The Officer Administering the

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR.

The 22nd day of March, 1879.

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to repeal the several Laws relating to the performance of Quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it was enacted that all vessels, as well as His Majesty's Ships of War as others, coming from or having touched at any place from whence His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, shall have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague or other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, may be brought. And all vessels and boats receiving any person, goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other article whatsoever from or out of any vessel so coming from or having touched at such infected place as aforesaid, whether such persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles shall have come or been brought in such vessels, or such persons shall have gone, or articles have been put on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels at any port or place in the United Kingdom or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and whether such vessels were or were not bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the Islands aforesaid, and all persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other article whatsoever on board of any vessels so coming from or having touched at such infected place as aforesaid, or on board of any such receiving vessels or boats as aforesaid, shall be and be considered to be liable to quarantine within the meaning of this said Act and of any Order or Orders which shall be made by His Majesty, his heirs and successors, by and with the advice of his or their Privy Council, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection from the time of the departure of such vessels from such infected place as aforesaid, or from the time when such persons, goods, wares, merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles shall have been received on board respectively; and all such vessels and boats as aforesaid, and all persons (as well pilots as others), goods, wares, and merchandise, and all other articles as aforesaid, whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats from such infected place as aforesaid, or going or being put on board the same either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the Islands aforesaid, and all persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, and other articles as aforesaid, on board such receiving vessel or boat as aforesaid, shall, upon their arrival at such port or place, be obliged to perform quarantine in such place or places, for such time and in such manner as shall from time to time be directed by His Majesty, his heirs or successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by proclamation or published in the London Gazette.

And by the said Act it was also enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessel shall not have come from any place from which His Majesty, his heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the Plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper, may be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, merchandise, and other articles, as aforesaid, on board the same:

And by the said Act it was also enacted that all persons liable to perform quarantine, and all persons having had any intercourse or communication with them, shall be subject during the said quarantine, or during the time they shall be liable to quarantine, to such orders as they shall receive from the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his assistant, or from the Principal Officer of Customs at any port or place where there is no such superintendent or assistant, or from any other officer of the Customs authorised to act in that behalf:

And whereas His Majesty, under the authority of the said above recited Act, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, on the 19th day of July, 1825, made an Order declaring it probable that the Plague, or some other infectious disease or distemper, might be brought into the United Kingdom, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, by vessels coming from the Mediterranean and certain other places, with or without clean bills of health:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that all vessels coming from the aforesaid places should be liable to perform quarantine in manner in such Order directed:

Her Majesty, under the authority of the said above recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby adjudge and declare it probable that the Plague, or some other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of Her Majesty's subjects, may be brought into the United Kingdom, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, by vessels coming from the Baltic, or from the Black Sea, or from the Sea of Azoff, or from the Sea of Marmora, or from or having touched at any place in, or any place the passage from which is by or through, any of the said seas.

And Her Majesty is therefore pleased, under the authority of the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that all vessels, persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, and all other articles hereby made liable to Quarantine, shall perform the same at such places and for such times as shall be appointed in that behalf by any Order of Her Majesty in Council or of the Lords and others of the Privy Council or any two or more of them, and shall be subjected to the provisions, rules, and regulations and restrictions contained in the said Act concerning Quarantine and the prevention of infection, and to all the pains and penalties, forfeitures and punishments contained in the said Act, or otherwise by law provided, for any breach or disobedience of the provisions of the said Act, or of any Order or Orders made or hereafter to be made in pursuance of the said Act, and that all persons hereby made liable to perform Quarantine, and all persons having had any intercourse or communication with them shall, upon arrival at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and during the said Quarantine, or during the time they shall be liable to Quarantine, observe and obey all such orders and directions as they shall receive from the Quarantine Officer at such port or place authorised to act in that behalf.

And it is hereby ordered that this Order shall take effect and be in force from and after the date hereof.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. PEEL.

CIRCULAR.

SIR,—With reference to the statement given in Appendix 2 to the Colonial Regulations, of "Particulars required to be furnished in reference to

Whether the duties of the several offices or situations held since the Applicant entered the Civil Service, have been such as to require that the holder should give his whole time to the Public Service.

"Persons recommended for Retiring Allowances," I have to request that in preparing such Papers of Particulars in future, the heading given in the margin (which is taken from the Form used in the Imperial Service) may be inserted after the heading of "Dates of Commencement and Termination" of Appointments.

I have at the same time to state that every Paper of "Particulars" transmitted for my consideration, should contain a calculation (to be made and signed by the Colonial Auditor or other Officer acting in that capacity) of the amount of the Pension, &c., according to the Regulations, or the practice existing in the Colony.

CIRCULAR.

Downing Street, 12th March, 1879.

SIR,—In connection with my Predecessor's Circular Despatch of 17th November, 1876 (of which a copy is enclosed for convenience of reference), I have the honor to forward to you herewith copies of two letters from Her Majesty's Treasury, [8th April, 1873; 23rd October, 1878], in which you will find a statement of the rules that have been adopted for the treatment as to retiring allowances of Civil Servants who do not give their whole time to the Public Service.

