OWNERS of Sheep are reminded that under the provisions of section 37 of the Scab Act (49 Vict. 21), every owner of sheep is required, on the last Saturday in the month of December in each year, to make a return in writing, which he must sign, of all sheep kept and depastured by him in any district of the Colony, and such return must be forwarded, within fourteen days after the same shall have been made, to the Resident Magistrate of the district in which the sheep were on the last Saturday of December. The fact of a district being clean or exempt from contribution does not do away with the necessity of making these returns, and the neglecting so to do renders owners liable to a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds.

SIR,—Referring to my Circular Despatches of the 1st of February, 1887, and of the 6th of August, 1887, I have the honor to transmit to you, for information and publication in the Colony under your government, a copy of the Superannuation Act, 1887, and of the Rules drawn up by the Treasury under Clause 6 thereof.

I have, &amp;c.,

H. T. HOLLAND.

The Officer Administering the Government of Western Australia.CHAPTER 67.

[50 &amp; 51 VICT.]

An Act to amend the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859; and for other purposes.

[16th September, 1887.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Grant of gratuity or allowance to injured civil servant.

1.—(1.) Where a person employed in the civil service of the state is injured—

- (a) in the actual discharge of his duty; and
- (b) without his own default; and

(c) by some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, the Treasury may grant to him, or, if he dies from the injury, to his widow, his mother, if wholly dependent on him at the time of his death, and to his children, or to any of them, such gratuity or annual allowance as the Treasury may consider reasonable, and as may be permitted by the terms of a warrant under this section.

(2.) The Treasury shall forthwith after the passing of this Act frame a warrant regulating the grant of gratuities and annual allowances under this section, and the warrant so framed shall be laid before Parliament.

(3.) Provided that a gratuity under this section shall not exceed one year's salary of the person injured, and an allowance under this section shall not, together with any superannuation allowance to which he is otherwise entitled, exceed the salary of the person injured, or three hundred pounds a year, whichever is less.

Power to grant retiring allowance to persons removed.

2.—(1.) Where a civil servant is removed from his office on the ground of his inability to discharge efficiently the duties of his office, and a superannuation allowance cannot lawfully be granted to him under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and the Treasury think that the special circumstances of the case justify the grant to him of a retiring allowance, they may grant to him such retiring allowance as they think just and proper, but in no case exceeding the amount for which his length of service would qualify him under sections two and four of the Superannuation Act, 1859, without any addition under section seven of that Act.

(2.) A minute of the Treasury granting an allowance under this section to any civil servant shall set forth the amount of the allowance granted to him, and the reasons for such allowance, and shall be laid before Parliament: Provided that the Treasury before making the grant shall consider any representation which the civil servant removed may have submitted to them.

Reckoning of temporary services.

3. Where a person at the time he becomes a civil servant within the meaning of this Act is serving the State in a temporary capacity, the Treasury may, if in their opinion any special circumstances of the case warrant such a course, direct that his service in that capacity may be reckoned for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, as service in the capacity of a civil servant, and it shall be so reckoned accordingly.

Compassionate gratuity on retirement of person not entitled to superannuation.

4. If a person employed in any public department in a capacity in respect of which a superannuation allowance cannot be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, retires, or is removed from his employment, and

- (a) the employment is one to which he was required to devote his whole time, and
- (b) the remuneration for the employment was paid entirely out of moneys provided by Parliament, and
- (c) he has served in the employment for not less than seven years, if he is removed in consequence of the abolition of his employment, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the department by which economy can be effected, or for not less than fifteen years if his retirement is caused from infirmity of mind or body, permanently incapacitating him from the duties of his employment, the Treasury may, if they think fit, grant to him a compassionate gratuity not exceeding one pound or one week's pay, whichever is the greater, for each year of his service in his employment.

Provision against double pensions.

5. A person shall not be entitled to reckon the same period of time both for the purpose of a superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, and also for the purpose of naval or military non-effective pay.

Regulations as to officers receiving half-pay or retired pay.

6.—(1.) The Treasury may, within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules as to the conditions on which any civil employment of profit under any public department as defined by this Act, or any employment of profit under the Government of any British possession, or any employment under the Government of any Foreign State may be accepted or held by any person who is in receipt of or has received any sum granted by Parliament for the pay, half-pay, or retired pay of officers of Her Majesty's naval or land forces, or otherwise for payment for past service in either of such forces, or who has com-mutated the right to receive the same, and as to the effect of such acceptance or holding on the said pay or sum, and the Treasury may in such rules provide for the enforcement thereof by the forfeiture, suspension, or reduction of any such pay or sum as aforesaid, or of any commutation money or remuneration for such employment.

