- (7) A person who has parked a vehicle in a ticket parking area or a boom gate controlled ticket parking area must not leave the site while the vehicle is parked there.

Penalty for an offence under this sub-by-law: a fine of $50.

19A. Parking in paid staff parking area

- (1) In this by-law —

eligible staff member means a person who is in a class of persons determined by the chief executive officer under sub-by-law (5); paid staff parking area means an area set aside under by-law 17(1)(b).

- (2) A person must not park a vehicle in a paid staff parking area unless the person is an eligible staff member.
Penalty for an offence under this sub-by-law: a fine of $50.
- (3) An eligible staff member who parks a vehicle in a paid staff parking area must pay the prescribed fee for the length of time for which the vehicle has been parked before removing the vehicle from the parking area.
Penalty for an offence under this sub-by-law: a fine of $50.
- (4) A fee payable under this by-law is to be paid in an approved manner.
- (5) The chief executive officer may determine classes of persons who are eligible to park in paid staff parking areas.

19B. Parking in permit parking area

- (1) In this by-law —
permit parking area means an area set aside under by-law 17(1)(c).
- (2) A person must not park a vehicle in a permit parking area unless —
 - (a) the person holds a parking permit of the class (if any) for which the area is set aside; and
 - (b) the person parks the vehicle in accordance with that permit; and
 - (c) the permit is displayed in or on the vehicle in the manner specified in the permit.

Penalty for an offence under this sub-by-law: a fine of $50.

19C. Parking permits

- (1) The chief executive officer may determine classes of parking permits and the eligibility criteria for each class of parking permit.
- (2) An authorised person may grant parking permits of such classes and subject to any conditions the authorised person thinks fit.
- (3) Without limiting sub-by-law (2) a parking permit may be subject to conditions relating to all or any of the following —
 - (a) the vehicle, vehicles, or kind of vehicles, to which it relates;

- (b) the areas in which the permit holder is permitted to park;
 - (c) the times during which, or period of time for which, the permit holder is permitted to park;
 - (d) the number of persons who must be in the vehicle at the time it arrives at, or departs from, the site.
- (4) A parking permit —
- (a) takes effect on the day specified in it; and
 - (b) remains in effect for the period specified in it, unless it is cancelled before the end of that period.
- (5) If the holder of a parking permit of a particular class ceases to satisfy any of the eligibility criteria for that class of permit, the permit holder must notify an authorised person.

Penalty for an offence under this sub-by-law: a fine of $50.

19D. Application for parking permit

- (1) A person may apply to an authorised person for the grant of a parking permit.
- (2) An application must be made in writing in an approved form.
- (3) An applicant must provide the authorised person with any additional information or document that the authorised person asks for.
- (4) If an applicant does not comply with the requirements of this by-law the authorised person may decline to deal with the application and is to advise the applicant accordingly.
- (5) An applicant or other person must not give information in relation to an application that the person knows to be —
 - (a) false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (b) likely to deceive in a material way.

Penalty for an offence under this sub-by-law: a fine of $50.

19E. Fees for parking permits

- (1) The prescribed fee is payable for a parking permit.
- (2) The chief executive officer may waive the prescribed fee for a parking permit in a case where the chief executive officer, or an authorised person, believes that there are proper grounds for doing so.

- (3) An authorised person must not grant a parking permit unless at the time it is granted —
- (a) the applicant pays the fee in full for the whole of the period for which the permit is to be in force; or
 - (b) the authorised person is satisfied that arrangements are in place for the fee to be paid by the applicant in fortnightly payments made by way of payroll deduction; or
 - (c) the authorised person is satisfied that the fee for the permit has been or will be paid by the applicant in any other approved manner; or
 - (d) the fee for the permit has been waived.

19F. Cancellation of parking permit

- (1) There are grounds for cancelling a parking permit if —
- (a) in the case of a permit holder who pays the fee for the permit as described in by-law 19E(3)(b) or (c) — the permit holder fails to make a payment when it is due; or
 - (b) the permit holder fails to comply with a condition on the permit; or
 - (c) the permit holder breaches any of the by-laws in this Part; or
 - (d) the permit was granted in error in consequence of information provided in breach of by-law 19D(5); or
 - (e) the permit holder ceases to satisfy any of the eligibility criteria for the relevant class of permit; or
 - (f) the chief executive officer has determined that it is not practicable, for reasons relating to the operation or development of the site, for permits of a class to which the permit belongs to remain in force; or
 - (g) the permit holder requests that the permit be cancelled.
- (2) If an authorised person considers that there are grounds for cancelling a parking permit under sub-by-law (1)(a) to (e), the authorised person may cancel the permit by giving the permit holder 14 days written notice.
- (3) If the chief executive officer has made a determination under sub-by-law (1)(f) in relation to a class of parking permit, an authorised person may cancel a parking permit in that class by giving the permit holder 60 days written notice.

- (4) If the permit holder requests an authorised person to do so, the authorised person may cancel the permit by giving the permit holder written notice.
- (5) The notice given under this by-law must set out the grounds on which the permit is cancelled.

19G. Refund of parking permit fees

- (1) If a parking permit is cancelled on a ground referred to in by-law 19F(1)(f) or (g), the chief executive officer must cause any permit fee paid for any week commencing on or after the day on which the permit is cancelled to be refunded to the permit holder.
- (2) If a parking permit is cancelled on the ground referred to in by-law 19F(1)(e) the chief executive officer may cause any permit fee paid for any week commencing on or after the day on which the permit is cancelled to be refunded to the permit holder.
- (3) If an authorised person is satisfied that a permit holder will not park, or has not parked, on the site for a continuous period exceeding 4 weeks, the authorised person may waive the fees payable for the permit for that period.

6. By-law 25 amended

- (1) Delete by-law 25(4) and insert:
 - (4) The board may retain possession of a vehicle removed and stored under this by-law until the responsible person for the vehicle has paid the prescribed fee.
- (2) In by-law 25(5) delete “sub-by-law (4)(a)” and insert:
