Family Court Act 1997

Family Court Rules 1998

Made by the the Judges under s. 244.

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Citation

These rules may be cited as the Family Court Rules 1998.

2. Interpretation

In these rules, unless the contrary intention appears —

“court” has the meaning referred to in section 8 of the Act;

“decree” has the same meaning as in section 211 of the Act;

“section” means section of the Act.

3. Dispensing with compliance

A court may dispense with compliance with any requirement of these rules, either before or after the occasion for compliance has arisen.

4. Repeal

The Family Court of Western Australia Rules 1988 are repealed.

Part 2 — General

Division 1 — General

5. Seal

The Court’s seal —

(a) is to contain the words “The Seal of the Family Court of Western Australia”; and

(b) may be impressed on any document by a rubber stamp or similar process.

6. Sittings and registry hours

(1) The Court is to sit at such places and times as the Chief Judge directs.

- (2) There are to be no Court vacations but the Court is not to sit on Saturdays, Sundays or public service holidays unless the Judge constituting the Court otherwise directs.
- (3) Subject to subrule (4), the Court's registry is to be open every day in the year except Saturdays and Sundays and public service holidays.
- (4) Unless the Chief Judge otherwise directs, the Court's registry is to be open from 9.00 a.m. to 4.00 p.m.

7. Oaths and affirmations

- (1) A court may require and administer all necessary oaths and affirmations.
- (2) The form of an oath or affirmation is, to the extent appropriate, to be the same as that used in the Supreme Court.

8. Records, registers and indexes

The Principal Registrar is to —

- (a) cause to be kept such records, registers and indexes as the Chief Judge directs; and
- (b) ensure that every decree of a court is recorded by the proper officer of the court in a record kept for that purpose.

9. Affidavits

- (1) An affidavit to be sworn in Australia and filed or used in a court can only be sworn before —
  - (a) a justice of the peace;
  - (b) a notary public; or
  - (c) a lawyer, with or without a commission for taking affidavits.
- (2) An affidavit to be sworn outside Australia and filed or used in a court can only be sworn —
  - (a) before —
    - (i) an Australian diplomatic or consular agent; or
    - (ii) a diplomatic agent or a consular agent of any part of Her Majesty's dominions, exercising his or her functions at that place;
  - (b) before a judge of a court of that place or a magistrate or justice of the peace of or for that place;
  - (c) before a notary public; or
  - (d) if the place is under the dominion of Her Majesty, before a person who otherwise has authority to administer oaths at that place.

10. Recognizances

A recognizance required to be filed or used in a court can only be executed before a Judge, the Principal Registrar, a Registrar, a Deputy Registrar, the Marshal, the Collector of Maintenance, a magistrate, a justice of the peace, the clerk of a court of summary jurisdiction or any other person allowed by a written law or the Family Law Rules to take a recognizance.

11. Costs where court has no jurisdiction

If a matter is brought in a court over which the court has no jurisdiction, the court must order the matter to be struck out, and the court has power to award costs to the same extent, and recoverable in the same manner, as if the court had jurisdiction in the matter and the person bringing the matter had not appeared in the court or had so appeared and failed to establish his or her case.

Division 2 — Adoption of Family Law Rules*12. Adoption of certain Family Law Rules for federal jurisdiction

- (1) The Family Law Rules, except for those set out in the Table to this subrule, are adopted and apply, to the extent to which they are relevant, for the purposes of the exercise by the Court and courts of summary jurisdiction of their federal jurisdiction under the Act.

- (4) Subject to this rule, a Family Law Rule adopted under subrule (1) is adopted and applies in the form in which it is in force from time to time.

Division 3 — Accounting and enforcement

14. Definition

In this Division —

“order” means an order or registered agreement for —

- (a) the maintenance of a child;
- (b) the maintenance of one of the parties; or
- (c) the payment of child bearing expenses or for the payment of similar expenses under the Family Law Act, and includes child maintenance provisions in a registered parenting plan within the meaning of the Act or the Family Law Act.

15. Collector of Maintenance

The Collector of Maintenance or the clerk of a court of summary jurisdiction —

- (a) is to receive moneys payable to the Collector of Maintenance or to the court and disburse those moneys to the person named in the order; and
- (b) is to keep proper accounts as to payments due, and made, under an order.