(2.) Such rules shall also provide for the returns to be laid before Parliament of such officers accepting employment as are affected by the rules, and shall come into operation at the date of the passing of this Act.

(3.) The rules shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith.

(4.) For the purposes of this section "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, and this section shall apply to Cyprus as if it were a British possession.

Provision as to lunatics.

7.—(1.) Where any sum in respect of pay, pension, superannuation, or other allowance or annuity is due in respect either of service as a civil servant, or of military or naval service, to a person who is a lunatic, whether so found by inquisition or not, such sum may be from time to time applied for his benefit by the prescribed public department in such manner as the department think expedient.

(2.) Where any annuity, whether pension, superannuation, or other allowance is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament to a person in respect either of service as a civil servant, or of military or naval service, and such person is or becomes a lunatic towards whose maintenance a contribution is made out of money provided by Parliament, then as long as the contribution is made his annuity shall be reduced by an amount equal to that contribution, and if the amount of the contribution exceeds the amount of the annuity, the annuity shall cease to be payable.

Distribution of money not exceeding 100l. without probate.

8. On the death of a person to whom any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds is due from a public department in respect of any civil pay, superannuation, or other allowance, annuity or gratuity, then, if the prescribed public department so direct, but subject to the regulations (if any) made by the Treasury, probate or other proof of the title of the personal representative of the deceased person may be dispensed with, and the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among the persons appearing to the public department to be beneficially entitled to the personal estate of the deceased person, or to or among any one or more of those persons, or in case of the illegitimacy of the deceased person or his children, to or among such persons as the department may think fit, and the department shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any such payment or distribution.

Decision of Treasury.

9. The decision of the Treasury on any question which arises as to the application of any section of this Act to any person, or as to the amount of any allowance or gratuity under this Act, or as to the reckoning of any service for such allowance or gratuity, shall be final.

Saving for existing interests.

10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as in any way to interfere with the rights existing at the passing of this Act of any civil servant then holding office.

Laying of warrant and minutes before Parliament.

11. Every warrant and minute under this Act which is required to be laid before Parliament shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in manner provided by section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

Definitions.

12. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, —

The expression "civil servant" means a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the state within the meaning of section seventeen of the Superannuation Act, 1859 :

The expression "Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The expression "public department" means the Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and any other public department of the Government; and the expression "prescribed public department" means, as respects any matter, the department prescribed for the purpose of that matter by the Treasury.

Short titles.

13. The Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations, and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in His Majesty's service," is in this Act referred to and may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1834, and that Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, are together in this Act referred to as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859.

The said Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and this Act may be cited separately as the Superannuation Act, 1887.

Repeal.

14. The Acts set forth in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned as from the passing of this Act, without prejudice to anything previously done or suffered in pursuance of the enactments hereby repealed.

Copy of the Rules drawn up by the Treasury under Clause 6 of the Superannuation Acts Amendment Bill of this Session.

RULES UNDER SECTION 6 OF THE SUPERANNUATION ACT, 1887.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the Superannuation Act, 1837, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are authorised to frame rules as to the conditions on which any civil employment of profit under any public department or any employment of profit under the Government of any British Possession, or any employment under the Government of any foreign State, may be accepted by any person who is in receipt of any sum granted by Parliament for the pay, half-pay, or retired pay of officers of Her Majesty's naval or military forces, regular or auxiliary or otherwise, for past service in such forces; or who has commuted the right to receive the same or has retired with a gratuity; and otherwise, as in the said Act mentioned :

And whereas the general principle adopted by Parliament has been that where any person receiving non-effective pay on account of service to the State accepts fresh State employment, the State should benefit by some saving upon the sums otherwise payable to such person on account of his non-effective pay and of the emoluments of his fresh employment :

And whereas such saving has been heretofore effected by means of a reduction of the non-effective pay, and it appears to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury expedient that in the case of officers accepting certain civil employments of profit, such saving should be effected by reduction of the emoluments of the fresh employment instead of by reduction of the non-effective pay :

Now, therefore, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Superannuation Act, 1887, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby make the following rules :—

Definitions.

In these rules :—

1. (a.) The expression "non-effective pay" shall mean any half-pay or retired pay, or other payment granted by Parliament for officers in Her Majesty's naval or land forces, on account of past service in some portion of those forces, but does not include rewards for distinguished or meritorious service, nor pensions for wounds.

