[NUMBER 300]

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth, April 7, 1842.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Convention of Commerce and Navigation between Her Majesty and the Hans Towns.

By His Excellency's command, PETER BROWN.

CONVENTION OF COMMERCE AND NAVIGATION BETWEEN HER MAJESTY AND THE HANS TOWNS.

Signed at London, August 3, 1841.

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the one part, and the Senates of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh (each state for itself separately), on the other part, being desirous of improving and extending the commercial intercourse between their respective subjects and citizens, have, with this view, and in conformity with the stipulations of the VIIIth Article of the Convention of Commerce and Navigation between Great Britain and the Free Hanseatic Republics, signed at London on the 29th of September, 1825, resolved to conclude a Convention, which shall be considered as Supplementary to the above-mentioned Convention of 1825.

Her Britannic Majesty and the said Free Hanseatic Republics have therefore named as their Plenipotentiaries for this purpose, that is to say:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honorable Henry John Viscount Palmerston, Baron Temple, a Peer of Ireland, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, a Member of Parliament, and Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs;

And the Senates of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh, Edward Banks, Doctor of Laws, a Member of the Senate, and one of the Syndicks of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamaburgh, &c., &c.

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective Full Powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The Senates of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh, hereby agree, that British vessels coming from countries not being part of the Dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, shall henceforward, together with their cargoes, be admitted into the Ports of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh; and such vessels shall, on their admission, pay dues not higher nor other than those which shall be paid, in similar circumstances, by vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, or Hamaburgh; and the duties to be paid upon the cargoes of such British vessels shall not be higher nor other, than if such cargoes had been imported in vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, or Hamaburgh. And in consideration thereof, Her Britannic Majesty agrees that, from and after the date of the exchange of the Ratifications of this present Convention, the vessels of the said Free Hanseatic Republics of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh, when coming from Hanseatic ports, shall, together with their cargoes, be admitted into the ports of all Her Britannic Majesty's Possessions; and such vessels shall, on their admission, pay dues be paid, in similar circumstances by British vessels; and the duties to be paid upon the cargoes of such Hanseatic vessels, shall not be higher nor other, than if such cargoes had been imported in British vessels.

ARTICLE II.

In consideration of the privileges extended to British trade and navigation, by the First Article of the present Convention, Her Britannic Majesty further agrees, that all goods, wares, and merchandize, being the produce of the States of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh, or of the other States of the Germanic Confederation, or of the States comprised in the Germanic Union of Customs, and which may be imported in any foreign vessels, from the ports of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh, or from any port situated on the Elbe or Weser, into the ports of the British Possessions abroad, including Gibraltar and Malta, shall also be permitted to be imported from the said ports of the Free Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh, into the ports of the said British Possessions abroad, (including Gibraltar and Malta,) in vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh, built, owned, and navigated, as stipulated in the Fifth Article of the Convention of Commerce and Navigation, concluded on the 29th of September, 1825, between Great Britain, on the one part, and the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamaburgh, on the other part, and the Free Hanseatic Republics, or of the other States of the Germanic Confederation, or of the States of the Germanic Union of Customs, and so imported in Hanseatic vessels, into the ports of the said British Possessions abroad, (including Gibraltar and Malta,) and all goods, wares, and merchandize, exported in Hanseatic vessels, built, owned, and navigated as aforesaid, from the ports of the British Possessions abroad, (including Gibraltar and Malta,) to any foreign country whatever, shall pay no other or higher duties, than if the same were imported or exported in British vessels.

ARTICLE III.

The present Convention, which shall be considered as Supplementary to the Convention concluded between Great Britain and the Free Hanseatic Republics on the 29th September, 1825, shall be ratified, and the Ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible within the space of six weeks.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at London, the third day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one.
