REGULATIONS

TICKET-OF-LEAVE HOLDERS

IN

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

1.—The breach of any of the following regulations by a Ticket-of-leave holder will render him liable to the revocation of his Ticket-of-leave and to serve out as a prisoner the unexpired residue of his sentence or sentences, or to imprisonment with hard labour for a term not exceeding three years in addition to all other sentences passed upon him, or to be fined any sum not exceeding £5.

2.—A Ticket-of-leave granted to a Convict is an indulgence and not a right, and gives him freedom in the colony subject to the provisions of the law and to these regulations.

3.—The holder of a Ticket-of-leave must exhibit his parchment Ticket-of-leave to every person who may require him to do so.

4.—To each holder of a Ticket-of-leave will be assigned by the Comptroller General a district, being the same as that within which the authority of a Resident or Police Magistrate extends, and as marked in the official boundary maps, and to such Ticket-of-leave holder the Comptroller General may at any time assign another such district.

5.—In the months of June and December of each year every Ticket-of-leave holder must report himself to the Resident or Police Magistrate of his district by handing to him the appointed printed form, having first entered thereon his register number, name, the name of his master or employer, his trade or calling or his mode of maintaining himself, and his rate of wages or earnings.

6.—Immediately after the 15th January and 15th July in each year the Resident or Police Magistrate of each district will report to the Comptroller General the names of all defaulters who have not duly reported themselves as directed in paragraph 5, and such defaulters will be brought before such Magistrate to be dealt with for such breach of these regulations.

7.—A Ticket-of-leave holder is not allowed to be absent from his district without a pass.

8.—Rewards of the amounts for which the Comptroller General may obtain the approval of His Excellency the Governor will be paid for the arrest of any Ticket-of-leave holder absents himself without leave or absconding from his district. Such rewards will be a charge against such Ticket-of-leave holder, and he will also be liable to be charged with the whole amount of the expenses incurred in his capture.

9.—A pass to be absent from his district cannot be granted to a Ticket-of-leave holder except by the Comptroller General or the Resident or Police Magistrate of the district of such Ticket-of-leave holder; if by the Resident or Police Magistrate it cannot be granted for a longer period than fourteen days.

10.—Any free settler, however, who may not be resident within a reasonable distance of the Resident or Police Magistrate of his district is authorised to give a pass to any Ticket-of-leave holder in his service to proceed from his district to another while in charge of his master's team, but such pass is not to be given either to or from the Victoria (Champion Bay) district, or to or from the Plantagenet (Albany) district.

11.—A Ticket-of-leave holder is not to be passed to the Victoria (Champion Bay) district overland without the permission first obtained of the Comptroller General.

12.—Forms of passes as well as Register books for the Ticket-of-leave holders within their respective districts will be furnished to the Magistrates by the Comptroller General.

13.—Every man discharged from any Convict Prison or Depot, with a Ticket-of-leave is to report himself before leaving the town at the Police Station then nearest to him, and exhibit his pass to the Policeman on duty.

14.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder to whom a pass may be granted to go from any place to any other place, is required to travel along the usual or direct line of traffic between such places, or by such road as may be expressed upon his pass, and to report himself at every Police Station by the way.

15.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder on pass is to report himself at the nearest Police Station within a reasonable time after his arrival in a town, and when about to leave a town immediately before his departure.

16.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder on entering a district is to report himself at the nearest Police Station if within a reasonable distance.

17.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder transferred from one district to another is to report the fact of such transfer to the Police at the nearest Station of the district which he is about to leave if within a reasonable distance. If not within a reasonable distance he is to make such report in writing by the first opportunity.

18.—A Ticket-of-leave holder cannot change his district without permission in writing from the Comptroller General, to whom every application for change of district must be made through the Resident or Police Magistrate of the district of such Ticket-of-leave holder.

19.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder residing in or near a town or in the neighbourhood of a Police Station is to report to the Police his place of abode and the name of his employer and every change of his place of abode and employment.

20.—A Ticket-of-leave holder is not allowed to be absent from his house or place of abode between ten o'clock at night and daylight of the following day without a pass signed by his employer when on his lawful business, or by the Resident or Police Magistrate of the district.

21.—Immediately on obtaining employment a Ticket-of-leave holder must report himself to the Resident or Police Magistrate of his district, and render to such Magistrate for the information of the Comptroller General a written engagement from his employer giving his register number, name, the nature of his employment, and the rate of wages he is to receive. Such employment will be subject to the sanction of the Resident or Police Magistrate of the district, or of the Comptroller General, which may be given, withheld, or withdrawn at any time.

22.—A Ticket-of-leave holder will not be allowed to change his employment unless he produce to the Resident or Police Magistrate of his district a written discharge by the employer whose service he proposes to leave, which discharge his employer is by law required to give under a penalty not exceeding £5.

23.—A Ticket-of-leave holder will not be allowed to work on his own account or otherwise than in the bonâ fide service of an employer without the express sanction of the Comptroller General, which may be withdrawn at any time.

