No. 2607.—C.S.O.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 2nd June, 1886.*

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Draft Bill which it is intended to introduce into the Legislative Council during the coming Session.

By Command,
M. S. SMITH,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

A BILL to amend "The Boat Licensing Act, 1878."

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. EVERY Licensing Board shall have power to regulate the number of persons to be employed in the working of any boat, vessel, or steamer to be licensed, and the manner in which goods (including passengers' baggage) shall be stowed or carried in any such boat, vessel, or steamer when carrying passengers, and every such regulation as aforesaid shall be specified in the license.

Regulations by Board.

2. NOTWITHSTANDING anything in "The Boat Licensing Act, 1878," contained, the Licensing Board may in any case in which it shall appear to the Board that the carrying of a sufficient number of life buoys will ensure adequate protection of life, exempt any steamer from the obligation of carrying or towing astern a boat, and such exemption may be a general exemption or limited to certain of the waters on which such steamer may be licensed to ply. In every case in which the Board shall grant any exemption as aforesaid, the Board shall specify in the license the number of life buoys to be carried by such steamer, and every such life buoy shall be considered of the equipment of such steamer and shall be kept so secured thereon as to be ready for immediate use; in default whereof the master and the owner of such steamer shall each of them on summary conviction before any Justice of the Peace in Petty Sessions forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding £10. Every exemption under the authority of this section shall be endorsed by the Board upon the license.

Board may exempt steamers from obligation to carry boat.

3. THIS Act and "The Boat Licensing Act of 1878" shall be read and construed together as one Act.
