QUARANTINE.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 26th February, 1884.*

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Regulations under "The Quarantine Ordinance, 1868," for the guidance of Pilots and Health Officers at Ports in Western Australia.

By Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

REGULATIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF PILOTS AND HEALTH OFFICERS AT PORTS IN WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

- 1.—Before boarding any vessel arriving at any Port in Western Australia, the Pilot shall satisfy himself that no infectious or contagious disease exists on board of such vessel. He shall obtain this information by requiring replies to the questions contained in Schedule A to these Regulations.
- 2.—If an infectious or contagious disease exists on board, the Pilot shall, if possible, place the vessel in safety without going on board, and shall then communicate at once with the Health Officer, or, in the absence of that Officer, with the Resident Magistrate.
- 3.—Should a Pilot be unable to secure the safety of a vessel entering a Port without boarding such vessel he must go on board, and will be liable to perform such Quarantine as may be prescribed for the other persons on board.
- 4.—The Health Officer shall, immediately on being warned to do so, proceed to any vessel reported to have disease on board, and satisfy himself of the nature and extent of the sickness on board, and shall, in his discretion, grant her pratique, or order her to proceed into Quarantine.
- 5.—The Health Officer, on ordering a vessel into Quarantine, shall at once, if at Fremantle, report the fact to the Colonial Secretary, or if at other Ports, to the Resident Magistrate; and shall make such suggestions as to accommodation for passengers during the period of Quarantine, mode of treating patients, &c., as he may think necessary.
- 6.—In the event of any hesitation on the part of the master of any vessel in answering questions put to him by the Health Officer, that Officer shall pass on board a paper similar to Schedule B; and the master shall be required to answer in writing the questions contained therein, and to return the paper to the Health Officer, who shall fumigate it prior to reading it.
- 7.—No vessel arriving from other than Australian and New Zealand Ports shall be given pratique except by the Health Officer, or the Officer acting as such under the Quarantine Act, who shall visit such vessel. The Pilot, if on board, shall not leave the vessel until pratique has been given.

8.—No vessel shall be released from Quarantine except after a personal visit and inspection of the crew and passengers by the Health Officer, or the Officer acting as such.

9.—No vessel shall be admitted to pratique except upon the order of the Governor, given in accordance with the terms of the Quarantine Act, which shall, within the period of twenty-one days previous to arrival at any Port or place within the Colony, have touched at any Port or place, or communicated with any vessel, at or on board of which Cholera, Small-pox, Fever, Measles, or other contagious or infectious disease existed; and no vessel shall be admitted to pratique, except upon similar order, on board of which there has existed at any time since her departure from her Port of lading, any case of such disease. In default of telegraphic communication with Perth, the order for admission to pratique may be given, in accordance with the Act, by the Senior Officer of Government resident at the Port or place at which the vessel has arrived.

10.—It will be the duty of all Health Officers and Officers acting as such to satisfy themselves, before admitting a vessel to pratique, upon the points mentioned in the foregoing regulation.

SCHEDULE A.

Questions to be asked by a Pilot before boarding a Vessel.

1. Have you any sickness on board ?
2. What sickness has there been on board during your voyage ?
3. How long is it since you had a case of sickness ?
4. What was the nature of the disease ?
5. Has any case of disease usually known as contagious or infectious existed on board during your voyage ? If so, has the patient recovered ; and how long has the patient been convalescent ?

SCHEDULE B.

Questions to be answered to the Health Officer.

1. Has any case of small-pox occurred during the voyage ? If so, give the names and ages of the person or persons affected, the date when the illness occurred in each case, and the results.
2. Has any case of cholera occurred during the voyage ? If so, state the number of cases, and the date of attack ; the result in each case, and the latitude and longitude, as near as may be, where the last occurred.
3. Has any case of fever occurred on board ? If so, state the number of cases, the dates of attack, and the results.
4. Has any case of disease, usually supposed to be contagious or epidemic, other than those mentioned above, occurred during the voyage ? If so, give full particulars of the disease, and the number attacked.

5. What number of deaths have occurred during the voyage ? State the cause of death in each case, and the date of its occurrence.
6. What number of persons, above ten years of age, are at present sick, or under medical treatment, and from what diseases do they suffer, stating each case separately ?
7. What number of children, from two to ten years of age, are under medical treatment ? State each case separately.
8. What number of children, under two years of age, are ill, or under medical treatment ? State each case separately.
9. At what ports or places have you touched, and with what vessels have you communicated, since your departure from your port of lading ; and at what dates ? Did cholera, small-pox, fever, measles, or other contagious or infectious disease exist at any of such ports or places, or on board any such vessels ?
10. Have you any and what Bill of Health ?

I hereby declare that the answers given above are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Surgeon or Commanding Officer of _____ NOTE.—Under the provisions of the Quarantine Act of 1868, 32 Victoria No. 12, Section 11, any Master or other person in charge of a vessel who shall refuse to answer the above questions, or shall give false answers thereto, is liable to a penalty of not less than £100 nor exceeding £500.

NOTICE.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 25th February, 1884.*

AS it is believed there may be cases in which private persons may be unaware of the obligations imposed by law in the matter of the arrest and confinement or restraint of aboriginal natives for offences presumably committed by such natives, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to order that the following report on the subject by the Honorable the Attorney General be published for general information and guidance, and that the proper authorities take notice thereof, and institute the necessary proceedings, in case of any infraction of the law.

By Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

A private person may lawfully arrest another whom he finds committing, or attempting to commit, a felony. He must, however, at once, or as soon as possible, hand the offender over to some legal authority.

He has no right to keep the offender until it suits his convenience to deliver him up to the custody of the law.

He has no right to do anything to the prisoner but what is absolutely necessary to prevent his escape until he can so deliver him up. If he chains the prisoner, he must be prepared to show that chaining was necessary to prevent an escape. If the person chained has been illegally arrested, the chaining is an aggravation of the assault committed in the arrest, and the criminal law would apply to the case, either as one of assault or under 37 Vic., No. 11, Sec. 10.

ALFRED P. HENSMAN,
Attorney General.
