Criminal Investigation Act 2006

Criminal Investigation Regulations 2007

Made by the Lieutenant-Governor and deputy of the Governor in Executive Council.

1. Citation

These regulations are the Criminal Investigation Regulations 2007.

2. Commencement

These regulations come into operation as follows:

- (a) regulations 1 and 2 — on the day on which these regulations are published in the Gazette;
- (b) the rest of the regulations — on the day on which section 156 of the Act comes into operation.

3. Terms used in these regulations

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears —

“Act” means the Criminal Investigation Act 2006;

“approved course” means a course approved under regulation 6;

“Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Police;

“forensic procedure power” means a power that may be exercised when doing a forensic procedure on a person under Part 9 of the Act by a qualified person.

Criminal Investigation Regulations 2007r. 4

4. Forms prescribed

Each form in Schedule 1 is prescribed for the purposes of the section of the Act for which it is prescribed.

5. Forms, completing

- (1) A form in Schedule 1 may be adapted as necessary for the purposes of the section of the Act for which it is prescribed.
- (2) If an item in a form in Schedule 1 does not have enough space to complete it, the person completing it must —
 - (a) insert in the item “See attachment [number]”; and
 - (b) attach to the form a separate document titled “Attachment [number] — [name of the item]”.

Example: A single attachment to Form 1 for the item “Thing(s) to be searched for” will be titled “Attachment 1 — Thing(s) to be searched for”.

6. Approving courses for certain forensic procedures

- (1) Any act done by the Commissioner under this regulation must be in writing.
- (2) The Commissioner may approve a course of training or study in relation to exercising a forensic procedure power if satisfied that a person who satisfactorily completes the course is competent to exercise the power when doing the procedure on another person.
- (3) The Commissioner may amend or cancel an approval given under subregulation (2).
- (4) Notice of any act done by the Commissioner under subregulation (2) or (3) must be published in the Gazette.

7. Qualified persons for certain forensic procedures

- (1) Any act done by the Commissioner or his or her delegate under this regulation must be in writing.

Criminal Investigation Regulations 2007

r. 7

- (2) If the Commissioner is satisfied —
- (a) on the basis of a person's qualifications or experience in relation to exercising a forensic procedure power that the person is competent to exercise the power when doing the procedure on another person; or
 - (b) that a person has successfully completed an approved course in relation to exercising a forensic procedure power,
- the Commissioner may give the person a certificate that says the person is qualified to exercise the power when doing the forensic procedure, either generally or in a way or circumstances specified in the certificate.
- (3) A certificate may relate to more than one forensic procedure power.
- (4) The Commissioner may cancel a person's certificate —
- (a) if there is good reason to do so; or
 - (b) if the person ceases to be a person whose official duties may include doing forensic procedures.
- (5) If the Commissioner cancels a person's certificate, the Commissioner must give the person a notice of the fact and of the effect of subregulation (6).
- (6) A person who is given a notice under subregulation (5) must return the certificate concerned to the Commissioner within 14 days after the day on which he or she is given the notice.
Penalty: a fine of $500.
- (7) The Commissioner must keep a register of persons who have certificates.
- (8) The Commissioner may delegate his or her functions under this regulation, other than this power of delegation, to a police officer who is, or is acting as, a superintendent or an officer of a rank more senior than a superintendent.

Criminal Investigation Regulations 2007r. 8

- (9) A person who is given a certificate in relation to a forensic procedure power is, subject to the terms of the certificate, a qualified person for the purposes of Part 9 of the Act in relation to exercising the power when doing the procedure.

8. Authorised person prescribed (Act s. 120)

For the purposes of section 120 of the Act, a person appointed under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act 2003 as the Chief Assessor or as an Assessor is prescribed to be an authorised person.

9. Senior officer prescribed (Act s. 140)

For the purposes of section 140 of the Act, the Commissioner appointed under the Corruption and Crime Commission Act 2003 is prescribed as a senior officer in relation to any authorised officer who, under section 184(3) of that Act, is prescribed to be a public officer for the purposes of the Act.