24.—A summary power will be exercised by the Governor of terminating any engagement of a Ticket-of-leave holder, if His Excellency shall be of opinion that such a measure is called for.

25.—Every employer of a Ticket-of-leave holder is required to report immediately to the Resident or Police Magistrate of the district, and to the Police, in case such Ticket-of-leave holder shall be absent without leave or shall abscond from his service, and such Magistrate will forthwith issue a warrant for his apprehension.

26.—Any Ticket-of-leave holder having a complaint to make against his employer will be at liberty to prefer such complaint before the Resident or Police Magistrate of the district, for which purpose the employer shall on application to that effect, furnish the Ticket-of-leave holder with a pass; the Ticket-of-leave holder must however bear in mind that he will be liable to have his Ticket-of-leave revoked if the complaint be either frivolous or groundless.

27.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder is subject to the provisions of the Master's and Servant's Ordinance (6 Vict No. 5) in Western Australia; and under this Act a Ticket-of-leave holder can compel his master or employer to perform his part of the contract between them in all respects as efficiently as if the Ticket-of-leave holder were a free man.

28.—An engagement made by a Ticket-of-leave holder cannot be terminated or altered by him, but an employer can terminate an engagement and return the Ticket-of-leave holder to the service of Government by forwarding him to the nearest hiring Depot or Police Station, the employer sending in a written report to the Resident or Police Magistrate as to the cause of his having thus concluded the engagement and specifying what the conduct of the Ticket-of-leave man has been up to the time of his discharge. Under such terminated engagement the Ticket-of-leave holder will be deemed to be entitled to wages up to the period of his being returned to the Government.

29.—Should a Ticket-of-leave holder be sentenced by a Magistrate to imprisonment he will be returned to the service of his employer to complete the term of engagement after the expiration of the sentence unless the employer states to the Magistrate or notifies to the Comptroller General that he does not desire to receive him back again and at the same time forwards any balance of wages that may be due to the Ticket-of-leave man at the period of his leaving.

30.—A Ticket-of-leave holder is not allowed to have a license to keep a public-house or retail spirituous or fermented liquors, or to assist whether as barman or otherwise in the sale of such liquors in a public-house.

31.—A Ticket-of-leave holder is not allowed to work in private service or on his own account on board any vessel either in harbour or plying on the coast of the colony.

32.—A Ticket-of-leave holder is not allowed to work in any vessel or boat employed in whale fishing in the bays or on the coast of the colony without the express sanction of the Comptroller General.

33.—Permission to Ticket-of-leave holders to work on the river will only be granted by the Comptroller General to well conducted and competent men. Ticket-of-leave holders convicted of offences committed on the river will be severely dealt with.

34.—A list of Ticket-of-leave holders who have permission to work on the river will be suspended in the Courts of the Resident and Police Magistrates at Perth, Fremantle, and Guildford.

35.—All Ticket-of-leave holders permitted to work on the river are required to report to the Police their arrival at, and departure from Towns.

36.—Ticket-of-leave holders refusing to work for reasonable wages will have their Tickets-of-leave revoked.

37.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder by Act of Parliament is allowed to acquire and hold personal property and leasehold interest in land, and to maintain an action or suit for the recovery of any personal property or for any debt due to him; but if he should at any time forfeit his Ticket-of-leave for misconduct the property acquired by him will become absolutely vested in Her Majesty, and will be disposed of at the discretion of the Governor of the colony.

38.—The Resident or Police Magistrates and the Police of the several districts will, whenever they think necessary, interrogate the holder of a Ticket-of-leave as to his manner of life or means of subsistence, and if not satisfied that he subsists honestly, will report the same forthwith to the Comptroller General.

39.—The Ticket-of-leave of any holder thereof may be revoked by his Excellency the Governor for any breach of these regulations, or for any misconduct on the part of such Ticket-of-leave holder not specially described therein.

40.—Any Ticket-of-leave holder who shall be guilty of repeated acts of drunkenness or of any immoral or disorderly conduct, or shall lead an idle or dissolute life, or associate with notoriously bad characters, will forfeit his Ticket-of-leave and will not receive a Conditional Pardon.

41.—Any Ticket-of-leave holder forfeiting his Ticket-of-leave returns to the position of an ordinary prisoner of the Crown and forfeits all privileges belonging to a Ticket-of-leave, and may be detained until he has served the full term of his unexpired sentence or sentences, as well as of the time during which he may have been absent as an absconder. The indulgence of a Ticket-of-leave can only be restored to him at the pleasure of the Governor.

42.—The holder of a Ticket-of-leave is liable to be punished in a summary way for all crimes and misdemeanours not punishable with death, either in the same way as a free man or by imprisonment with hard labour, in or without irons, on any of the roads or public works of the colony for any term not exceeding three years, or by whipping not exceeding one hundred lashes; and such punishment of whipping may be awarded in addition to any sentence of imprisonment with hard labour.