(b.) The expression "civil employment of profit under any public department" means any employment the profits of which are derived from any of the following funds which are hereby declared to be public funds, viz. :—

- a. The Consolidated Fund.
- b. Money voted by Parliament, or receipts taken in reduction of such money.
- c. Land or hereditary revenues of the Crown.
- d. Crown revenue of the Channel Islands.
- e. Mercantile Marine Fund.
- f. Funds of Greenwich or Chelsea Hospital.
- g. Any other fund which, either from its being administered by a public department, or from its receiving a contribution out of any of the above-mentioned funds, the Treasury may from time to time determine to be a public fund;

but does not include any such employment as the Treasury, having regard to the regulations of the Admiralty and the War Department, determine to be a naval or military employment.

(c.) The expression "naval" shall include "marine," and the expression "navy" shall include the marines.

(d.) The expression "officer" shall mean any officer who holds or has retired from a commission in any of the Imperial forces, or who has retired with a gratuity or upon non-effective pay, whether he have commuted such non-effective pay or not.

(e.) The expression "Imperial forces" means Her Majesty's Imperial, naval, or land forces.

(f.) The expression "Colonial Government" means the government of any Colony, and includes the Government of Cyprus.

(g.) Other expressions have the same meaning as in the Superannuation Act, 1887.

I.—ACCEPTANCE OF OFFICE.

Consent to be obtained for civil or any Colonial or foreign employment.

2. An officer who is on the half-pay or retired list, or who has commuted his non-effective pay, or retired from the Imperial forces with a gratuity, before accepting any civil employment of profit under any public department or any employment of profit under the Government of any British Possession, or any employment under the Government of any foreign State, shall obtain the consent of the Admiralty or the War Department, as the case may be, and the continuance of such consent shall be a condition of his holding such employment; and such consent, when given, and a withdrawal of such consent, shall be communicated by the giver to the Treasury.

Penalty for non-observance of condition of Rule 2.

3. If any officer fail to obtain such consent, or if he continues to hold such employment after the consent is withdrawn, he shall be liable to have his non-effective pay suspended or reduced, either permanently or temporarily, according as the Treasury may direct, and if he have commuted such pay or retired with a gratuity, shall be liable to pay to Her Majesty the amount of commutation money or gratuity, or such portion thereof as the Treasury may direct.

II.—RECEIPT OF NAVAL OR MILITARY NON-EFFECTIVE PAY BY AN OFFICER HOLDING A CIVIL EMPLOYMENT OF PROFIT.

4. If any such officer as is mentioned in Rule 2 accept any civil employment of profit under any public department (other than in Her Majesty's Household), and such officer either continues whilst holding the said employment to draw any non-effective pay, or has commuted such pay, or has retired with a gratuity from Navy or Army funds, the profits of his civil employment shall be subject to abatement under the following conditions :—

- (a.) If the annual amount of his non-effective pay, whether in actual course of payment or commuted or represented by a gratuity valued as hereinafter mentioned, and the profits of his civil employment together exceed 400l. per annum, the profits of his civil employment shall be abated by such an amount, not being less than 10 per cent. thereof, as may be determined by the Treasury in concert with the department employing the officer; provided that no abatement shall be made by reason of this rule, which exceeds the amount of the officer's non-effective pay or reduces his total emoluments to less than 400l. per annum.
- (b.) For the purposes of sub-section (a) the annual value of non-effective pay which has been commuted shall be the amount of such pay at the time of commutation, and the value of a gratuity shall be determined, actuarially, according to the prospects of life of the officer at the date of his receipt of such gratuity.

5. (1.) It shall be competent to the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Admiralty or War Department, as the case may be, from time to time to exempt any civil employment under a naval or military department, from the operation of Rule 4, or to bring the same back within its operation.

(2.) It shall be competent to the Treasury from time to time to exempt any other civil employment from the operation of Rule 4, for such time as they may deem fit, on the ground of such employment being of a temporary or casual character, or of its profits being petty or uncertain, or of the nature of fees for piecework.

Treasury to decide doubtful cases.

6. In case of doubt arising either as to whether the funds from which the profits of a civil employment are derived are public funds or as to what is, for the purposes of Rule 4, the annual value of non-effective pay, or of a gratuity, or of the profits of a civil employment, the decision on the point shall rest with the Treasury.

Limitation of Civil Pension.

7. No such officer as is mentioned in Rule 2 shall accept any civil employment of profit under any public department, otherwise than on condition that no pension shall be granted to him in respect of that employment, which, when added to his non-effective pay, shall exceed two-thirds of the emoluments of that employment, or a total of 1,000l. a year, whichever may be the greater.

But, if such officer's civil employment have been declared, by order under Section 4 of the Superannuation Act, 1883, to be a professional office, he may, subject to the above limitation of the amount of pension, elect on his retirement :

- (a.) Either to retain his non-effective pay, together with a pension calculated on his actual service in the professional office; or,
- (b.) To relinquish his non-effective pay, and to receive a pension calculated on his actual service in the professional office, together with the addition of years granted by the order.

