ROAD BETWEEN FREMANTLE AND PINJARRAH.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 1st July, 1863.*

IT is hereby notified for general information, that it is the intention of the Government to survey and lay out, as soon as convenient, a line of road between Fremantle and Pinjarrah, via Stake Hill, and the Serpentine and Dandalup bridges, with a view to the same being cleared and opened for use as a public line of communication pursuant to the provisions of existing Ordinances.

The road will be one chain wide, commencing at south end of South Terrace, Fremantle, and extending southerly, as already surveyed and laid out, to location 101, where it joins another surveyed branch extending southerly from Fremantle through locations 7, 38, 128, 113, 126, 87, 101, 85 and 102. From south boundary of 102 the road will take a southerly direction through locations 13 and 14 near Brown Hill, then pass southerly outside the east boundary of location 129, and outside the west boundaries of locations 125 and 121, to the N.W. corners of 130, 72 and 92,—thence entering Cockburn Sound location 16, and passing in a southerly direction through it by the Lakes Cooloongup and Walyungup, and by Stake Hill. Continuing in a southerly direction, the road will cross the bridge over the Serpentine, and 8 miles further S.E., by S. will cross that over the Dandalup, whence in $2\frac{3}{4}$ miles further south it will reach the bridge over the Murray at Pinjarrah.

The above road will pass as near as may be found convenient along the tracks at present in use; and parties are warned against fencing across or otherwise obstructing those tracks, until the permanent lines may be finally laid out and declared.

By His Excellency's Command.

FRED. P. BARLEE,
Colonial Secretary.

Road between Pinjarrah and Bunbury, via Waterloo.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 1st July, 1863.*

IT is hereby notified for general information, that it is the intention of the Government to survey and lay out, as soon as convenient, a line of road between Pinjarrah and Bunbury, via Waterloo, with a view to the same being cleared and opened for use as a public line of communication, pursuant to the provisions of existing Ordinances.

The road will be one chain wide, commencing at west end of the Murray bridge at Pinjarrah, and will ascend the left bank of the Murray for about 12 miles through locations 3, 7, 8 and 9, diverging then in a south-easterly direction for 6 miles to location 26. Passing southerly through locations 26 and 10, it will extend south-south-westerly for 7 miles to location 29 on Cockernup Brook, then through or near to that location, and $5\frac{1}{2}$ miles further in the same average direction to a bridge over the Harvey River about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles within the east boundary of Wellington location 50 A. Thence it will take a south-westerly direction about 130 chains to a bridge at Wokolup on the Wellesley, and will continue a mile further to the north end of Ommanney Road in Wellington location 1. Passing $9\frac{3}{4}$ miles in a S by W $\frac{1}{4}$ W direction along Ommanney Road, it will then diverge a quarter of a mile in a southerly direction to a bridge over the Brunswick 120 yards east of that road, and thence take a south-westerly direction for $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles to a part of Waterloo Townsite a little within its N E corner. Descending the Collie about 2 miles from that spot in a westerly direction, nearly parallel to its course, and through Waterloo Townsite and locations 4 and 2, the road will cross that river at a bridge a little within the west boundary of the Townsite; it will then extend 4 miles west-south-westerly through locations 49, 19, 6 and 26, to the declared road near Vittoria Bay in Leschenault Inlet, following that declared line one mile south-westerly to the bridge over the Preston River, and terminating at the Townsite of Bunbury, $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles further westward.

The above road will pass as near as may be found convenient along the tracks at present in use; and parties are warned against fencing across or otherwise obstructing those tracks until the permanent lines may be finally laid out and declared.

By His Excellency's command,

FRED. P. BARLEE,
Colonial Secretary.
