GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!!!

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
July 20, 1855.*

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication for general information of the following Despatches from the Right Hon. the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

By His Excellency's command,
W. A. SANFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Downing Street,
22nd Feb., 1855.

SIR,—I transmit to you herewith, a Circular Despatch which the Earl of Clarendon has addressed to Her Majesty's Diplomatic and Consular Servants abroad, instructing them to protect the subjects and the Navy of Sardinia against Russian hostility,

By the Duke of Newcastle's Circular of the 24th of February 1854, you were directed to impress on all the Local Authorities under your Government, the duty of affording protection to the Subjects and Commerce of France. It will now be your duty to extend similar protection, assistance, and good offices, to Sardinian Subjects, and especially to the Sardinian Navy, and to establish with Sardinian Agents, or with the Commanders of Sardinian Ships of War, the same concert in all that effects the interests of the War, as with the Agents and Officers of the Emperor of the French.

You will report to me without delay any measures which you may take in pursuance of the present instruction.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,
SYDNEY HERBERT.

Governor FitzGerald, &c., &c.

Foreign Office,
Feb. 19, 1855.

Sardinia, by a Treaty dated 26th ult., has acceded to the Treaty of Alliance concluded on the 10th April, 1854, between Great Britain and France, for the protection of the Ottoman Empire. This Power is thus placed in a state of hostility towards Russia.

As a natural consequence, you will have to extend for the future to Sardinian Subjects, and especially to the Sardinian Navy, the assistance and good offices that you were instructed, at the outset of this War, to afford to the subjects of the Queen's August Ally His Majesty the Emperor of the French; and you will be careful to establish with the Sardinian Agents, or the Commanders of Sardinian Ships of War, the same friendly relations and the same concert in all that affects the interests of the War as with the Agents and Officers of the Emperor of the French.

You will acknowledge the receipt of this despatch.

I am your most obedient humble Servant,
(Signed) CLARENDON.

By His Excellency's command,
For the Colonial Secretary,
CHARLES SHOLL.

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
July 20, 1855.*

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Rules recently drawn up by the Commissioners for the affairs of India for the examination of Candidates for the Indian Civil Service.

By His Excellency's command,
W. A. SANFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Examination for Appointments to the Civil Service of the East India Company.

1.—IN July 1855 an examination will take place, by examiners appointed by the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, of Candidates for appointments to the Civil Service of the East India Company.

2.—Any natural born subject of Her Majesty who shall be desirous of entering the Civil Service of the Company will be entitled to be examined at such examination, provided he shall, on or before the 1st of May, 1855, have transmitted to the Board of Commissioners:

(a) A certificate of his age being above eighteen years and under twenty-three years.

(b) A certificate, signed by a physician or surgeon, of his having no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him for the Civil Service Company.

(c) A certificate of good moral character, signed by the head of the school or college at which he has last received his education; or, if he has not received education at any school or college since the year 1852, then such proof of good moral character as may be satisfactory to the Board of Commissioners.

(d) A statement of those of the branches of knowledge hereinafter enumerated, in which he desires to be examined.

3.—The examination will take place only in the following branches of knowledge:—

English Language and Literature:—
Composition	500
English Literature and History, including that of the Laws and Constitution	1,000
			1,500
Language, Literature, & History,
of Greece	750
" " " Rome	750
" " " France	375
" " " Germany	375
" " " Italy	375
Mathematics, pure & mixed	1,000
Natural Sciences, that is, Chemistry, Electricity & Magnetism, Natural History, Geology, and Mineralogy	500
Moral Sciences, that is, Logic, Mental, Moral, and Political Philosophy	500
Sanscrit Language and Literature	375
Arabic Language and Literature	375
			6875

4.—The merit of the persons examined will be estimated by marks, according to the ordinary system in use at several of the Universities, and the numbers set opposite to each branch in the preceding paragraph denote the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it.

5.—No candidate will be allowed any marks in respect of any subject of examination unless he shall, in the opinion of the examiners, possess a competent knowledge of that subject.

6.—The examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by viva voce examination as the examiners may deem necessary.

7.—After the examination shall have been completed, the examiners shall add up the marks obtained by each candidate in respect of each of the subjects in which he shall have been examined, and shall set forth, in order of merit, the names of the twenty candidates who shall have obtained a greater aggregate number of marks than any of the remaining candidates; and such twenty candidates shall be deemed to be selected candidates for the Civil Service of the East India Company. Their choice of the Presidency in India to which they shall be appointed, shall be determined by the order in which they stand on such list.

8.—In August 1856, and August 1857, further examinations of the selected candidates will take place by examiners appointed by the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India in the following subjects:—

Law, including the ordinary rules of taking evidence and the mode of conducting civil and criminal trials	1,000
The History of India	400
Political Economy	400
Any Language of India in which the selected candidate shall have given notice of his desire to be examined	200 and such further examinations will be conducted in the same manner as that above described. (The numbers set opposite to each subject denote the greatest number of marks which can be obtained in respect of such subjects.)

9.—Each selected candidate, desirous of being examined at either of the further examinations of 1856 and 1857, shall, two months previously to such examination, transmit to the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India a statement mentioning the languages of India in which he is desirous of being examined.

10.—Any selected candidate who, having been examined at the further examination of 1856, shall not have passed, may, nevertheless, be again examined at the further examination of 1857.

11.—Any selected candidate who shall not have passed at one or the other of the further examinations of 1856 and 1857, shall be struck off the list of selected candidates.

12.—The selected candidates who, at either of such further examinations, shall be deemed by the examiners to have a competent knowledge of Law, the History of India, Political Economy, and at least one Language of India, shall be adjudged to have passed and to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of the East India Company; and the names of the selected candidates who shall have so passed shall be placed in a list in the order of their merit in such examinations, estimated as above by the total number of marks which they shall have obtained in respect of all the subjects in which they shall have been examined at such examination.

13.—The seniority in the Civil Service of the East India Company of the selected candidates shall be determined by the date of the further examination at which they shall be adjudged to have passed; and, as between those who passed at the same further examination, their seniority in such Civil Service shall be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from such examination.

14.—No person will, even after such examination, be allowed to proceed to India unless he shall comply with the regulations in force at the time for the Civil Service of the East India Company, and shall be of sound bodily health and good moral conduct.
