W. A. SANFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

New Road between Albany and Wilson's Inlet.

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
November 10, 1854.*

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that a New Road has recently been laid out and marked between the Townsite of Albany and Wilson's Inlet, according to the following description, and that measures will shortly be adopted for declaring the same a public line of communication in terms of the Ordinance No. 19 of Victoria 10:—

The above mentioned Road to be 33 feet wide, commencing at the North corner of Albany Townsite, and extending in an average direction of West half North for 7 $\frac{1}{4}$  miles to a running stream which flows into Torbay at Hamilton. Leaving that stream below the forks 2 $\frac{1}{2}$  miles above its mouth, the Road extends 3 $\frac{1}{2}$  miles in the same average direction and then turns to West 20 degrees South, and to West for 12 miles farther, when it passes through an unimproved portion of Hugh MacDonald's location No. 37, and branches thence to SW corner of L. Moonie's Location No. 34, and to a ford across Wilson's Inlet to the SE of Nonalup Point, the total length of the road to Nonalup ford being about 26 miles.

By His Excellency's command,
W. A. SANFORD,
Colonial Secretary.
