£50 REWARD!

THE above Sum will be paid to anyone giving such information as will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who, on or about the 22nd of October, placed some stones on the Rails near the 16th mile of the Geraldton and Northampton Railway.

By Order of His Honor the Administrator,
J. H. THOMAS,
Director of Public Works.
Perth, 31st October, 1877.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 2nd November, 1877.*

HIS Honor The Administrator directs the publication of the following letter, and its enclosure, for general information.

ROGER TUCKER<sup>D</sup>. GOLDSWORTHY,
Colonial Secretary.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA:
Chief Secretary's Office,
Adelaide, 26th September, 1877.

SIR,—I have the honor to transmit herewith copy of an Order in Council regulating the introduction into this province of sheep, cattle, and horses, and also respecting the time and mode of removal of said animals suffering from infectious or contagious diseases.

I have, &c.,
HENRY AYERS.

The Honorable the Colonial Secretary,
Western Australia.

At the Executive Council Office, in Adelaide, the 5th day of September, 1877.

Present—

His Excellency the Administrator.
The Hon. the Chief Secretary.
The Hon. the Attorney-General.
The Hon. the Treasurer.
The Hon. the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

WHEREAS by "The Public Health Act," the Governor is empowered to make such orders as may seem to be necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the introduction into the Province from any Country or Colony, or part of a Country or Colony (in which respectively any disease in sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals of the same or any other kind or kinds whatsoever, is known to exist), of all sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals of the same or any other kind or kinds whatsoever, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, cloths, or other articles likely to propagate amongst men or animals any infectious or contagious disease whatsoever: And the Governor is also authorized to make such orders as may seem to be necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the mode and time of removal to and from such parts or places within the Province as may be designated in any such order of all sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals of the same kind or any other kinds whatsoever: And whereas diseases are known to exist in sheep, cattle, and horses, in New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Tasmania, and Western Australia: And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the eighteenth day of March, 1876, regulations and orders were made and published in the Government Gazette, regulating the introduction of sheep, cattle, and horses into the said Province from New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Tasmania, and Western Australia: And whereas it is necessary to rescind the aforesaid regulations and to issue others in lieu thereof: Now it is hereby ordered by the Administrator of the Government in Council, that from the date hereof the regulations of the eighteenth day of March, 1876, shall be made void, and in lieu thereof, the regulations hereinafter set forth regulating the introduction into the Province of South Australia of sheep, cattle, and horses, from New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Tasmania, and Western Australia, and also respecting the time and mode of removal of the said animals within the said Province, should now be made and published: And it is further ordered that the said regulations shall forthwith be published in the Government Gazette, and from the date of such publication shall thenceforth be observed until further order herein:—

REGULATIONS.

Orders regulating the importation of animals by sea.

1. No sheep, cattle, or horses, shall be imported by sea into the Province without a permit, in writing, from an Inspector. Any person importing without such permit shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Ten Pounds nor more than Fifty Pounds.
2. Any owner or agent importing any sheep, cattle, or horses into the Province shall produce, if required by an Inspector, a certificate of a qualified veterinary surgeon that the sheep, cattle, or horses so imported are free from disease.
3. Every sheep imported by sea shall, on being landed, be removed in such manner, and to such quarantine ground, as the Inspector shall direct, and shall be there detained for a term of not less than fourteen (14) days, and be there twice dipped as directed by the Inspector. The expenses of such removal, quarantine, and dressings to be paid by the owner or agent before such animals are released. If such animals are not released within two days after any Inspector shall have requested the owner or agent to remove the same, they may be destroyed by order of the Inspector. Any person acting in contravention of this clause shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Ten Pounds nor more than Fifty Pounds.
4. All cattle or horses shall, if required, be disinfected as an Inspector may direct; and may be detained in quarantine for a term of not less than fourteen (14) days at the expense, in all things, of the owner or agent. Any person committing a breach of this clause shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Ten Pounds nor more than Fifty Pounds.
5. All animals arriving in any South Australian port, if found, on inspection by an Inspector, to be suffering from pleuro-pneumonia, or any infectious or contagious disease, shall, if required by an order in writing of an Inspector, be destroyed by the owner, agent, or person apparently in charge of such animal or animals; and if such order is not complied with within such time as an Inspector in such order directs, the Inspector may give an order to seize or destroy such animals, and any person or persons authorized by an Inspector shall destroy such animals accordingly; and the owner, agent, or person apparently in charge, shall be liable to a penalty of Five Pounds for every day in which any such animal is left undestroyed after the date fixed in such order.

