Part 16 — Lodging documents*95. Terms used

In this Part —

ECMS exempt, in relation to a document, has the meaning given in rule 96;

lodge a document means to present the document for lodgment in accordance with this Part.

96. ECMS exempt

- (1) A person is ECMS exempt in relation to a document if —
  - (a) the document is lodged for the purposes of proceedings or matters referred to in the Magistrates Court (General) Rules 2005 rule 51; or

- (b) the document is lodged for the purposes of an application under the Restraining Orders Act 1997; or
  - (c) the document is lodged for the purposes of an application under the Children and Community Services Act 2004 section 35; or
  - (d) the document is in a class of documents declared in practice directions to be exempt from the requirement to be lodged by using the ECMS; or
  - (e) the person is in a class of persons declared in practice directions to be exempt from the requirement to lodge by using the ECMS; or
  - (f) the document is lodged for the purposes of an application for exemption under subrule (2) or (3); or
  - (g) the person is exempt in relation to the document under subrule (2) or (3).
- (2) The Court may, for any good reason and without a formal application or request, exempt a person from a requirement to use the ECMS in relation to —
- (a) a document relating to a proceeding; or
  - (b) all documents relating to a proceeding; or
  - (c) all documents relating to all proceedings.
- (3) A registrar may, on the application of a person, exempt the person from a requirement to use the ECMS in relation to —
- (a) a document relating to a proceeding; or
  - (b) all documents relating to a proceeding.
- (4) The application must be in the approved form.
- (5) If the Court or a registrar exempts a person under subrule (2) or (3), the Court or the registrar may give directions as to the manner in which a document is to be presented for lodgment, including as to whether the document is to be presented to the Court —
- (a) by delivering it by hand; or
  - (b) by email in accordance with rule 98D; or
  - (c) by post in accordance with rule 98F; or
  - (d) by fax in accordance with rule 98G.

97. General rules about lodging documents

- (1) A person who is required by these rules or the Court to lodge a document, or who wants to do so, must present the document to the Court for lodgment in accordance with this Part.

- (2) The person must present the document for lodgment together with —
  - (a) any fee required to be paid under the Magistrates Court (Fees) Regulations 2005; or
  - (b) any information the Court needs to enable the Court to be paid the fee.
- (3) A party required by these rules or the Court to lodge a document cannot, without the Court's leave, refer to or rely on the document in any hearing, or in any other document to be lodged, unless it has been lodged.
- (4) For the purposes of subrule (3), a document is lodged if it has —
  - (a) been lodged with the Court in accordance with this Part; and
  - (b) not been rejected by the Court or a registrar under rule 98B(1); and
  - (c) been recorded by the Court as having been lodged.
- (5) A party given leave under subrule (3) must lodge the document as soon as practicable after leave is given or otherwise in accordance with a relevant order of the Court.

98. Registry at which originating claims and applications must be lodged

- (1) Except as provided in this rule, an originating claim or an application referred to in rule 124 may be lodged at any registry of the Court where there is at least 1 registrar who is not a deputy registrar appointed under the Magistrates Court Act 2004 section 26(5).
- (2) An originating claim to recover possession of real property must be lodged at the registry of the Court referred to in subrule (1) that is nearest to the property.
- (3) An application under the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Act 1994 section 52N(1) must be lodged at the registry of the Court referred to in subrule (1) that is nearest to the last known address of the offender (as defined in rule 123).
- (4) An application under the Criminal Investigation Act 2006 section 49 or 147 must be lodged at the registry of the Court referred to in subrule (1) that is nearest to the relevant protected forensic area or the place where the relevant seized thing is secured, as the case requires.

98A. Lodging multiple copies

- (1) A person must not present more than 1 copy of a document to the Court for lodgment unless these rules or the Court requires more than 1 copy to be lodged.
- (2) A person is taken to have complied with a requirement in these rules or by the Court to lodge 2 or more copies of a document if the document is lodged by using the ECMS or by email.

98B. Powers of the Court in relation to lodgment

- (1) The Court or a registrar may reject a document that is presented for lodgment if —
  - (a) the form and content of the document do not comply with these rules and any Court order or direction; or
  - (b) the document is not presented in accordance with this Part.
- (2) If the Court or a registrar rejects a document under subrule (1), a registrar must notify the person who presented the document for lodgment.
- (3) If a document is lodged other than by using the ECMS, the Court or a registrar may, where necessary, convert the document to an electronic format and record it in the ECMS as if it had been lodged by using the ECMS.