Other powers of abatement reserved.

8. Nothing in these rules shall abridge or supersede any power of abatement of an officer's non-effective pay or emoluments possessed in other respects by the Treasury, or by any other public department.

Annual Return to Parliament.

9. A return shall be laid before Parliament in every year of the number of officers who, having non-effective pay, or having commuted their non-effective pay, or having retired on a gratuity from Navy or Army funds, have been granted by the Admiralty or War Department permission, under Rule 2, to hold any civil employment of profit under a public department, specifying the names of such officers and the respective amounts of their non-effective pay and their emoluments, and the abatement, if any, made therefrom, and distinguishing the officers to whom such permission has been granted since the conclusion of last return.

III.—EMPLOYMENT OF NAVAL OR MILITARY OFFICERS BY COLONIAL GOVERNMENTS (EXCLUSIVE OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA).

Officers on Active List to draw no Imperial pay.

10. If an officer on the Active List now holds, or shall hereafter accept, any employment of profit under any Colonial Government, not remunerated out of Imperial funds, he shall draw no pay, effective or non-effective, from Imperial funds so long as he holds that employment; but if his employment appears to the Admiralty or War Department to be of a nature to afford practical experience likely to be afterwards of public advantage in the event of his return to Imperial service, his service under the Colonial Government may, if the Admiralty or War Department think fit, count towards promotion and retirement, as though it were service in the Imperial Forces, and in that case the retired pay earned by his Colonial service whilst he remains on the said Active List will in due course be chargeable on Imperial funds.

Duration of employment.

11. An officer on the Active List shall accept and hold any employment of profit under a Colonial Government on condition only that the employment does not, in the absence of exceptional circumstances, last for a period exceeding five years, and is not renewed.

As to Officers retiring whilst in Colonial Service.

12. If an officer retire from the Imperial Forces whilst he holds an employment of profit under a Colonial Government, he may at once draw so much of his retired pay as was earned by Imperial service before his entering the Colonial service; and upon his retirement from the Colonial service he may also draw the retired pay earned by so much of his Colonial service as preceded his retirement from the Imperial Forces.*

As to Officers on Retired List who accept Colonial employment.

13. If an officer on the Retired List now holds, or shall hereafter accept, an employment of profit under a Colonial Government, his retired pay, even though earned by mixed Imperial and Colonial service, shall not be suspended in whole or in part, by reason of such employment, unless the Admiralty or War Department think fit otherwise to order; and any such order may be carried into effect.

Check on increase of Retired Pay.

14. Service under a Colonial Government subsequent to an officer's retirement from the Imperial Forces, shall not increase the charge for his non-effective pay upon Imperial funds.

IV.—SAVING CLAUSES.

Saving for certain Officers.

15. If any officer who is on the half-pay or retired list, or who has commuted his non-effective pay, or retired from the Imperial forces with a gratuity, accepts or holds any civil employment of profit under any public department, or any employment under the Government of any British Possession, and is not subject to Rule 4, or is not subject to Rules 10 to 14, both inclusive, he shall accept and hold such employment on condition that he does not receive any part of any sum granted for non-effective pay for any time during which he holds such employment, except as hereafter mentioned, that is to say :—

- (a.) If the appointment is in Her Majesty's Household, he may receive the full amount of his non-effective pay;
- (b.) If the annual emoluments of the employment do not exceed three times the amount of the highest rate of non-effective pay attached to the rank, by virtue of which he claims to receive non-effective pay, such person may, with Her Majesty's pleasure to that effect, signified by the Treasury through one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, receive the non-effective pay to which he would be entitled if he held no such employment of profit;
- (c.) Where the annual emoluments of the employment exceed three times the amount of such highest rate of non-effective pay as aforesaid, but fall short of four times such amount, the holder of such employment may, with Her Majesty's pleasure, signified in the manner aforesaid, receive so much non-effective pay as, added to the emoluments of his employment, will together make up four times the amount of such non-effective pay.

Saving for existing Officers.

16. In the case of any officer who has accepted any employment before the passing of the Superannuation Act, 1887, the foregoing rules shall not, without his consent, apply to him so far as respects that employment, and if he does not so consent, the law and regulations applying to such officer immediately before such passing shall continue to apply to him so far as respects that employment.

Treasury, September, 1887.

* This Rule corresponds with a concession made by the Treasury in a letter to the War Department, dated 19th November, 1886, and acted upon in certain cases from not earlier than that date (vide pages 34–5 of Sessional Paper (85) of 1887).

