- (ii) a counterclaim;
- (iii) a third party claim;
- (iv) a response to a claim;
- (v) a statement of defence;

or

- (b) a pre-trial conference, listing conference or trial for which the case was listed before commencement day is held on or after commencement day.
- (2) On and from commencement day, the former Rules continue to apply in relation to a transitional case to which this rule applies until —
- (a) the Court or a registrar directs otherwise under rule 143; or
 - (b) the case is concluded.

142. Listing transitional cases for a status conference

- (1) The Court may, of its own motion, list a transitional case for a status conference.
- (2) The Court must list a transitional case for a status conference if a party to a transitional case applies to the Court in the approved form to have the case listed.
- (3) The court must give the parties to the case 7 days written notice of a status conference for which the case is listed under this rule.
- (4) The Court must conduct a status conference for which a case is listed under this rule in open court.

143. Court or registrar may give directions in relation to transitional issues

- (1) At a status conference, pre-trial conference, listing conference or trial held in relation to a transitional case, the Court or a registrar may make any or all of the following directions —
 - (a) if the amended Rules do not apply in relation to the case, a direction that they are to apply in relation to the case on and from a specified date;
 - (b) a direction modifying the application of the amended Rules in relation to the case;

66. Part 16 inserted

After rule 81 insert:

Part 16 — Transitional rules for the Magistrates Court Rules Amendment Rules 2020

82. Terms used in this Part

In this Part — amended Rules means the Magistrates Court (Minor Cases Procedure) Rules 2005 as in force from time to time on and after commencement day;

commencement day means 1 June 2020;

former Rules means the Magistrates Court (Minor Cases Procedure) Rules 2005 as in force before commencement day;

transitional case means a case that, as of commencement day, has been commenced but not concluded.

83. Application of amended Rules in relation to transitional cases

- (1) Subject to rule 84, on and from commencement day the amended Rules apply in relation to a transitional case.
- (2) If the amended Rules apply in relation to a transitional case, then, unless otherwise directed under rule 86 —
 - (a) everything lodged or served in relation to the case under a provision of the former Rules is taken to have been lodged or served under the corresponding provision of the amended Rules; and
 - (b) every order made, direction given or other thing done in relation to the case by the Court or by a registrar under a provision of the former Rules is taken to have been made, given or done under the corresponding provision of the amended Rules.

84. Application of former Rules in relation to certain transitional cases

- (1) This rule applies to a transitional case if —
 - (a) under the former Rules Parts 2 and 3, a party to the case is required to lodge and serve any of the following documents on a day falling on or after commencement day —
 - (i) a statement of claim;
 - (ii) a counterclaim;
 - (iii) a third party claim;
 - (iv) a response to a claim;
 - (v) a statement of defence;
- or
- (b) a pre-trial conference, listing conference or trial for which the case was listed before commencement day is held on or after commencement day.

- (2) On and from commencement day, the former Rules continue to apply in relation to a transitional case to which this rule applies until —
 - (a) the Court or a registrar directs otherwise under rule 86; or
 - (b) the case is concluded.

85. Listing transitional cases for a status conference

- (1) The Court may, of its own motion, list a transitional case for a status conference.
- (2) The Court must list a transitional case for a status conference if a party to a transitional case applies to the Court in the approved form to have the case listed.
- (3) The court must give the parties to the case 7 days written notice of a status conference for which the case is listed under this rule.
- (4) The Court must conduct a status conference for which a case is listed under this rule in open court.

86. Court or registrar may give directions in relation to transitional issues

- (1) At a status conference, pre-trial conference, listing conference or trial held in relation to a transitional case, the Court or a registrar may make any or all of the following directions —
 - (a) if the amended Rules do not apply in relation to the case, a direction that they are to apply in relation to the case on and from a specified date;
 - (b) a direction modifying the application of the amended Rules in relation to the case;
 - (c) any other direction necessary or convenient in connection with the application of the amended Rules in relation to the case.

Mr STEVEN HEATH, Chief Magistrate
Magistrates Court in Perth.

Date: 27 May, 2020.
