3. Introducing the following Residential Development Zones provisions into the Scheme as Section 3.8—

3.8 RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT ZONE

Zone Objectives

- To identify opportunities for future subdivision and development of land for the purposes of single and group residential purposes together with, if determined necessary by Council, associated community and recreational facilities.
- To ensure that subdivision and development of land within the zone is consistent with an Outline Development Plan adopted by Council and endorsed by the Western Australian Planning Commission prepared in accordance with Clause 5.8 of this Scheme.
- To designate land for residential development to meet the needs of the town in locations that can be economically serviced and are environmentally suitable.
- To provide a range in housing and lifestyle choice and protect the amenity and character of residential areas.

Zone Policies

- To promote development that is suitable for the local climate, designed to minimise energy consumption and reinforces the character of the residential precinct within which it is located;
- To ensure that necessary physical and social infrastructure is provided in conjunction with residential development;
- To promote residential development consistent with the Residential Planning codes or any variations to those codes as set out in this scheme;
- To limit the height and scale of any residential development to that of a domestic character consistent with surrounding residential development.

4. Introducing the following provisions for the preparation and adoption of Outline Development Plans into the Scheme as Section 5.8—

5.8 OUTLINE DEVELOPMENT PLAN PREPARATION AND ADOPTION

5.8.1 Requirement for Outline Development Plan

Prior to subdivision and development proceeding on land within the Residential Development Zone Council shall require the preparation and endorsement of an Outline Development Plan for the land consistent with the proposed uses of the land under the endorsed Outline Development Plan.

5.8.2 Preparation of Outline Development Plan

An Outline Development Plan required by Clause 5.8.1 above shall comprehensively address, but not be limited to, the following matters—

- (a) the physical and environmental characteristics of the land;
- (b) the proposed allocation of land use, subdivision and residential codes as applicable;
- (c) physical features the subdivision is intended to conserve and any areas to be set aside for public open space, pedestrian access ways, foreshore reserves and other reserves;
- (d) the principal road and other transport systems;
- (e) methods to be used to control and dispose of storm water runoff;
- (f) the allocation of Buffers and their treatment having regard for adjacent land;
- (g) the provision of community services and facilities;
- (h) staging of the development; and
- (i) such other information as the Council may require.

5.8.3 Residential Lot Sizes

An Outline Development Plan for land in the Residential Development Zone shall provide for a range of residential densities at the discretion of Council, which shall not exceed a maximum density of Residential R40. The Outline Development Plan should include provision for single residential lots and grouped dwelling sites and/or multiple dwelling sites.

5.8.4 Approval of Outline Development Plan

Following receipt of an Outline Development Plan that the Council considers adequately addresses the orderly and proper planning of the land the Council shall require the Plan to be advertised in a local newspaper for a period not less than 21 days and invite comments from the public and affected authorities on the plan. Once the Council has resolved to adopt an Outline Development Plan, it shall as soon as practicable, send to the Western Australian Planning Commission a copy of the development plan, details of any conditions, and a précis of submissions received and request the Commission to endorse the plan.

5.8.5 Implementation of an Outline Development Plan

The subdivision or development of land the subject of an endorsed Outline Development Plan shall be in accordance with that plan.

5.8.6 Modification of an Outline Development Plan

A proposed modification that materially affects an Outline Development Plan or a review of an Outline Development Plan shall for the purpose of Clause 5.2.4 to Clause 5.2.6 be an Outline Development Plan.

5. Changing portion of Lot 1415 Ashley Street from the Public Purposes—Community Welfare Reservation to the Residential Development Zone.
6. Amending the Scheme Maps and the Legend to the Scheme Maps accordingly.