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Lord Stanley of Preston.
Secretary Sir Henry Holland, Bart.

WHEREAS the Convention of which an English translation is set out in the First Schedule to this Order has been concluded between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the foreign countries named in this Order, with respect to the protection to be given by way of copyright to the authors of literary and artistic works:

And whereas the ratifications of the said Convention were exchanged on the fifth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, between Her Majesty the Queen and the Governments of the foreign countries following, that is to say:

Belgium; France; Germany; Hayti; Italy; Spain; Switzerland; Tunis.

And whereas Her Majesty in Council is satisfied that the foreign countries named in this Order have made such provisions as it appears to Her Majesty expedient to require for the protection of authors of works first produced in Her Majesty's dominions:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the International Copyright Acts, 1844 to 1886, doth order; and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The Convention as set forth in the First Schedule to this Order shall, as from the commencement of this Order, have full effect throughout Her Majesty's dominions, and all persons are enjoined to observe the same.

2. This Order shall extend to the foreign countries following, that is to say:

Belgium; France; Germany; Hayti; Italy; Spain; Switzerland; Tunis;

and the above countries are in this Order referred to as the foreign countries of the Copyright Union, and those foreign countries together with Her Majesty's dominions, are in this Order referred to as the countries of the Copyright Union.

3. The author of a literary or artistic work which, on or after the commencement of this Order is first produced in one of the foreign countries of the Copyright Union shall, subject as in this Order and in the International Copyright Acts, 1844 to 1886, mentioned, have as respects that work throughout Her Majesty's dominions, the same right of copyright, including any right capable of being conferred by an Order in Council under section two or section five of the International Copyright Act, 1884, or under any other enactment, as if the work had been first produced in the United Kingdom, and shall have such right during the same period;

Provided that the author of a literary or artistic work shall not have any greater right or longer term of copyright therein, than that which he enjoys in the country in which the work is first produced.

The author of any literary or artistic work first produced before the commencement of this Order shall have the rights and remedies to which he is entitled under section six of the International Copyright Act, 1886.

4. The rights conferred by the International Copyright Acts, 1844 to 1886, shall, in the case of a literary or artistic work first produced in one of the foreign countries of the Copyright Union by an author who is not a subject or citizen of any of the said foreign countries, be limited as follows, that is to say, the author shall not be entitled to take legal proceedings in Her Majesty's dominions for protecting any copyright in such work, but the publisher of such work shall, for the purpose of any legal proceedings in Her Majesty's dominions for protecting any copyright in such work, be deemed to be entitled to such copyright as if he were the author, but without prejudice to the rights of such author and publisher as between themselves.

5. A literary or artistic work first produced simultaneously in two or more countries of the Copyright Union shall be deemed for the purpose of copyright to have been first produced in that one of those countries in which the term of copyright in the work is shortest.

6. Section six of the International Copyright Act, 1852, shall not apply to any dramatic piece to which protection is extended by virtue of this Order.

7. The Orders mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked;

Provided that neither such revocation, nor anything else in this Order, shall prejudicially affect any right acquired or accrued before the commencement of this Order, by virtue of any Order hereby revoked, and any person entitled to such right shall continue entitled thereto, and to the remedies for the same, in like manner as if this Order had not been made.

8. This Order shall be construed as if it formed part of the International Copyright Act, 1886.

9. This Order shall come into operation on the sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, which day is in this Order referred to as the commencement of this Order.

And the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.

C. L. PEEL.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Copyright Convention.

Convention for protecting effectively and in as uniform a manner as possible, the rights of authors over their literary and artistic works. Made on the fifth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India; His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia; His Majesty the King of the Belgians; Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain, in the name of His Catholic Majesty the King of Spain; the President of the French Republic; the President of the Republic of Haiti; His Majesty the King of Italy; the Federal Council of the Swiss Confederation; His Highness the Bey of Tunis.

[The following is an English Translation of the Convention, with the omission of the formal beginning and end.]

ARTICLE I.

The Contracting States are constituted into an Union for the protection of the rights of authors over their literary and artistic works.

ARTICLE II.

Authors of any of the countries of the Union, or their lawful representatives, shall enjoy in the other countries for their works, whether published in one of those countries or unpublished, the rights which the respective laws do now or may hereafter grant to natives.

The enjoyment of these rights is subject to the accomplishment of the conditions and formalities prescribed by law in the country of origin of the work, and cannot exceed in the other countries the term of protection granted in the said country of origin.

The country of origin of the work is that in which the work is first published, or if such publication takes place simultaneously in several countries of the Union, that one of them in which the shortest term of protection is granted by law.

