5. Transitional

- (1) In this regulation —

“pre-July 1992 pool” means a swimming pool that —

- (a) was installed before 1 July 1992; or
- (b) was installed on or after 1 July 1992 in accordance with plans, drawings and specifications that were submitted to the local government for approval before that day;

“transitional period” means the period beginning on the day on which these regulations come into operation and —

- (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, ending on 17 December 2006; or
- (b) if the swimming pool is on premises sold within the period referred to in paragraph (a), ending on the day 3 months after the settlement day for that sale.

- (2) During the transitional period, despite regulation 38B(3) of the Building Regulations 1989 a building may be included within the area enclosed for a pre-July 1992 pool even though —

- (a) the building is not a Class 10a building under the Building Code; and
- (b) any external door or window in the building does not satisfy the requirements of Australian Standard AS 1926.1.
