Quarantine Regulations.

$\frac{5077}{84}$

(42nd Vict., No. 5: 48th Vict., No. 3.)

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth, 27th August, 1884.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Regulations under "The Land Quarantine Act, 1878," and "The Land Quarantine Act, 1884," which have been approved by the Governor in Executive Council.

His Excellency directs that these Regulations shall not at present be enforced in the case of Measles, that disease having now spread through the Colony.

By Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

Regulations under Act 42 Vict., No. 5, and 48 Vict., No. 3, to be observed in case of the breaking out or spreading within any town or district of the Colony of any Infectious or Contagious Disease of a malignant nature.

1. In these Regulations the word "Magistrate" shall mean the Government Resident or Resident Magistrate of the District, except in the Perth, Fremantle, and Swan Districts, when it shall mean the Colonial Secretary. The words "Medical Officer" shall mean the Government Medical Officer of the District.

2. The following shall be deemed to be diseases within the meaning of Act 42 Vict., No. 5, and 48 Vict., No. 3, and these Regulations:—Cholera; Small-pox; Typhus, Scarlet, or other infectious or contagious Fever; Measles.

3. Any householder who may have reason to believe that any person upon his premises is suffering from one of the diseases aforesaid shall immediately report the same to the magistrate. Any medical officer or medical practitioner aware of a case of such disease shall also immediately make a similar report.

4. The magistrate, on the report of the appearance of any one of the diseases aforesaid within his district, shall forthwith communicate with the medical officer, and upon the existence of the disease being certified to him in writing by the medical officer, shall take, and is hereby empowered to take, in conjunction with the medical officer, such steps as to the said magistrate may seem necessary for carrying out the following measures:—

- (a.) Provision of proper medical attendance, treatment, medicines, nursing, accommodation, clothing, and other necessaries for the sick.
- (b.) Isolation of patients and such persons as may have been in contact with the patients or with any other means of infection or contagion.
- (c.) Removal of the patients, and those who have been in contact with them, to any convenient temporary hospital, building, or place of quarantine.

- (d.) Prevention of intercourse between patients, or those who have been in contact with them or with any means of infection or contagion, and other persons.
- (e.) Destruction of infected clothing or other articles, and disinfection of persons, houses, conveyances, or materials.
- (f.) Burial of the dead at such time and in such mode as to the medical officer may seem best calculated to prevent the spread of disease.

5. In carrying out the above measures and these Regulations, the magistrate shall act in conjunction with, and with the concurrence of, the medical officer.

6. The magistrate may employ the Police, and any other persons he may deem fit and proper to be engaged, to assist him in carrying out these Regulations.

7. When and so long as the magistrate and medical officer shall have reason to apprehend the existence of any such disease aforesaid within the district, the said magistrate, the medical officer, and, subject to the control of the magistrate, any persons authorised and employed by the magistrate for the carrying out of these Regulations, shall have, and may exercise, such restraint of persons and things, and such power of entry into houses, buildings, and premises, as to the magistrate may appear reasonable and necessary for the prevention of the spread of disease.

8. The magistrate, acting in conjunction with the medical officer and persons authorised by the magistrate, may exercise any powers and perform any acts which are reasonable and necessary in order to prevent the spread of disease, even though such powers and acts are not specified in these Regulations.

9. All municipal authorities shall co-operate with the magistrate in carrying out these Regulations.

10. The magistrate, if within telegraphic communication, shall report daily, for the Governor's information, proceedings taken by him under these Regulations. If not within reach of telegraph, such report shall be made by the earliest and by every opportunity.

11. The magistrate and medical officer shall, in carrying out these Regulations, conform to such instructions as shall from time to time be issued to them by the Governor's order.

12. These Regulations shall come into force on their publication in the Government Gazette, and shall remain in force until repealed or altered.

NOTE.—Any person knowingly or wilfully disobeying, contravening, or omitting to observe these Regulations, is liable to a penalty not exceeding £100.

NOTICE.

Crown Lands' Office, Perth, 11th July, 1884.

THE Leases and Licenses (forfeited through non-payment of rent for 1884), full particulars of which are given below, will be offered for sale by public auction at the Crown Lands' Office, Perth, on the 8th day of October. Sale to commence at 11 a.m.

Each block will be offered separately and knocked down to the highest bidder. Such bid or bids to be taken as a premium in addition to the annual rent, which will be the same as provided by the Land Regulations now in force, half-rent being charged for 1884.

Premium and rent must be paid immediately after sale; failure of which will render the sale void.

Leases or Licenses (as the case may be) will be issued to successful bidders, subject to the Land Regulations now in force; but none of the Leases or Licenses offered will carry any of the privileges or rights of priority of application which may have belonged to them formerly, and therefore will be subject to all applications made previous to the day of sale.

JOHN FORREST, Commissioner of Crown Lands.