For unpublished works the country to which the author belongs is considered the country of origin of the work.

ARTICLE III.

The stipulations of the present Convention apply equally to the publishers of literary and artistic works published in one of the countries of the Union, but of which the authors belong to a country which is not a party to the Union.

ARTICLE IV.

The expression "literary and artistic works" comprehends books, pamphlets, and all other writings; dramatic or dramatico-musical works, musical compositions with or without words; works of design, painting, sculpture, and engraving; lithographs, illustrations, geographical charts, plans, sketches, and plastic works relative to geography, topography, architecture, or science in general; in fact, every production whatsoever in the literary, scientific, or artistic domain which can be published by any mode of impression or reproduction.

ARTICLE V.

Authors of any of the countries of the Union, or their lawful representatives, shall enjoy in the other countries the exclusive right of making or authorizing the translation of their works until the expiration of ten years from the publication of the original work in one of the countries of the Union.

For works published in incomplete parts ("livraisons") the period of ten years commences from the date of publication of the last part of the original work.

For works composed of several volumes published at intervals, as well as for bulletins or collections ("cahiers") published by literary or scientific societies, or by private persons, each volume, bulletin, or collection is, with regard to the period of ten years, considered as a separate work.

In the cases provided for by the present Article, and for the calculation of the period of protection, the thirty-first December of the year in which the work was published is admitted as the date of publication.

ARTICLE VI.

Authorized translations are protected as original works. They consequently enjoy the protection stipulated in Articles II and III as regards their unauthorised reproduction in the countries of the Union.

It is understood that, in the case of a work for which the translating right has fallen into the public domain, the translator cannot oppose the translation of the same work by other writers.

ARTICLE VII.

Articles from newspapers or periodicals published in any of the countries of the Union may be reproduced in original or in translation in the other countries of the Union, unless the authors or publishers have expressly forbidden it. For periodicals it is sufficient if the prohibition is made in a general manner at the beginning of each number of the periodical.

This prohibition cannot in any case apply to articles of political discussion, or to the reproduction of news of the day or current topics.

ARTICLE VIII.

As regards the liberty of extracting portions from literary or artistic works for use in publications destined for educational or scientific purposes, or for chrestomathies, the matter is to be decided by the legislation of the different countries of the Union, or by special arrangements existing or to be concluded between them.

ARTICLE IX.

The stipulations of Article II apply to the public representation of dramatic or dramatico-musical works, whether such works be published or not.

Authors of dramatic or dramatico-musical works, or their lawful representatives, are, during the existence of their exclusive right of translation, equally protected against the unauthorized public representation of translations of their works.

The stipulations of Article II. apply equally to the public performance of unpublished musical works, or of published works in which the author has expressly declared on the title page or commencement of the work that he forbids the public performance.

ARTICLE X.

Unauthorized indirect appropriations of a literary or artistic work, of various kinds, such as adaptations, arrangements of music, &c., are specially included amongst the illicit reproductions to which the present Convention applies, when they are only the reproduction of a particular work, in the same form, or in another form, with non-essential alterations, additions, or abridgments, so made as not to confer the character of a new original work.

It is agreed that, in the application of the present Article, the tribunals of the various countries of the Union will, if there is occasion, conform themselves to the provisions of their respective laws.

ARTICLE XI.

In order that the authors of works protected by the present Convention shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be considered as such, and be consequently admitted to institute proceedings against pirates before the courts of the various countries of the Union, it will be sufficient that their name be indicated on the work in the accustomed manner.

For anonymous or pseudonymous works, the publisher whose name is indicated on the work is entitled to protect the rights belonging to the author. He is, without other proof, reputed the lawful representative of the anonymous or pseudonymous author.

It is, nevertheless, agreed that the tribunals may, if necessary, require the production of a certificate from the competent authority to the effect that the formalities prescribed by law in the country of origin have been accomplished, as contemplated in Article II.

ARTICLE XII.

Pirated works may be seized on importation into those countries of the Union where the original work enjoys legal protection.

The seizure shall take place conformably to the domestic law of each State.

ARTICLE XIII.

It is understood that the provisions of the present Convention cannot in any way derogate from the right belonging to the Government of each country of the Union to permit, to control, or to prohibit, by measures of domestic legislation or police, the circulation, representation, or exhibition of any works or productions in regard to which the competent authority may find it necessary to exercise that right.

ARTICLE XIV.

Under the reserves and conditions to be determined by common agreement,* the present Convention applies to all works which at the moment of its coming into force have not yet fallen into the public domain in the country of origin.

ARTICLE XV.

