Perth, 16th October, 1884.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified that the Honorable the Colonial Secretary is prepared to receive and forward to the Executive Committee at the Mansion House, London, subscriptions to the "Frere Memorial Fund," which is now being organised under the patronage of Field Marshal H.R.H. A sum not exceeding £3,000 is to be devoted to the erection of a Statue, and the surplus of all subscriptions received will be utilised, (1) in providing a permanent Fund to be conferred, as a testimony of admiration of Sir Bartle Frere, on his widow and family in life-rent; and (2) in perpetuating his memory by settling the reversion on his family.

A sum of over £4,000 has already been collected in England.
