Annual Contracts.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 21st October, 1885.

IT is hereby notified, for the information of intending Contractors, that the Annual Contracts for Colonial Service for the year 1886 will include those hitherto tendered for separately under the head of Convict Service.

By Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

No. 2321.—C.S.O.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 21st October, 1885.

Mooring Buoy off Rockingham Jetty.

NOTICE is hereby given that a large Iron Cask Mooring Buoy, attached to a 35 (thirty-five) cwt. anchor by 50 fathoms of one and seven-eighths inch chain cable, has been laid down about one hundred and thirty (130) fathoms off the end of the Rockingham Jetty.

Vessels can shackle their own chains on to the upper ring of this buoy, and slacken in to the Jetty.

Should it be necessary at any time for a vessel to let go one of her own anchors, great care must be taken to avoid any chance of fouling the mooring by so doing.

By Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

No. 2317.—C.S.O.

6.—TRUCKING.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 7th October, 1885.

TENDERS (endorsed "Tender for Trucking [as the case may be]") will be received at this Office until noon of the 3rd of December, 1885, from persons willing to undertake the Trucking on the undermentioned Jetties during the year 1886, in accordance with the undermentioned terms and conditions. Any necessary explanation will be afforded by the Collector of Customs, Fremantle, the Government Residents, Albany and Geraldton, and the Resident Magistrates at Bunbury and Busselton:—

Albany,	Dongarra,
Geraldton,	Bunbury,
Busselton,

The Government do not bind themselves to accept the highest or any tender, and will require the guarantee of two responsible persons for the due performance of the Contract.

Forms of Tender may be had on application to the various Resident Magistrates, and at the Public Offices, Perth; and no tender will be entertained unless rendered on the prescribed form.

Conditions of the Work to be performed and Rates to be charged by Contractor for Trucking.

1. The Contractor to perform all the trucking to and from the shore end of the Jetties, and to find labor for loading and discharging the trucks. Trucks will be found by the Government, and kept in repair except when damaged through carelessness.
2. The Contractor to be responsible for all loss or damage during transit, and in loading or discharging goods from the trucks.
3. The Contractor to place and stow all goods as directed by the Customs Officer in charge of the sea and shore end of the Jetty.
4. All the trucking to be charged per ton and be computed in accordance with the scale published in the Government Gazette of the 8th November, 1881.
5. When the trucking is ordered by the Principal Officer of Customs after the usual hours, during holidays, and on Sundays, the work must be performed by the Contractor.
6. Preference to be given to bonded goods so that none of such goods remain on the Jetties after 3 p.m. on all days except Saturdays, when they must be removed by noon.
7. The Contractor and his servants to be amenable to the existing Jetty Regulations.
8. The Contractor not to be compelled to load trucks with goods placed more than three yards from the rails, nor to place goods discharged from trucks more than three yards from the rails; if a further distance is required, a special arrangement may be made with the owner of the goods.

9. For performing the above services the Contractor will be permitted to charge one shilling and sixpence per ton, as per scale published in the Government Gazette of the 8th November, 1881, on all goods trucked to and from the sea and shore end of Jetties.

10. For goods trucked after hours, on holidays (on permission being obtained for so doing from the Principal Officer of Customs or Officers in charge of jetties), the Contractor will not be allowed to charge more than 2s. 6d. per ton, but he will be permitted to make special arrangements with parties requiring his services.

11. A Bond of £300 for Albany and Geraldton and £100 for all other jetties, with two sureties in similar amounts, will be required for the due performance of the Contract, and the Contract to terminate at any time on the Government giving one month's notice.

12. When a Jetty needs repair such as to interfere with the traffic, the trucking must be done in a way most advantageous under the circumstances, and no remission of rent will be made.

13. The Principal Officer of Customs to have the right to settle all disputes between truckers and owners of goods, and to fix and determine charges for trucking such goods on which dispute may hereafter arise, whether fixed or not by any previous scale for calculating tonnage.

14. The Principal Officer of Customs' decision in all such matters to be final, so far as they do not interfere with the laws existing in the Colony.

15. That any tender accepted for the service during 1885 will not commence until these conditions are signed by the tenderer and his sureties.

By Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

The arrival and departure of the Mails will be subject to instructions from the Postmaster General, and liable to alteration at any time during the year.

Two approved sureties will be required to join the Contractor in a guarantee for the due fulfilment of the duties contracted to be performed.

Where Mails are conveyed in wheeled vehicles, a free passage must be provided for any Officer of the Postal or Telegraph Department travelling on duty.

* With reference to Contract No. 8, the Mails must be conveyed at least six (6) miles per hour, inclusive of stoppages, and the Contractor will be required to provide accommodation for five (5) passengers, exclusive of the driver, and in all other respects will be subject to similar regulations as those in force in the Royal Mail Service.

The Government reserves to itself the right to terminate the Contract at any time, by giving three months' notice to the Contractor.

Special Forms of Tender, with conditions attached, may be obtained on application to the various Postmasters, and at the General Post Office; and no Tender will be entertained unless rendered on the prescribed form.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender.

A. HELMICH,
Postmaster General,
and General Superintendent of Telegraphs.

General Post Office,

Perth, 21st September, 1885.

