS ACT 1991

Section 24

GUIDELINES TO POLICE OFFICERS AND OTHER PUBLIC
OFFICERS FOR THE EXERCISE OF THE DISCRETION NOT TO PROSECUTE INDICTABLE OFFENCES

Introduction

Every decision whether or not to charge a person with an indictable offence must be in the public interest.

When a charge is laid, there is a written record of the charge and the evidence in support is available in due course for review.

These guidelines are intended to clarify the exercise of discretion by police officers and public officers in situations where the public interest does not require a person to be charged with an indictable offence.

These guidelines should not discourage police officers and other public officers from exercising the discretion. The guidelines are to promote consistency and improve accountability.

The Director of Public Prosecutions is the only person with statutory authority to grant indemnities from prosecutions.

Furthermore, the only bodies able to grant an undertaking that answers given or statements made by a person will not be used in evidence are Courts and the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Police and other public officers do not have these powers.

Therefore, the decision not to proceed with a prosecution in the public interest is one that must always be capable of review.

Guidelines

1. There will be occasions, when despite sufficient credible evidence identifying a person as having committed an offence, a police officer or public officer will exercise a discretion not to charge that person.
2. Such a discretion should only be exercised in the public interest and by applying to the particular facts and circumstances the Statement of Prosecution Policy and Guidelines published in Government Gazette No. 157 on 6 November 1992.
3. The reasons for the exercise of a discretion not to lay a charge in a particular case must be recorded in writing.
4. The exercise of a discretion not to lay a charge in a particular case should be subject of routine review within the Police Service or other responsible authority. The review must also be recorded in writing.
5. These guidelines apply to all indictable offences, including indictable offences triable summarily and will become operative from 1 February 1998.

20 January 1998.

JOHN McKECHNIE, Director of Public Prosecutions.

PUBLIC SECTOR MANAGEMENT ACT 1994
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER APPOINTMENTS

The Government of Western Australia is keen to ensure that chief executive officers of all public service departments and agencies, are the most suitable for the position. I have therefore decided that it is generally preferable to advertise chief executive officer positions at the expiry of existing appointments, to ensure that competitive and merit-based appointments are made. This approach should not, however, be seen as a reflection upon the capacity of current chief executive officers whose terms of appointment have expired. I expect that present occupants will, in most cases, wish to apply for appointment to advertised positions.

Having received and considered relevant advice in respect of the chief executive officer listed below, I, Richard Fairfax Court, Minister for Public Sector Management, notify that I have not recommended the reappointment of—

Agency	Title	Name of Current Occupant
Office of Water Regulation	Chief Executive Officer	Brian Martin

I shall soon be requesting the Commissioner for Public Sector Standards to act to enable the filling of this vacancy.
