No. 206.—C.S.O.

Government Notice.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth, 25th November, 1878.

IS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to approve of the establishment of a Mail Service conducted by the Police Department, for the purpose of conveying Mails between Perth and Albany, under the following regulations, which will be subject to such modifications as experience may show to be necessary.

There will be a Mail twice in each month, each way, between Perth and Albany; the date and hour of departure from either town being fixed by the Postmaster General.

The Mail will be conveyed in a Mail Van with four horses, the Van having accommodation for three adult Passengers.

The distance between Perth and Albany will be divided into eight Stages, corresponding, as far as possible, with the Police Stations on the Albany Road. A fresh team of horses being provided at each Stage.

The Mail Van will be driven at an average rate of five miles an hour, including stoppages, which will be a quarter of an hour midway between each Stage, and one hour at the Bannister, at the 131-Mile, and at the Gordon River Stations; the whole journey being performed in 58 hours. When there are no Passengers there will be no delay at the 131-Mile Station.

The Police Constables in charge at the different Stations will have the immediate control of, and be responsible for, the Native Assistants and the mail horses at their Stations.

They will see that the Natives attend to their duty, and that the horses are at all times ready when required for service.

The through Fare between Perth and Albany will be Four pounds (£4). Children under ten years, half price. Fares between intermediate Stages, Ten shillings per Stage or portion of a Stage.

Passengers may secure their seats by booking at the General Post Office, or at the Post Office, Albany, two clear days before the departure of the Mail, of which due notice will be published; preference will be given to through passengers, or those going the longest distances

Each adult passenger will be allowed as personal luggage one trunk or portmanteau, not exceeding 70lbs. in weight. A small quantity of extra luggage, if accommodation can be provided for it, will be taken at a charge of twopence per lb.

A limited number of parcels, not exceeding seven pounds in weight each, will be carried at the rate of sixpence per lb., for any distance.

Passengers' luggage and parcels must be at the General Post Office, and Post Office, Albany, half an hour before the departure of the Mail.

By His Excellency's Command, ROGER TUCKED. GOLDSWORTHY, Colonial Secretary.
