1. If two clients do not meet the definition of “couple” in the Dictionary (Schedule 1), they are each charged as single clients.
2. The fees in items 1 to 6 above are for an initial interview of up to 1.5 hours for single clients, or two hours for couples. If it is not feasible for a Will to be drafted during this time due to the complexity of issues involved, and/or if further information/documents are required (including, but not limited to, information/documents concerning overseas charities), the following fees will be charged for work performed before or after the initial interview—
  - (1) if performed by a Senior Practitioner—$576 per hour (or $461 per hour, if at least one client is a concession holder, and it is a Public Trustee Will);
  - (2) if performed by a Junior Practitioner—$435 per hour (or $348 per hour, if at least one client is a concession holder, and it is a Public Trustee Will); and
  - (3) if performed by a clerk or paralegal—$344 per hour (or $275 per hour, if at least one client is a concession holder, and it is a Public Trustee Will).
3. If any fees in note 2 above are charged, they may be charged and calculated in units of six minutes. If so, then—
  - (1) if the time spent providing the service is less than six minutes, the costs payable are calculated based on a minimum charge of one unit regardless of the time actually spent; and
  - (2) if more than six minutes is spent, the calculation is made on the next highest level (meaning, for example, if 10 minutes is spent providing a service then the charges are calculated for two units, namely 12 minutes).
4. The total in-house fees charged under this Schedule to a client (plus any in-house fees for miscellaneous services in connection with the preparation of a Will) shall not exceed $1,650. In addition, as stated in Part 1 of this Scale of Fees, the Public Trustee shall be reimbursed for all expenses that the Public Trustee properly incurs. As a result, disbursements payable to third parties will be charged at cost in addition to in-house fees.
5. The discounted fees in item 1 and note 2 above for a single client who is a concession holder only apply to the first Will that the Public Trustee commences to prepare for the client during a 12-month period. The fees for all subsequent Wills that the Public Trustee commences to prepare during this period are the same as those for a single client who is not a concession holder. To avoid doubt, the provision of services described in items 7 to 10 above during the 12-month period does not affect this.
6. The discounted fees in item 2 and note 2 above for a couple with at least one concession holder only apply to the first set of Wills that the Public Trustee commences to prepare for the couple during a 12-month period. The fees for all subsequent Wills that the Public Trustee commences to prepare during this period are the same as those for a couple in which neither client is a concession holder. To avoid doubt, the provision of services described in items 7 to 10 above during the 12-month period does not affect this.