It is understood that the Governments of the countries of the Union reserve to themselves respectively the right to enter into separate and particular arrangements between each other, provided always that such arrangements confer upon authors or their lawful representatives more extended rights than those granted by the Union, or embody other stipulations not contrary to the present Convention.

ARTICLE XVI.

An international office is established, under the name of the "Office of the International Union for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works."

This office, of which the expenses will be borne by the Administrations of all the countries of the Union, is placed under the high authority of the Superior Administration of the Swiss Confederation, and works under its direction. The functions of this office are determined by common accord between the countries of the Union.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Convention may be submitted to revisions in order to introduce therein amendments calculated to perfect the system of the Union.

Questions of this kind, as well as those which are of interest to the Union in other respects, will be considered in Conferences to be held successively in the countries of the Union by delegates of the said countries.

It is understood that no alteration in the present Convention shall be binding on the Union except by the unanimous consent of the countries composing it.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Countries which have not become parties to the present Convention, and which grant by their domestic law the protection of rights secured by this Convention, shall be admitted to accede thereto on request to that effect.

Such accession shall be notified in writing to the Government of the Swiss Confederation, who will communicate it to all the other countries of the Union.

Such accession shall imply full adhesion to all the clauses and admission to all the advantages provided by the present Convention.

ARTICLE XIX.

Countries acceding to the present Convention shall also have the right to accede thereto at any time for their Colonies or foreign possessions.

They may do this either by a general declaration comprehending all their Colonies or possessions within the accession, or by specially naming those comprised therein, or by simply indicating those which are excluded.

ARTICLE XX.

The present Convention shall be put in force three months after the exchange of the ratifications, and shall remain in effect for an indefinite period until the termination of a year from the day on which it may have been denounced.

Such denunciation shall be made to the Government authorized to receive accessions, and shall only be effective as regards the country making it, the Convention remaining in full force and effect for the other countries of the Union.

ARTICLE XXI.

The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged at Berne, within the space of one year at the latest.

Additional Article.

The Convention concluded this day in no wise affects the maintenance of existing Conventions between the Contracting States, provided always that such Conventions confer on authors, or their lawful representatives, rights more extended than those secured by the Union, or contain other stipulations which are not contrary to the said Convention.

Final Protocol.

1. As regards Article IV. it is agreed that those countries of the Union where the character of artistic works is not refused to photographs, engage to admit them to the benefits of the Convention concluded to-day, from the date of its coming into effect. They are, however, not bound to protect the authors of such works further than is permitted by their own legislation except in the case of international engagements already existing, or which may hereafter be entered into by them.

It is understood that an authorized photograph of a protected work of art shall enjoy legal protection in all the countries of the Union, as contemplated by the said Convention for the same period, as the principal right of reproduction of the work itself subsists, and within the limits of private arrangements between those who have legal rights.

2. As regards Article IX. it is agreed that those countries of the Union whose legislation implicitly includes choreographic works amongst dramatico-musical works expressly admit the former works to the benefits of the Convention concluded this day.

It is, however, understood that questions which may arise on the application of this clause shall rest within the competence of the respective tribunals to decide.

3. It is understood that the manufacture and sale of instruments for the mechanical reproduction of musical airs which are copyright, shall not be considered as constituting an infringement of musical copyright.

4. The common agreement alluded to in Article XIV. of the Convention is established as follows:—

The application of the Convention to works which have not fallen into the public domain at the time when it comes into force, shall operate according to the stipulations on this head which may be contained in special Conventions either existing or to be concluded.

* See paragraph 4 of Final Protocol.

In the absence of such stipulations between any countries of the Union, the respective countries shall regulate, each for itself, by its domestic legislation, the manner in which the principle contained in Article XIV. is to be applied.

5. The organization of the International Office established in virtue of Article XVI. of the Convention, shall be fixed by a regulation which shall be drawn up by the Government of the Swiss Confederation.

The official language of the International Office will be French.

The International Office will collect all kinds of information relative to the protection of the rights of authors over their literary and artistic works. It will arrange and publish such information. It will study questions of general utility likely to be of interest to the Union, and, by the aid of documents placed at its disposal by the different Administrations, will edit a periodical publication in the French language treating questions which concern the Union. The Governments of the countries of the Union reserve to themselves the faculty of authorizing, by common accord, the publication by the office of an addition in one or more other languages if experience should show this to be requisite.

The International Office will always hold itself at the disposal of members of the Union, with the view to furnish them with any special information they may require relative to the protection of literary and artistic works.

The administration of the country where a Conference is about to be held, will prepare the programme of the Conference with the assistance of the International Office.

The Director of the International Office will attend the sittings of the Conferences, and will take part in the discussions without a deliberative voice. He will make an annual report on his administration, which shall be communicated to all the members of the Union.

