To prevent Coolies interchanging or selling these Medical Certificates, the Agent should take especial care to satisfy himself that the man who actually embarks for Western Australia is the bona fide recipient of the Certificate, and the person originally engaged.

Perth, 16th October, 1884.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified that the Honorable the Colonial Secretary is prepared to receive and forward to the Executive Committee at the Mansion House, London, subscriptions to the "Frere Memorial Fund," which is now being organised under the patronage of Field Marshal H.R.H. The Duke of Cambridge, K.G., &c., &c. It having been pointed out that the great interest Sir Bartle Frere took in all matters relating to ties between the mother country and the British Colonies in general, and the devotion he showed in upholding the best interests of the Colonial Empire, were so notorious that many in the colonies other than those in the South African colonies, with which he was more intimately connected, would wish to join in the memorial to him if an opportunity were afforded, the Committee invite all who knew him in private life, or admired his public character, to take this opportunity of testifying their affection and esteem.

A sum not exceeding £3,000 is to be devoted to the erection of a Statue, and the surplus of all subscriptions received will be utilised, (1) in providing a permanent Fund to be conferred, as a testimony of admiration of Sir Bartle Frere, on his widow and family in life-rent; and (2) in perpetuating his memory by settling the reversion on his family.

A sum of over £4,000 has already been collected in England.

By Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.
