GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!!!

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
November 4, 1854.*

THE following description, in conformity with the 5th clause of Ordinance No 19, of the 10th Victoria, is published for general information, of a line of public road it is intended shortly to adopt and open between the east end of the Perth Causeway and a bridge recently erected by Mr Vincent across the upper part of the Canning River:—

The road to be one chain wide, commencing at S.E. end of the Perth Causeway and extending about 27 chains along the present road to Guildford as far as the turning off from the same opposite the gravel pits, then diverging to the East and South Eastward as laid out by Assistant surveyor R. Austin, through unimproved parts of Swan Location No 36, and of Canning Locations Nos. 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, along the N.E. side of the fence recently erected across No 3, through locations 12 and 13, and along N.E. side of the newly erected fence across No 14 A, and from the S.E. end of said fence by the marked road now in use through location 14, to the bridge lately thrown across the Canning River by Mr Vincent from location 14 to 16.

By His Excellency's command,
W. A. SANFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

New Road between Albany and Wilson's Inlet.

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
November 10, 1854.*

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that a New Road has recently been laid out and marked between the Townsite of Albany and Wilson's Inlet, according to the following description, and that measures will shortly be adopted for declaring the same a public line of communication in terms of the Ordinance No. 19 of Victoria 10:—

The above mentioned Road to be 33 feet wide, commencing at the North corner of Albany Townsite, and extending in an average direction of West half North for  $7\frac{3}{4}$  miles to a running stream which flows into Torbay at Hamilton. Leaving that stream below the forks  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles above its mouth, the Road extends  $3\frac{3}{4}$  miles in the same average direction and then turns to West 20 degrees South, and to West for 12 miles farther, when it passes through an unimproved portion of Hugh MacDonald's location No. 37, and branches thence to SW corner of L. Moonie's Location No. 34, and to a ford across Wilson's Inlet to the SE of Nonalup Point, the total length of the road to Nonalup ford being about 26 miles.
