No. 30.]

PERTH: MONDAY, JUNE 22.

[1885.

$\frac{2370}{85}$

IN his replies to the numerous Addresses, Letters, and Telegrams which he has received since his arrival at Albany on the 16th instant, the Governor has expressed his thanks to the Public Bodies and individuals who have so warmly and kindly greeted him on his return from England.

The Governor wishes now, in addition, and in a special manner, to convey to the public at large, and the whole people of the Colony, his grateful sense of the welcome which has been given to him.

The spontaneous and hearty co-operation of all classes in this most gratifying manifestation of public feeling has been very marked, and the incidents of the reception at Fremantle and at Perth on the 20th instant will ever remain among the most cherished memories of the Governor's life.

Government House, 22nd June, 1885.
