*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 3rd August, 1887.*

SIR,—I have the honor, by direction of His Excellency Governor Sir F. N. Broome, to invite the attention of your Government to the present apparently unsatisfactory nature of the agreements made with imported Chinese coolies, as brought to notice in the enclosed letter, which has been received from the Government Resident of the North District of this Colony, where this class of labor is somewhat extensively employed; with a view to ensuring the more accurate definition of the nature of the work for which the laborer is engaged.

His Excellency will be glad to receive and consider any suggestion for the improvement of the agreement system which you may wish to offer.

I have, &c.,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

The Honorable
The Colonial Secretary,
&c., &c., &c.,
Singapore.

Roebourne, 15-7-87.

SIR,—I would respectfully recommend this Government to draw the attention of the authorities at Singapore to the desirability of ensuring the agreements, made there, with Chinese immigrants, under the Imported Labor Act, being more accurately defined than is the practice at present.

Several Chinese imported here lately as "general servants" assert on arrival that they were given to understand at Singapore that they would not be required to work "out of doors," but only as house servants.

Now the term "general servant" is so vague that it may be taken to mean almost anything that the employer chooses, and this does not always meet the views of the imported laborer. Strictly speaking, a "general servant" in Europe would not mean a cook, but these Chinese are mostly good cooks, and therefore all expect to be employed as such. Whereas the employers generally require their services as shepherds, or for fencing, and such like general station work.

All that is needed to put matters on a clear footing is that, when the agreements are drawn up at Singapore, the exact nature of the labor demanded should be accurately specified.

I have, &c.,
E. F. ANGELO,
Government Resident, N.D.

The Honorable
Colonial Secretary,
Perth.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Singapore, 11th October, 1887.*

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 43 of the 3rd August, with reference to the agreements made with Chinese coolies imported from Singapore.

2. In reply, I am to inform you that the Acting Protector of Chinese for this Government has given instructions that, in all cases where it is possible, the nature of the work for which the coolies are engaged shall be specified, and that where the term "General Servant" is used, "indoor and outdoor" shall be added.

3. I enclose copies of letters from Messrs. Behn, Meyer, & Co., and McAlister & Co., firms acting as agents for engaging Chinese labor for Western Australia, to whom I sent a copy of your letter for any remarks or suggestions they might wish to offer.

4. The contracts are generally made out by them, but in all cases they are carefully explained to the Coolies by the officers of the Chinese Protectorate.

I have, &c.,
J. F. DICKSON,
Colonial Secretary,
S.S.

The Honorable
The Colonial Secretary,
Western Australia.

Singapore, 26th September, 1887.

SIR,—In reply to your letter Colons. 8478, we have the honor to inform you that we have been engaging Chinese coolies occasionally for clients in Western Australia, under agreements requiring them to work as "general servants," but have never been aware of the exact nature of the labor required from them, as it has been the custom to engage coolies in this way for so many years that our friends in W. Australia never give any further explanation about the work required, unless in case a man is to be specially employed as cook, carpenter, or for any other special purpose.

As far as we are aware, the Protector of Chinese always explains to the coolies that they are engaged for general station work, but in order to be precise we shall in future insert a clause in the contracts, stipulating that the men will be obliged to work either indoors or out of doors, as directed by the employer; which clause, if duly explained by the Protectorate here, will no doubt obviate any reasonable complaints, which some of the coolies might have to offer otherwise, when called upon in Australia to do work different to what they had been led to expect here.

We have, etc.,
(Signed.) BEHN, MEYER & Co.

The Honble. J. F. Dickson,
Col. Secretary, S.S.

Singapore, 16th September, 1887.

SIR,—We have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 5578.

So far as we are concerned, and acting as we do as agents in engaging Chinese labor for Western Australia, we adhere very strictly to our instructions in specifying the nature of the work required.

It seems to us that if the Government of Western Australia is dissatisfied, or has cause to consider that the coolies sent from here are not being employed in a proper manner, the cure for this rests very much in its own hands. For example, we might engage a Chinaman to act as cook or house servant, or in any other special capacity, and when he arrived in Western Australia his employer might require him to act in a double capacity, or do some work different altogether to that specified in his agreement. This we should think is a matter for the Government of Western Australia to adjust.

