- (d) in accordance with the Building Code of Australia activate Australian Standard 3959 which is construction of building in bush fire prone areas.

6.6.2. For the purposes of this clause, a Bushfire Prone Area means any area located in the Bushfire Vulnerability Area special control area and shown on a Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map as bushfire prone.

- 6.6.3. A Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map shall indicate bushfire prone areas.
- 6.6.4. If a Local Government resolves to prepare a Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map, the Local Government—
- (a) is to notify in writing the owners and occupiers of all the properties in the affected area;
 - (b) is to publish a notice once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper circulating in the Scheme area, giving details of—
 - a. where the draft map may be inspected;
 - b. the subject nature of the draft map; and
 - c. in what form and during what period (being not less than 21 days from the day the notice is published) submissions may be made.
 - (c) may publish a notice of the proposed Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map in such manner and carry out such other consultation as the local government considers appropriate.
- 6.6.5. After the expiry of the period within which a submission may be made, the local government is to—
- (a) review the proposed Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map in light of any submission made; and
 - (b) resolve to adopt the Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map with or without modification.
- 6.6.6. If the local government resolves to adopt the Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map, the local government is to publish a notice of the Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map once in a newspaper circulating in the Scheme area.
- 6.6.7. The Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map has effect on publication of a notice under clause 6.6.6.
- 6.6.8. A copy of the Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map, as amended from time to time, is to be kept and made available for public inspection during business hours at the offices of the local government.
- 6.6.9. A land owner may dispute the classification of their land as set out on the Bushfire Hazard Assessment Map in writing to the local government for consideration.
- 6.6.10. In addition to development which otherwise requires approval under the Scheme, planning approval is required for any development within a bushfire prone area, that does not comply with an approved bushfire hazard assessment undertaken as part of the structure planning or subdivision of an area or is inconsistent with the WAPC's and FESA's Planning for Bush Fire Protection Guidelines (Latest Edition).
- 6.6.11. In determining an application to carry out development in the Bushfire Prone Area, the Local Government may refuse the application, or impose conditions on any planning approval as to—
- (a) the provision of fire fighting water supply.
 - (b) the provision of fire services access.
 - (c) the preparation of a fire management plan in accordance with the Planning for Bush Fire Protection Guidelines (Latest Edition) and implementation of specific fire protection measures set out in the plan, including any requirement for buildings to be constructed in accordance with A3959;
 - (d) the requirement to register a notification under section 70A Transfer of Land Act 1893 on the certificate of titles giving notice of the bushfire hazard and any restrictions and/or protective measures required to be maintained at the landowner's cost.
- 6.6.12. An application for development approval must be accompanied by—
- (a) a bushfire attack level assessment carried out in accordance with the methodology contained in the Planning for Bush Fire Protection Guidelines (Latest Edition);
 - (b) a statement or report that demonstrates that all relevant bushfire protection acceptable solutions, or alternatively all relevant performance criteria, contained in the Planning for Bush Fire Protection Guidelines (Latest Edition) have been considered and complied with, and effectively address the level of bush fire hazard applying to the land.
- 6.6.13. If, in the opinion of the Local Government, a development application does not fully comply with the bushfire protection acceptable solutions contained in the Planning for Bush Fire Protection Guidelines (Latest Edition), the application shall be referred to the FESAS for advice prior to a decision being made.
