GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
March 12, 1840.*

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication of the general objects of the following Bill, about to be brought under the consideration of the Legislative Council.

*By His Excellency's command,
PETER BROWN, Colonial Secretary.*

A Bill to provide more suitable and summary remedies for the redress of complaint made by or against Seamen or others in the Merchant service in this Colony

Whereas much inconvenience has been felt for want of power to put seamen on board their ship, who have deserted therefrom, whereby many such persons have been left behind, to the injury of the Master of such ship, as well as to the detriment of the Colony;—It is proposed to make provision,

1st. That seamen deserting from any ship may be imprisoned till the ship is ready to proceed to sea, when they may be conveyed on board.

2d. Proviso, That the Master shall pay for the maintenance of such seaman, and all other reasonable expenses.

3. In order to provide a cheap and summary remedy for the redress of complaints against Masters of ships, that any complaint on the part of Mariner or Passenger for wages, or for breach of contract, or for assault, where the cause of action or the amount of damages sought shall not exceed Ten Pounds, may be determined by two Justices. That Masters not attending when summoned may be proceeded against as if present. That if party proceed in any superior Court for any such cause as aforesaid, he shall not recover more costs than One Pound.

4th. Proceedings not to be quashed for informality, nor removed by certiorari.

5th. Mode of recovery and appropriation of penalties.

6th. Duration of the Act.
