FACTORIES AND SHOPS ACT, 1963.

Department of Labour,
Perth, 23rd December, 1963.

F. and S. 184/61.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the Factories and Shops Act, 1963, and the Interpretation Act, 1918-1962, has been pleased to—

(a) revoke regulation 41B of the Factories and Shops (General) Regulations, 1939; and

(b) make the regulations set out in the Schedule hereunder;

so that both the revocation and the regulations take effect on and after the 1st day of January, 1964.

C. A. REEVE,
Secretary for Labour.

Schedule.

Regulations.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Factories and Shops (Rostered Extraordinary Trading Hours) Regulations, 1964.

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Factories and Shops Act, 1963;

“Appendix” means the Appendix to these regulations;

“Part” means a part of the Appendix;

“Regulation” means one of these regulations; and words and expressions used have the same meanings as are given them under, and for the purposes of, the Act.

3. Those portions of the State described in Division 1 of each of the respective Parts are prescribed, pursuant to section 92 of the Act, as zones and may be referred to by the respective numbers, names or both assigned to them in the Appendix.

4. (1) The shops mentioned in Division 2 of each of the respective Parts are prescribed, pursuant to section 92 of the Act, as those which, subject to these regulations, may be, and are required to be, opened during extraordinary trading hours for the sale of requisites.

(2) Where Division 2 of any or all of the respective Parts is amended by the substitution of a new Division 2, the substituted Division shall come into operation on the first day therein mentioned.

5. The respective days (in these regulations called “the rostered extraordinary trading period”) on which the shops prescribed by regulation 4 may be, and are required to be, opened are those shown in Division 2 of each of the respective Parts opposite the shops mentioned in the Division.