TENDERS will be received at this Office until noon of Friday, the 20th November, 1885, for the conveyance of the undermentioned Mail, for five years, from the 1st January, 1886, viz. :—

From Perth to Vasse, and vice versa, via Canning, Kelmscott, Serpentine, Pinjarrah, Harvey, Brunswick, Australind, Bunbury, Capel, and Ludlow, in a four-wheeled spring vehicle, twice a week.

Persons tendering will be required to purchase the horses, vehicles, &c., now employed in the conveyance of the above Mails, at a fair valuation, and to pay cash for the same.

Accommodation must be provided in the conveyance for at least seven passengers.

The time of arrival and departure of the Mails at, and from, the General Post Office shall be on such days, and at such hours, as the Postmaster General shall from time to time appoint.

In the case of any failure on the part of the Contractor in carrying out the terms of his Contract, and observing the time appointed by the Postmaster General, it shall be competent for the Postmaster General to hire the necessary means of conveyance for such Mails, and to deduct from moneys due or accruing to the Contractor the cost of such service.

The Postmaster General shall determine the roads or routes by which such Mails shall be conveyed, and shall have the power to order any deviation that may appear to him desirable.

The Contractor shall convey and deliver all Mails which shall be entrusted to him under the authority of the Postmaster General, or any of the Postmasters, and shall provide secure and watertight lockers for such mails.

Men, vehicles, horses, and every person or thing employed in the conveyance of such Mails shall be subject to the approval of the Postmaster General.

The Postmaster General shall be previously informed by the Contractor of the name of every driver or other person entrusted with the custody of such Mails.

In case any servant of the Contractor employed in connection with such Mail Service shall be dismissed for misconduct or neglect, the name of such servant shall be forthwith reported to the Postmaster General, and the servant so dismissed shall not be eligible for re-employment in such service without the sanction of the Postmaster General.

The Contractor shall not assign the benefit of any portion of his contract without the sanction of the Postmaster General.

The Contractor shall be liable for the following penalty, which shall be deducted on the authority of the Postmaster General from any amount falling due to him on account of his contract :—For the conveyance by his servants or passengers or other person of any correspondence or matter liable to postage charge, without the permission or direction of the Postmaster General (unless under instructions as to roadside correspondence, and loose bags), any sum not exceeding Three pounds for such offence.

All journeys which ought to commence on a day previous to the conclusion of the contract, as well as all other mail services ensuing on the route, must be accomplished by the Contractor.

The Contractor must understand that no excuse for delay will be entertained unless supported by certificates from persons of known respectability as to the cause of delay, and that it is not attributable to the absence of ample provision for carrying out the terms of the contract.

The Mails must be conveyed at the rate of at least seven miles an hour, inclusive of stoppages.

The Contractor is required to convey loose letters given to him by any Postmaster for delivery on the road; and, unless specially exempted, shall when applied to by any person on the road receive letters for conveyance to the nearest Post Office.

The maximum fares and charges for luggage and parcels must be similar to those at present in force in the Royal Mail Service.

No tenders will be entertained unless they bear the signatures of two sureties.

If the Contractor shall fail in the performance of any one or more of the conditions, the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, require the sureties to complete, and they shall accordingly complete the contract at their own expense and risk in all things.

The Contractor will be required to provide an Officer of the Postal or Telegraph Department with a free passage, if called upon to do so by the Postmaster General.

The Government will reserve to itself the right to terminate the Contract at any time, by giving Six months notice.

Two approved sureties will be required to join the Contractor in a bond of £500 for the due fulfilment of the duties required to be performed.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

Irregularities on the part of the Contractor will render him liable to the following fines:—

For every late arrival with a mail at the undermentioned Post Offices, viz., Perth, Pinjarrah, Bunbury, and Vasse: per 15 minutes or fraction thereof ...	0	15	0

Do. do. letter ...	0	10	0
Do. do. paper ...	0	5	0
For damage occurring to mails in consequence of not being properly protected with water-proof covering	1	0	0

Special Forms of Tender, with conditions attached, may be obtained on application to the various Postmasters, and at the General Post Office, Perth; and no tender will be entertained unless rendered on the prescribed form.

Further information may be obtained on application to the Postmaster General.

A. HELMICH,
Postmaster General,
and General Superintendent of Telegraphs.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1871.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

In the matter of a Bankruptcy Petition against William Robert Graves of Northam.

UPON the hearing of this petition this day, and upon proof satisfactory to the Court of the debt of the petitioner and of the Act or Acts of the bankruptcy alleged to have been committed by the said William Robert Graves having been given, it is ordered that the said William Robert Graves be and he is hereby adjudged Bankrupt.

Given under the Seal of the Court this seventeenth day of October, 1885.

By order of the Court,
(L.S.) JAMES COWAN,
Registrar.

The first general meeting of Creditors of the said William Robert Graves is hereby summoned to be held at this Court on the third day of November, 1885, at eleven o'clock of the forenoon, and that the Court has ordered the Bankrupt to attend thereat for examination and to produce thereat a statement of his affairs as required by the statute.

Until the appointment of a Trustee all persons having in their possession any of the effects of the bankrupt must deliver them and all debts due to the Bankrupt must be paid to the Registrar. Creditors must forward their proofs of debts to the Registrar.
