[NUMBER 201.]

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
April 30, 1840.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the Heads of the following Bill he is about to submit to the consideration of the Legislative Council to be published for general information.

By His Excellency's command.

PETER BROWN.

A Bill to extend the Jurisdiction of Magistrates in cases of dispute between Masters and Servants

Preamble Whereas it is expedient to empower the Magistrates of the Colony to hear and determine all cases of complaint by or against Master and Servants of every description, whether domestic servants, servants in husbandry, or any other sort of servants; or by or against Artificers, Workmen, and Laborers, employed to perform any work, whether by the hour or the day, or in any other manner in respect of time, or by the piece or the job, or in any other manner in respect of work;—

It is proposed that the several enactments and provisions of the English Law relative to disputes between Masters and Servants so far as the same are applicable to the circumstances of this Colony, shall be deemed and taken to apply to Servants of every description, as well domestic servants as other wise, whatever may be the nature or the term of the service; and to Artificers, Workmen, and Laborers of every description employed to perform any work, whatever may be the nature or the mode of such employment.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
April 29, 1840.

TENDERS in Triplicate will be received at this Office until Tuesday week, the 12th Proximo, for painting the Court House, Perth