16. Accounting

- (1) A ledger is to be maintained —
  - (a) at the Court’s registry by the Collector of Maintenance; and
  - (b) by the clerk of every court of summary jurisdiction.
- (2) Where moneys are paid to an officer of a court under an order made by, or registered in, the court the officer is to disburse those moneys to the person named in the order as being entitled to receive payment or to a person who is entitled to receive those moneys on behalf of the person so named.
- (3) Subject to any express directions given by the person making the payment, money paid under an order is to be treated as a payment made to the person entitled to receive it in satisfaction to the extent of the payment —
  - (a) firstly of any fees payable in respect of the enforcement; and
  - (b) secondly to amounts due and unpaid under the provision (an amount due at an earlier date being satisfied before an amount due at a later date).
- (4) Where a person makes a payment before the date on which the moneys are due the Collector of Maintenance or clerk of the court to which payment has been made may disburse the moneys before that date if the person gives —

- (a) a written authority to that effect; and
  - (b) an indemnity in writing in respect of the early payment.
- (5) Where a person who is obliged to make payments under 2 or more provisions of an order or under provisions of 2 or more orders pays an amount that is less than the aggregate amount payable under those provisions, without giving any directions as to the appropriation of the moneys so paid, the Collector of Maintenance or the clerk of the court to which the payment has been made may, subject to subrule (4), appropriate the moneys so paid for or towards the satisfaction of the amounts payable, in such manner as the Collector or clerk thinks proper.

17. Notice of election

- (1) Subject to rule 18(1), a person who is entitled to enforce one or more of the provisions of an order may elect not to enforce a specified provision.
- (2) An election under subrule (1) must be made by written notice to the Collector of Maintenance or clerk of the court in which the order is enforceable.
- (3) The Collector or clerk referred to in subrule (2) must cause notice of the election to be given to each person liable to make payments under the order and the provision specified in the notice cannot be enforced unless —
  - (a) notice of withdrawal of the notice of election has been given in accordance with rule 18(3); or
  - (b) the Court or relevant court of summary jurisdiction has granted leave to do so.
- (4) A notice of election given under this rule does not affect the enforcement of any other provision of the order.

18. Notice of withdrawal of election

- (1) A notice of election referred to in rule 17 may be withdrawn at any time by the person entitled to enforce the order.
- (2) The withdrawal of a notice of election must be made by written notice to the Collector of Maintenance or clerk referred to in rule 17(2).
- (3) The Collector of Maintenance or clerk referred to in rule 17(2) must cause notice of the withdrawal of the notice of election to be given to each person referred to in rule 17(3) and the provision specified in the notice of election is enforceable from the day of the notice of withdrawal, without the leave of any court.

19. Duties of Collector of Maintenance or clerk as to enforcement

- (1) On application by or on behalf of any person entitled to enforce an order being made to the Collector of Maintenance or to the clerk of the court in which the order is enforceable, the Collector or clerk may take any step necessary or expedient to enforce the order.
- (2) A person who applies under subrule (1) has the same liability for all costs properly incurred in or about the enforcement proceedings as if the proceedings had been taken by that person.
- (3) The Collector of Maintenance or a clerk of a court may refuse to act on an application under subrule (1) if it appears to the Collector or clerk that it is unreasonable to do so.

Part 3 — Registrars

Division 1 — General

20. Definition

In this Part —

“Registrar” means the Principal Registrar, a Registrar or a Deputy Registrar.

21. Exercise of powers and functions of Registrars

- (1) If under these rules a function is conferred upon a Registrar, the function may also be performed —
  - (a) in the Family Court — by a Judge;
  - (b) in a court of summary jurisdiction — by a magistrate.
- (2) If a Registrar is required or able to do an act not involving the exercise of judicial power it is sufficient if the act is done on behalf of the Registrar by —
  - (a) a clerk in the office of the Registrar; or
  - (b) another officer of the court or by a clerk in that person’s office.

22. Registrars not required to give reasons

Unless requested by a party to do so a Registrar need not give reasons for any order, direction or decision.

23. Protection and immunity

- (1) In the exercise of a power of a court or in the conduct of a conference or enquiry under these rules a Registrar or other person acting under rule 21 has the same protection and immunity as a Judge or magistrate.

- (2) A party, lawyer or witness appearing before a Registrar or other person acting under rule 21 on the hearing of any application or matter, or on the conducting of any conference or enquiry, has the same protection and immunity as the party, lawyer or witness would have if appearing in proceedings in a court.

Division 2 — Delegation of judicial power to Registrars

24. Delegation of powers to Registrars

For the purposes of section 33, the following powers of the Court are delegated to each Registrar —

- (a) the court powers referred to in a Family Law Rule set out in the Table to this subrule;
