To Colonial Secretary.

Inform your Inspector of Stock that two flocks of American sheep, numbering seventy-three and two hundred, respectively, are infected with scab. These sheep have not mixed with others. Instructions have been given to destroy them; to burn the buildings in which they were placed, and the paddock in which they were running. There is no reason to suppose that any other sheep are affected. I will keep you informed.

To Colonial Secretary.

I am pleased to inform you that there are no fresh signs of scab; it appears that only one lot of American sheep, those at Carcoar, are scabby; they have been destroyed, as well as the buildings they have been in, and all the runs near them have been quarantined; every precaution has been taken to prevent any spread.