98C. Requirement to lodge documents using the ECMS

- (1) A person must present a document for lodgment by using the ECMS unless —
  - (a) the person is ECMS exempt in relation to the document; or
  - (b) the ECMS —
    - (i) has been declared unavailable for use under rule 99; or
    - (ii) is otherwise unavailable for use; or
    - (iii) does not permit the document to be lodged.
- (2) A person who is not required to present a document for lodgment by using the ECMS may, subject to rule 96(5), lodge the document —
  - (a) by delivering it by hand; or
  - (b) by email in accordance with rule 98D; or
  - (c) by post in accordance with rule 98F; or
  - (d) by fax in accordance with rule 98G; or
  - (e) by using the ECMS.

- (3) The Court may at any time, on the application of a party or on the Court's own initiative, order a person who has presented a document for lodgment by using the ECMS to do either or both of the following —
  - (a) have the original document with the person at any conference or hearing in the course of the case concerned;
  - (b) lodge the original document by a means specified in the order.

98D. Lodging by email

- (1) An email by which documents are presented for lodgment in relation to a proceeding must —
  - (a) state the sender's name; and
  - (b) state the title and number of the proceeding to which the documents relate; and
  - (c) list and describe the documents being presented for lodgment by the email; and
  - (d) give an explanation of the basis on which the documents may be lodged by email instead of by using the ECMS.
- (2) A person who presents a document for lodgment by email must —
  - (a) endorse the first page of the original document with —
    - (i) a statement that the document is the original of a document sent by email; and
    - (ii) the date and time the document was sent by email;and
  - (b) keep the endorsed original document and produce it if required to do so by the Court.
- (3) A document presented for lodgment by email must be sent to the email address of the Court registry where the case is being heard.
- (4) The Court may at any time, on the application of a party or on the Court's own initiative, order a person who has presented a document for lodgment by email to do either or both of the following —
  - (a) have the original document with the person at any conference or hearing in the course of the case concerned;
  - (b) lodge the original document by a means specified in the order.

98E. Form of documents lodged using ECMS or by email

- (1) This rule applies to a document presented for lodgment —
  - (a) by using the ECMS; or
  - (b) by email.
- (2) Subrule (3) applies to a document that —
  - (a) under these rules or the Magistrates Court (General) Rules 2005, must be signed before it is lodged; and
  - (b) is not listed in subrule (4).
- (3) If a document to which this subrule applies is to be presented for lodgment —
  - (a) the document must be signed; and
  - (b) a copy of the document, in .docx format, must be presented instead of the signed copy; and
  - (c) the copy of the document in .docx format must, at any place in it where a signature would otherwise be required, state the name of the person who is required to sign it.
- (4) Subrule (5) applies to the following documents —
  - (a) an affidavit;
  - (b) a consent to the Court doing anything;
  - (c) a document to be signed by a person who is not a party to the proceedings.
- (5) A document to which this subrule applies must be —
  - (a) signed; and
  - (b) presented in .pdf format.
- (6) A person who presents a document for lodgment under subrule (3) or (5) must keep the signed copy and produce it if required to do so by the Court.

98F. Lodging by post

- (1) A document presented for lodgment by post must have a cover page —
  - (a) stating the name of the person sending the document; and
  - (b) stating the title and number of the proceeding to which the document relates; and
  - (c) stating a description of the document; and
  - (d) giving an explanation of the basis on which the document is being lodged by post instead of by using the ECMS.

- (2) A document presented for lodgment by post must be sent to the postal address of the Court registry where the case is being heard.

98G. Lodging by fax

- (1) A document presented for lodgment by fax must have a cover page —
  - (a) stating the name, postal address, telephone number and fax number of the person sending the document; and
  - (b) stating the title and number of the proceeding to which the document relates; and
  - (c) stating a description of the document; and
  - (d) giving an explanation of the basis on which the document is being lodged by fax instead of by using the ECMS; and
  - (e) stating the number of pages (including the cover page) being sent by fax.
- (2) A person who presents a document for lodgment by fax must —
  - (a) endorse the first page of the original document with —
    - (i) a statement that the document is the original of a document sent by fax; and
    - (ii) the date and time the document was sent by fax;and
  - (b) keep the endorsed original document and the fax machine's report evidencing the successful transmission of the document; and
  - (c) produce the items referred to in paragraph (b) if directed to do so by the Court.
- (3) A document presented for lodgment by fax must be sent to the fax number of the Court registry where the case is being heard.
- (4) A person must not present a document for lodgment by fax that, with any attachments and a cover page, has more than 20 pages and any such document received by the Court is taken not to have been presented for lodgment.

- (5) The Court may at any time, on the application of a party or on the Court's own initiative, order a person who has presented a document for lodgment by fax to do either or both of the following —
  - (a) have the original document with the person at any conference or hearing in the course of the case concerned;
  - (b) lodge the original document by a means specified in the order.

