Sir,

I send to you enclosed, two Copies of Regulations for the Examination of Candidates for the Civil Service of India which is to take place in July 1859, to which you will be pleased to give the widest publicity in the Colony under your Government.

I have, &c.,
E. B. LYTTON.

GOVERNOR KENNEDY,
&c., &c., &c.

Examinations for the Civil Service of India.

REGULATIONS.

1. In July 1859, an Examination of candidates will be held in London. Forty candidates will be selected, if so many shall be found duly qualified. Of these twenty-five will be selected for the Presidency of Bengal, eight for that of Madras, and seven for that of Bombay. Notice will hereafter be given of the days and place of Examination.

2. Any natural-born subject of Her Majesty, who shall be desirous of entering the Civil Service of India, will be entitled to be examined at such Examination, provided he shall, on or before the 1st May 1859, have transmitted to the Civil Service Commissioners, Dean's Yard, London, S.W.—

(a) A certificate of his birth, showing that his age on the 1st May 1859 will be above eighteen years and under twenty-three years;

(b) A certificate, signed by a physician or surgeon, of his having no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him for the Civil Service of India;

(c) Satisfactory proof of good moral character;

(d) A statement of those of the branches of knowledge hereinafter enumerated in which he desires to be examined.

3. In any case in which a doubt may arise as to the eligibility of a candidate in respect of age, health, or character, such inquiries as may be necessary will be instituted by the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. The Examination will take place only in the following branches of knowledge:—

	Marks.
English Language and Literature.
Composition - - -	500

English Literature and History, including that of the Laws and Constitution - - - -	1,000
	1,500

5. The merit of the persons examined will be estimated by marks, and the numbers set opposite to each branch in the preceding regulations denote the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it.

6. No candidate will be allowed any marks in respect of any subject of Examination unless he shall be considered to possess a competent knowledge of that subject.

7. The Examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by vivâ voce Examination, as may be deemed necessary.

8. The marks obtained by each candidate, in respect of each of the subjects in which he shall have been examined, will be added up, and the names of the forty candidates who shall have obtained a greater aggregate number of marks than any of the remaining candidates will be set forth in order of merit, and such candidates shall be deemed to be selected candidates for the Civil Service of India. They shall be permitted to choose, according to the order in which they stand, as long as a choice remains, the Presidency to which they shall be appointed.

9. In July 1860, a further Examination of the selected candidates will take place in the following subjects :—

	Marks.
1. { Sanskrit - - - -	500
{ Vernacular Languages of India (each) - -	350
 Each candidate may name one or two languages. If he names one only, he must name either Sanskrit or a vernacular language current in the Presidency which he has selected.
2. The History and Geography of India - -	500

3. The General Principles of Jurisprudence and the Elements of Hindu and Mohammedan Law - - - - 1,000
4. Political Economy. - - 500

In this, as in the preceding Examination, the merit of the candidates examined will be estimated by marks, and the numbers set opposite to each subject denote the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it. The Examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by viva voce Examination, as may be deemed necessary.

10. No candidate will be permitted to proceed to India until he shall have passed the Further Examination, or after he shall have attained the age of twenty-five years.

11. The selected candidates who at the Further Examination shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9, shall be adjudged to have passed, and to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India.

12. The seniority in the Civil Service of India of the selected candidates shall be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the Further Examination.

13. No person will, even after passing the Further Examination, be allowed to proceed to India unless he shall comply with the regulations in force at the time for the Civil Service of India, and shall be of sound bodily health and good moral character.—The Civil Service Commissioners will require such further evidence on these points as they may deem necessary before granting their Certificate of Qualification.

14. Applications from persons desirous to be admitted as candidates are to be addressed to the Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners, Dean's Yard, London, S W.

NOTE.—The Secretary of State for India in Council has authorized the Civil Service Commissioners to state that, with the view of meeting the expenses to be incurred by selected candidates during the interval which must elapse before they can proceed to India, it is His Lordship's intention to allow the sum of £100 to each selected Candidate who shall have passed the Further Examination in July 1860, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, and shall have complied with such rules as may be laid down for the guidance of selected candidates.
