party may cacque by sach marriage will be forfeited.

Revulations.

This left to the discretion of the Registrag to employ such lavful meane of informing hinsolf of crery binth and death as may appear to him best, but he must cmploy some means. It is advisable that he should apply to eurgeons, midwives, &ce, and any person who may be most likely to have knowlecge of a birth or death.
As to registoring a name subsequently giver do a child at baptism.
If the birth of a child has been registered, and at a subsequent period it shall have a nume given it in baptism, the namo so given may be regisicred in the following mamer: The parent or guardiar of the child, or other person procuring the name to be given, must obtain from the miniter who has baptised the child, a cerificale -
I. A. B., of , do hereby cor tify that I have this day baptised, by the name of a child produced to me by C. D. as the of C. D. and E. Do, and declared by the stid C. D. to have been born at . on the day of 184 . Witness my hand this day of 184

A. D, Minister of

And colliver his certificate to the officer who has the register of the binth, and he will, upon payment of 2.61 ., su1 up the last column of the register of bith with the name the child has been baptised by. The certincate must be left will the Registrax. who will certify upan it as follows-1 hereby certity that the entry of the baptismal name of the chill hereta mentioned has been made by me in the registor of the birth of the sailehile. Wits ness my hand this 18
dag of
and then send it to the Registratingeneral who will fill up the last column of the duplicate register of birth, as wall as tho last column of the general regitter, will the baptismal name, and annex the certifata to the duplicate, with which it will be greserved for furure reference

Truins.
In the case of twing, or of more that two children at a bith, the Remistrar shall not inchude them in the same entry, bat shall make a separate entry for eabe chill, taking care that in such case the entrics shall follow consecatively, withone any other intervening, insering first the eltor twin, and afterwards the other; and in such ease it is diveoted that the Registrar shall always, when it is practicable, ascero tain and enter the hour of the birth of etch twin as well as the day.

Illegitimate childmen.
The act giving no divections as to the mode of registering illegrimate children, the Registrars are herefore directel to nse their own discretion, taking due cartion before they insert the name of a reputed father.

Accidental errors.

The Registrar must be careful to male the entries neaty, correctly, and legibly. He mast avoid the necessify for eranares and and alterations, (the entire removal of what may have been writen, by scraping the paper with a sharp instrament, or by oher meane, cannot be permitted). Anill no obliteration, alteration, or addition shall be made after it has been signed by the Legistrar or oficiating minister, except in the maner pointed out in the 17 m segtion of the registration act. And, when any entry shall have been corrected in acoordanco with such section of the registration act, the Registrar must forthwith send a cortifed copy of the marginal memorandam to the Registrargeneral, who will wafer the same to the duplicate erroneons entry. and also amex a copy thereof to the geve. ral register.

Mrarrages.
Upon the Register receiving due notice to attered at any church, prblte building, or ofice, he must accordingly be present at the time appointel with the register boots of mariage. It will be the daty of the Registrar to see that during the solemniza tion of the mamiage, the door be zotson plesed as to prevent the admission of any person wishing to enter; that it be solemnised between the hoursor8 in tha forenoon and 4 in the afternoon; and that there be present at the time 8 eredible witneaseg at Whe least; and that a license or cerificate has been duly issued authorising the same, or that bans have been publighed.
The Registrar mast not interfere with respect to the religious ceremony the par. ties may think proper to wee; but he may require that before the conclusion of the ceremony (cxeept the marrige ceremony be according to the rites of the Church of England) the words mentioned in the 17 h aection of the act, shall be used; and he must on no account register as a marriage the performance of any ceremony (except as aforesaid) in which those words have been omitted. The Registrar must do al ins his power to entorce and maintain the due observance of order, solemnity, and decorma at the solemnization of mariages.
With respoct to filling up the entries in the register book and the daplicate repister, the Register-general will issue such instrue tions as he may deem proper.
If any doubt or dinculy not provided for by these regulations, should arise in the exarcise of their duter, the Regismars are to communicate the same to the Remie trargeneral, who will ibsue the needta instractions thereon