43.—Ticket-of-leave holders are also subject to be punished on summary conviction before any one or more Justices of the Peace for the following crimes, viz.:—

Carrying firearms without a proper written permission—imprisonment or hard labour in or without irons, for a period not exceeding 12 calendar months.

44.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder having permission to carry firearms will notify the same to the Resident or Police Magistrate of his district who will report such permission to the Comptroller General.

45.—Any Ticket-of-leave holder found on board ship with intent to escape is liable on conviction thereof before any Court of Quarter Sessions to penal servitude not exceeding fourteen and not less than seven years.

46.—Any Ticket-of-leave holder sentenced to punishment by any Magistrate for any of the above offences will not have his Ticket-of-leave restored to him except at the pleasure of the Governor. All sentences of imprisonment passed upon a Ticket-of-leave holder are to be served in addition to his original sentence. 14 Vic. No. 6, Clause 21.

47.—The marriage of a Ticket-of-leave holder is neither sanctioned nor forbidden; the responsibility of marrying will rest with himself. If by marrying he infringe the law he must take the consequences. The Comptroller General will upon application furnish any information given in the records of his department as to whether any Ticket-of-leave holder is or is not already married.

48.—The wife and family of any well conducted Ticket-of-leave holder will be sent out to him free of expense on the usual form of application being filled in, and forwarded in triplicate to the Comptroller General through the Resident or Police Magistrate of the district.

49.—Any Ticket-of-leave holder admitted into a Convict Hospital is required to pay one shilling and sixpence (1s. 6d.) per diem for his maintenance during the period he may be in hospital. In the event of any Ticket-of-leave holder being unable to pay the whole or any part of this charge he must sign and give to the Visiting Magistrate an acknowledgment of the correctness of the charge and an undertaking to pay the same, and the Visiting Magistrate is requested to enforce the payment in every case.

50.—A Ticket-of-leave holder will not (except under special circumstances) be allowed a Conditional Pardon, until he has served without offence a period proportioned to the length of his sentence.

51.—A Ticket-of-leave holder will not be allowed a Conditional Pardon unless his conduct upon Ticket-of-leave has been honest, sober, and industrious.

52.—A Conditional Pardon a Conditional Release or a Certificate of Freedom will not be granted to any Ticket-of-leave holder against whom the Government may have any pecuniary claim until such claim shall have been satisfied.

53.—Every Ticket-of-leave holder is hereby warned that in the event of a Conditional Pardon or a Conditional Release being granted to him, if he lose or destroy the Instrument of his Conditional Pardon or Conditional Release no other such document will be issued to him; nor on the expiration of his sentence or sentences will a Certificate of Freedom be issued until the Instrument of Conditional Pardon or Conditional Release be returned to the Comptroller General through the Resident or Police Magistrate of the district in which he may be located.

54.—A Ticket-of-leave holder is not permitted to address the Secretary of State except through the Comptroller General, who will submit the document for the Governor's consideration.

55.—Any Ticket-of-leave holder who may carelessly or wilfully lose, destroy, or spoil his parchment Ticket-of-leave will be required to pay for a new one, such sum not exceeding five shillings (5s.), as the Comptroller General may direct.

57.—A pass to seek employment will be granted to such Ticket-of-leave holder out of employment at the discretion of the Visiting Magistrate or as the Comptroller General may direct.

58.—A Ticket-of-leave holder while on pass to seek employment is not to enter a public-house or to loiter about near a public-house.

59.—A Ticket-of-leave holder is not permitted to go to either of the newly discovered districts to the North and East.

60.—All Convicts who may have arrived subsequently to January 1st, 1864, will not receive Conditional Pardons; but in lieu thereof will receive Conditional Releases subject to the following regulations:—

1. The minimum period, with uniformly good conduct, to be served by a Convict to render him eligible for a Conditional Release, will be half the period of his sentences remaining unexpired at the time he is granted an ordinary Ticket-of-leave.
2. A Conditional Release will not be granted to any Ticket-of-leave holder who while holding a Ticket-of-leave shall have been convicted of any offence whatever.

3. A Conditional Release will not exempt the holder from the summary jurisdiction of Magistrates, under the Convict Discipline Ordinances; it will merely relieve him from the general Ticket-of-leave Regulations, and he will be required to report himself personally or by letter to the Police immediately before his leaving a district to reside elsewhere, and immediately on his entering a district to reside in it.

4. If a Convict holding a Conditional Release be convicted of any offence his Conditional Release will be cancelled and he will not again obtain a Conditional Release.

5. All sentences for misconduct, misdemeanour, or any serious offence, passed on a Convict holding a Conditional Release will be cumulative upon, and in addition to his original sentence, and on the expiration of his Magisterial sentence he will revert to his original sentence, and will not be released except on the special order of the Governor.

6. A Convict holding a Conditional Release must not proceed to either of the newly discovered districts to the North and East.
