With reference to the Chinese Laborers

recently sent for to Singapore, His Excellency directs it to be notified that no Applicant will be considered entitled to receive one of these men who has not complied with the terms of the Government Notice dated 5th Jan. 1848.

*By His Excellency's command,
G. F. MOORE,
Acting Colonial Secretary.*

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
February 4, 1848.*

The System of Premiums offered in the Notices dated 23rd June, 1841, and repeated on the 12th Jan. 1847, for the training of Aboriginal Youths in habits of civilized life, not having been productive of the beneficial results which were expected therefrom, His Excellency has directed it to be notified that the said Notices are hereby rescinded, and that no claim arising after this date will be acknowledged.

Parties having previous to this time taken any of the Aborigines into their service, with a view to claim a premium on that account, are required to notify the same to the Government within three months from this date, giving the name and description of the native, and the period from which he has been employed in order that the claim may be recorded.

*By His Excellency's command,
G. F. MOORE,
Acting Colonial Secretary.*
