Finding read in Open Court in the presence and hearing of Captain Joass, late Master of the British barque "Oleander."

We have carefully considered the evidence, and though we do not find any blame attaching to the master, mate, or crew for the grounding of the vessel at Sharks Bay, yet we think the master was imprudent in not returning to Sharks Bay when he found the leak increasing and had a distance of only 30 miles to run, and with a fair wind.

The Court does not intend taking any further evidence.