It is my intention as regards Colonial Pensions, &c., to continue to follow the practice defined in these letters, except in cases in which, on special grounds, deviations from that practice may have been duly sanctioned.

I have, &c.,

The Officer Administering the Government of Western Australia.

TREASURY CHAMBERS,

350L.

8th April, 1873.

SIR,—I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you, for the information of the Secretary of State, that their Lordships' attention has been called to the question of granting Compensation Allowances under the 7th Clause of the Superannuation Act of 1859, to persons holding situations in the Civil Service of the State of an established character, the duties of which are not such as to require that the holder should give his whole time to the Public Service.

2. The grant of Superannuation Allowances under that Act to persons retiring from age or ill-health is limited to persons in the Permanent Civil Service of the State, as defined by the 17th Section of the Act, and is subject to the power conferred on this Board by the proviso at the end of the 2nd Section of the Act, of deciding finally on the claim of any person or class of persons for Superannuation under that clause.

3. In the exercise of the discretion thus conferred upon them, this Board have, since the passing of the Act in question, uniformly declined to recognise any claim to Superannuation under the 2nd Section of the Act on the part of persons holding situations in the Civil Service of the State, the duties of which are not such as to require that the holder should give his whole time to the Public Service, due regard being had to the claims of any such persons who might have already acquired a claim to Superannuation before the passing of the Act. My Lords do not intend to make any change in their practice in this respect.

4. But the terms of the 7th Section of the Act, which provides for the grant of Compensation Allowances to "any persons retiring or removed from the Public Service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected," appear to My Lords to justify them in extending its benefits to persons whose position in the Civil Service gives them no claim to Superannuation under the 2nd Section.

5. My Lords, however, are at the same time of opinion that a marked distinction should be made in the amount awarded as compensation for abolition or reorganization of office to a Civil Servant who would have no claim to Superannuation in the event of his retiring from the Service on account of age or ill-health, and the amount of compensation which would have been awarded to the same Civil Servant if his position in the Civil Service had been such as to give him a claim to Superannuation under the 2nd Section of the Act.

6. Accordingly, My Lords intend to observe the following rule:—When a person holding a situation in the Civil Service of the State of an established character, the duties of which are not such as to require that the holder should give his whole time to the Public Service, leaves the Service under the circumstances defined by the 7th Section of the Superannuation Act of 1859, My Lords will fix his Compensation Allowance under that Section at an amount equal to three-fourths of the Compensation Allowance which would have been awarded to the same person under the same Section if his position in the Service had been one which gave him a claim to Superannuation under the 2nd Section of the Act.

7. It is hardly necessary to observe that the grant of Compensation Allowances under the 7th Section of the Act to persons who are in a position to claim Superannuation under the 2nd Section of the Act, is regulated by the Treasury Minutes of the 14th June, 1859 (paragraph 4), and the 17th December, 1864, copies of which were circulated at the time among the Several Public Departments. Duplicate copies of these Minutes are, however, enclosed herewith for convenience of reference.

8. My Lords request that the above regulations may be made known to all persons serving in your Department, and in the Departments (if any) which are subordinate to your own, for which purpose such number of copies of this Circular and of the two Minutes above mentioned as you may require, can be had from the Treasury on application.

9. In order to enable this Board to apply correctly the regulations stated above to the several cases which are submitted to them either for Superannuation or for Compensation, My Lords have caused a new form to be prepared "of Particulars required to be furnished in reference to persons recommended for Superannuation, Compensation, or Compassionate Allowances, or Gratuities on Retirement," in which, inter alia, a heading has been inserted, requiring the Department which forwards the case to state whether the person retiring from the Service has held a situation, the duties of which are such as to require that the holder should give his whole time to the Public Service. Some minor improvements have also been made in the wording of this form.

10. My Lords request that for the future the particulars of all cases which are submitted to them for the grant of any Superannuation, Compensation, or Compassionate Allowance, or Gratuity on Retirement, may be furnished in the first instance on a form similar to the one now enclosed, copies of which may be had on application to the Stationery Office. This form will supersede the "form of particulars" now in use.

11. My Lords take this opportunity of calling your attention to the Minute of this Board, dated 14th March, 1870, as to the importance of filling in the "date of cessation of duty," and the "date of cessation of salary," in the spaces reserved for that purpose in the form.

I am, Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

(Signed) WILLIAM LAW.

TREASURY CHAMBERS,

16367/78.

23rd October, 1878.

SIR,—In replying to Mr. Meade's letter of the 15th instant, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to state, for the information of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, that the Retiring Allowance (whether Superannuation or Compensation) of an Officer who entered the Public Service before the passing of the Superannuation Act of 1859, and whose duties have not required that his whole time should be given to the Public Service, but who had acquired a right to Superannuation before the passing of the Act of 1859, would be reckoned on the scale of that Act.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) CHARLES W. STRONGE.