6. No fodder, hay, straw, fittings, or articles used in connexion with imported animals, shall be landed without permission from an Inspector. Any such fodder, hay, straw, fittings, or articles shall be disinfected or destroyed, if so required, by order of an Inspector; and any owner or agent neglecting to comply with this order within three days of the date of such order, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Five Pounds for every day in which such order is not complied with.

7. Any animals hereinbefore described in these Orders imported into Port Adelaide by sea for transshipment, may be landed under permit from an Inspector, if clean, and placed in quarantine grounds for a period of ten days, without being dipped or disinfected, and shall be removed from such ground by order of an Inspector only, under a penalty of not less than Thirty Pounds.

8. Any animals, as before mentioned, imported into this Province under a permit from an Inspector, may be removed to such lands as the Inspector shall consider necessary, and such land shall be considered and used as a quarantine for the purpose and term for which the Inspector shall direct; and any person removing from, or placing on, any animals, without an order from an Inspector, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Ten Pounds nor more than Fifty Pounds.

Orders regulating the introduction of animals into the Province by land.

9. Any animals introduced across the boundary line of the Province from New South Wales or Victoria, found to be suffering from pleuro-pneumonia, or any infectious or contagious disease, may be destroyed by order of an Inspector.

10. All persons introducing sheep, cattle, or horses to this Province over and from either of the Colonies of New South Wales and Victoria shall give not less than twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the nearest Inspector in this Province, stating the brands of such animals, the place at which such animals will cross the boundary, the date of intended crossing, the place from which they were brought, the road they are desirous of travelling, and their destination: Provided that no notice will be required for horse or bullock teams; any person failing to show such notice has been given, to be liable to a penalty of not less than Ten Pounds nor more than Thirty Pounds.

11. Any person importing or introducing, by sea or land, any animal or animals found to be suffering from pleuro-pneumonia or any infectious or contagious disease, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Five Pounds nor more than Fifty Pounds.

Orders regulating the removal and treatment of animals suffering from any infectious or contagious diseases.

12. Any animal suffering from pleuro-pneumonia or any infectious or contagious disease may be destroyed by the owner, agent, or person apparently in charge, by order of an Inspector; and any owner, agent, or person apparently in charge not complying with such order shall be liable to a penalty of Five Pounds for every day such animal is left undestroyed after the date of such notice; and the Inspector may give an order to seize and destroy such animal or animals, and any person authorized by the Inspector may destroy such animals accordingly.

13. Any person or persons removing any animal or animals suffering from pleuro-pneumonia, or any infectious or contagious disease, through, across, or out of that portion of the Province of South Australia, known as the Districts of Victoria and Albert, situated between the boundary line of the Province between the Colonies of Victoria and South Australia on the east side, and by the coast line from the southernmost point of the aforesaid boundary line to the mouth of the River Murray, and from thence following the River Murray to the boundary of the Colony of Victoria, into or through all that part of the Province of South Australia situated to the west and north of the River Murray, from the mouth to the boundary of New South Wales on such river, or shall remove any animal or animals so suffering through, across, or out of that part of the Province of South Australia as mentioned aforesaid, situated to the west and north of the River Murray, into or through the Districts of Victoria and Albert as hereinbefore described, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Five Pounds for every animal so moved in contravention of this clause.

14. Any person or persons so driving or removing any animals suffering from pleuro-pneumonia or any infectious or contagious disease, as mentioned in the preceding order, and leaving on any road or land any animal so suffering without destroying any such animal so left, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Five Pounds for every animal so left, and shall also be liable to a further penalty of not less than Five Pounds for every day on which any such animal shall be left undestroyed.

15. No person or persons shall remove any animal or animals from any ship or vessel to another ship or vessel, whilst any ship or vessel is within the boundaries of the port of Port Adelaide, or within the boundaries of any other port in the Province of South Australia, without an order in writing from an Inspector. Any person or persons acting in contravention of this clause shall be liable to a penalty of not less than Five Pounds nor more than Fifty Pounds.

"Destroy" shall mean kill and burn or bury at least twelve inches beneath the surface of the ground.

"Inspector" shall mean any Inspector of Sheep as appointed under Act No. 19 of 1859, and any person who shall be authorized by the Hon. the Commissioner of Crown Lands to act as an Inspector.

The word "animal" in these Regulations shall mean sheep, cattle, or horses, of every age and sex, swine, and goats.

"Land" shall mean paddocks, enclosures, yards, stables, and buildings.

And the Hon. the Commissioner of Crown Lands is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

J. LANCELOT STIRLING, Clerk of the Council.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 4th October, 1877.*

TENDERS (in duplicate, endorsed "Tenders for (as the case may be) Mail,") will be received at this Office until noon of Wednesday, the 14th of November, 1877, for the conveyance of the undermentioned Mails for one, two, or three years, viz. :—
