AGRICULTURE AND FOOD

AG401

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCE COMMISSION ACT 1988

INTENTION TO POLL ELIGIBLE BEEKEEPERS

In Western Australia, the Agricultural Produce Commission Act 1988 provides for the collection of compulsory fees from agricultural producers of participating industries which are then invested in projects for the benefit of that industry. The Act outlines functions and services for which a fee may be charged to producers.

Since 2003, the Beekeeper Producers' Committee has been authorised to raise a fee-for-service charge for only 7 of the 15 available functions.

In 2022, the industry came together to develop the new WA Bee, Honey and Pollination Industry Strategic Plan 2022-27 to benefit of all Western Australian beekeepers.

To fund delivery of these and other critical strategic projects for industry going forward, the Agricultural Produce Commission, at the request of the Beekeeper Producers' Committee, intends to poll eligible WA beekeepers on authorising all functions available under the Act.

If a poll of eligible producers is successful, the Beekeeper Producers' Committee will be authorised to implement a fee for Service charge to fund the costs of undertaking any one or more of the Section 12.1 service functions of the Act.

More information is available at www.apcwa.org.au

Submissions on the proposal are invited—

The Agricultural Produce Commission invites written submissions from producers who may be affected by the proposal. Submissions should be received no later than Tuesday, 23 May 2023 to—