98H. Time of lodgment

- (1) A document lodged by using the ECMS is taken to have been lodged on the day and at the time recorded by the ECMS.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not apply to a document that is recorded in the ECMS under rule 98B(3) as if it had been lodged by using the ECMS.
- (3) A document lodged by email or fax is taken to have been lodged —
  - (a) if the whole document is received before 4 pm on a day when the Court registry is open for business, on that day;
  - (b) otherwise, on the next day when the Court registry is open for business.

99. Chief Magistrate may declare ECMS unavailable

- (1) The Chief Magistrate may, in any manner the Chief Magistrate thinks fit, declare that the ECMS is unavailable for use for a period specified by the Chief Magistrate.
- (2) The Chief Magistrate, in writing, may delegate the Chief Magistrate's function under this rule to 1 or more other officers of the Court.
- (3) For the purposes of these rules, a declaration made by a delegate of the Chief Magistrate under this rule is taken to be a declaration made by the Chief Magistrate.

45. How to lodge a document

To lodge a document you must present it to the Court following the rules in this Part together with —

- (a) the fee (if any) required to be paid under the Magistrates Court (Fees) Regulations 2005; or
- (b) any information the Court needs to enable the Court to be paid the fee.

46. Where you may lodge a claim that starts a case

You may lodge a claim that starts a case at any registry of the Court except a registry of the Court where the only registrar is a member of the Police Force who is a deputy registrar under the Magistrates Court Act 2004 section 26(5).

47. You must lodge a document by using the ECMS unless these rules permit you not to

- (1) You must lodge a document by using the ECMS unless —
  - (a) you are ECMS exempt in relation to the document; or

- (b) the ECMS —
  - (i) has been declared unavailable for use under the Magistrates Court (Civil Proceedings) Rules 2005 rule 99; or
  - (ii) is otherwise unavailable for use; or
  - (iii) does not permit the document to be lodged.
- (2) If you are not required to lodge a document by using the ECMS, you may lodge it by —
  - (a) delivering it by hand; or
  - (b) emailing it (see rule 48); or
  - (c) posting it (see rule 49C); or
  - (d) faxing it (see rule 49C).

48. Lodging documents by email

If you want to lodge a document by email and you are permitted to do so by these rules, you must comply with the lodgment requirements set out in the Magistrates Court (Civil Proceedings) Rules 2005 rule 98D.

49. Form of documents lodged using ECMS or by email

- (1) You must comply with this rule if you want to lodge a document by using the ECMS or by email.
- (2) If the document is an affidavit, a consent to the Court doing anything, or a document signed by someone who is not a party to your case, you must —
  - (a) ensure that the document is signed; and
  - (b) convert it to .pdf format; and
  - (c) lodge the document; and
  - (d) keep the signed copy and produce it if required to do so by the Court.
- (3) For any other document that must be signed under the Magistrates Court (General) Rules 2005 or the Magistrates Court (Civil Proceedings) Rules 2005, you must —
  - (a) ensure that the document is signed; and
  - (b) present a copy of the document, in .docx format, instead of the signed copy; and
  - (c) in any place in the copy of the document in .docx format where a signature would otherwise be required, state the name of the person who is required to sign it; and
  - (d) retain the signed copy and produce it if required to do so by the Court.

49A. Time documents are lodged

Documents lodged by using the ECMS or by email or fax are taken to have been lodged —

- (a) in the case of lodging by using the ECMS — on the day and at the time when the ECMS records the lodgment; and
- (b) in the case of lodging by email — on the day and at the time when the Court receives the email; and
- (c) in the case of lodging by fax — on the day and at the time when the Court receives the fax.

49B. General provisions as to lodgment

- (1) You do not need to comply with a requirement by the Court to lodge 2 or more copies of a document if you lodge the document by using the ECMS or by email.
- (2) The Court or a registrar may reject a document that you present for lodgment if —
  - (a) the form and content of the document do not comply with these rules and any Court order or direction; or
  - (b) the document is not presented following the rules in this Part.
- (3) If the Court or a registrar rejects a document under subrule (2), a registrar must notify the person who presented the document for lodgment.
- (4) If you present a document for lodgment by using the ECMS or by email, the Court or a registrar may order you to —
  - (a) bring the original document to any conference or hearing in the case; or
  - (b) lodge the original document.

49C. Lodging documents by post or fax

If you want to lodge a document by post or fax and you are permitted to do so by these rules, you must comply with the lodgment requirements set out in the Magistrates Court (Civil Proceedings) Rules 2005 rule 98F or 98G.

49D. The Court may convert paper documents to electronic form

The Court may convert the lodged paper copy of a document to an electronic format and record it in the ECMS as if it had been lodged by using the ECMS.