As regards engaging men as "general servants," we have repeatedly done this, but have always explained the full meaning of the employment. It is not an unusual thing for a Chinaman to be engaged as a general servant, that is to act in lawful work for his master indoors or outside, as his capacity or powers may justify, and the requirements of his master necessitate.

We should consider that if any restrictions are to be exercised in this matter, these should be imposed by the Government of Western Australia.

We have, &c.,
(Sd.) McALISTER & Co.

The Honorable
J. F. Dickson, C.M.G.,
Colonial Secretary.

TENDERS (endorsed "Tender for Wyndham, Derby, and Goldfields Mail") will be received at this Office until noon of Tuesday, the 31st January, 1888, for the conveyance of the undermentioned Mails for one, two, or three years:—

1. From the Wyndham Post Office to the Warden's Camp, Kimberley, and vice versa, once in every four weeks, on horseback and by spring vehicle; to travel via Messrs. Durack Bros.' Ord River Station. The Mails to leave Wyndham on the 9th, and the Goldfields Station on the 18th, of every month. Distance, 220 miles.
2. For a similar service between Derby and the Goldfields, and vice versa, leaving Derby on the 1st, and the Goldfields Station on the 19th, of every month. Distance, 345 miles vehicle track, 300 miles packhorse track. When either of the above days fall on a Sunday, the Mails to be despatched the day previous.

3. Tenders must state the mode in which the Mails will be carried, whether in vehicle or on horseback, the description of vehicle, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn, and must give the prices separately for each service.

4. The Contractors will have the right to purchase the Government mail horses and equipments at a valuation.

5. Every Tender must bear the bonâ fide signatures duly witnessed of the Tenderer and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the due fulfilment of the Contract in a sum not exceeding the gross amount of the Contract calculated for the whole period over which it extends.

6. Every Tender must be accompanied by the written consent, duly witnessed, of the persons proposed as bondsmen as hereinbefore provided to execute the bonds as aforesaid for the due performance of the Contract in the event of such Tender being accepted.

7. Every Tender must be accompanied by a deposit receipt for a sum equal to 5 per cent. of the annual amount for which the Tenderer is willing to undertake the service. The money to be lodged in the Western Australian Bank in the name and to the credit of the Postmaster General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose Tender may be accepted shall fail to complete the usual bond to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General within fourteen days of the date of notice being received by him of the acceptance of his Tender. The deposit will be returned to the successful Tenderers on their bonds being completed, and unsuccessful Tenderers will have their deposits returned to them on application and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

8. The Postmaster General will reserve the power during the continuance of any Contract of varying the days and hours for despatching the Mails, so long as the rate of travelling is not altered. The Postmaster General will also have the power of ordering any deviation in the route that may appear desirable, but compensation for increased distance, if over one mile, consequent on such deviation, will be paid to the contractor at contract rate per mile; or in the event of the distance being lessened a similar proportionate deduction will be made, a corresponding increased or decreased time for transit of Mails being allowed. The time table will in all cases be framed in accordance with the rate of speed.

9. Where the Mail is conveyed in a vehicle, the Contractor will have to provide, when required, a seat for a Post Office Guard, which must be separate from the seats provided for the passengers, and measure at least 24 inches. He will also have to provide a proper seat, free of charge, for the Postmaster General, or any officer travelling on the service of the Post Office and Telegraphic Department on the written order of the Postmaster General.

10. The Postmaster General reserves the right of terminating the Contract at any time after the first year, upon giving the Contractor three months' notice of such his intention.

11. The Contractor will be bound to prevent the conveyance of any letter or packet by any of his servants to the prejudice of the Post Office Revenue, under a penalty of not less than five pounds for each offence, and may be licensed to retail Postage Stamps, receiving discount of 2½ per cent. on sales.

12. The words Postmaster General shall also include and mean any Officer duly authorised by the Postmaster General to act on his behalf.