The expenses of the office of the International Union shall be shared by the contracting States. Unless a fresh arrangement be made, they cannot exceed a sum of sixty thousand francs a year. This sum may be increased by the decision of one of the Conferences provided for in Article XVII.

The share of the total expense to be paid by each country shall be determined by the division of the contracting and acceding States into six classes, each of which shall contribute in the proportion of a certain number of units:—

First class ...	...	...	25 units.
Second class ...	...	...	20 "
Third class ...	...	...	15 "
Fourth class ...	...	...	10 "
Fifth class ...	...	...	5 "
Sixth class ...	...	...	3 "

These co-efficients will be multiplied by the number of states of each class, and the total product thus obtained will give the number of units by which the total expense is to be divided. The quotient will give the amount of the unity of expense. Each State will declare, at the time of its accession, in which of the said classes it desires to be placed.

The Swiss Administration will prepare the Budget of the office, superintend its expenditure, make the necessary advances, and draw up the annual account, which shall be communicated to all the other Administrations.

6. The next Conference shall be held at Paris between four and six years from the date of the coming into force of the Convention.

The French Government will fix the date within these limits after having consulted the International Office.

7. It is agreed that, as regards the exchange of ratifications contemplated in Article XXI., each contracting party shall give a single instrument, which shall be deposited with those of the other States, in the Government Archives of the Swiss Confederation. Each party shall receive in exchange a copy of the procès-verbal of the exchange of ratifications, signed by the Plenipotentiaries present.

The present final Protocol, which shall be ratified with the Convention concluded this day, shall be considered as forming an integral part of the said Convention, and shall have the same force, effect, and duration.

To Telegraph Contractors and Others.

TENDERS will be received at the Public Works Office, Perth, Western Australia, up to noon on Wednesday, May 2nd, 1888, from persons willing to construct a line of Telegraph from Wyndham to the Goldfields, a distance of 220 miles or thereabouts.

The construction will consist of a copper wire, No. 14, carried on iron posts (Siemen's Patent), and the whole of the materials, wire, insulators, and posts will be supplied by the Government at Wyndham.

Specifications, conditions of contract, and forms of tender may be obtained on application, and on payment of three guineas, at the Public Works Offices, Perth.

Tenders to state prices per mile.

Each Tender must be accompanied by a Bank deposit receipt for £1,000, payable to the Honorable the Director of Public Works, Perth, W.A.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

J. ARTHUR WRIGHT,
Director of Public Works.

Public Works and Railways' Department,
Perth, 21st April, 1888.

TENDERS (endorsed "Tender for Extension of Fremantle Jetty") will be received at this Office until noon of Tuesday, the 22nd May, from persons willing to perform certain additions to the New Sea Jetty, at Fremantle.

Plans and Specification may be seen and full particulars obtained on application at the Public Works Office, Perth, and that of the Resident Engineer, at Fremantle.

The Government do not bind themselves to accept the lowest or any tender, and will require the guarantee of two responsible persons for the due performance of the Contract.

Forms of Tender may be had on application to the various Resident Magistrates, and at the Public Offices, Perth; and no tender will be entertained unless rendered on the prescribed form.

J. ARTHUR WRIGHT,
Director of Public Works,
and Commissioner of Railways.

Cypher Telegrams.

Postal and Telegraph Department,
General Post Office,
Perth, April 24th, 1888.

ON and after the 1st proximo, Cypher Telegrams will be rated as under:—

"Every message in secret language, or consisting of words in any admitted language (English, French, German, Italian, Dutch, Portuguese, Spanish, and Latin) having no connective meaning, groups of letters or figures, shall be regarded as a Cypher message, and be subject to an additional charge of 50 per cent.; and in a message containing one or more words in Cypher, every such word shall be counted as two words, and the extra charge be added to the minimum rate for a message, provided that such extra charge shall not exceed 50 per cent. on the ordinary rate which would be payable on account of the said telegrams. Groups of five letters or five figures shall count as one Cypher word.

Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1884.

IT is hereby notified that Lever Brothers, of Warrington, in the County of Lancaster, England, Soap Manufacturers, have applied to register the Trade Mark represented below, in class 47, to be used in respect of Soap :

GUARANTEE. The wonderful lathering and cleansing properties of SUNLIGHT SOAP are solely due to the purity and excellence of the materials, and the care bestowed on its manufacture.

"SUNLIGHT" SOAP!

WHY DOES

A woman's health so often break down at an early age? Put a man at a washing-tub; let him get heated with the hot suds until every pore is opened; then let him stand over the filthy steam that comes from scalding and boiling clothes, and his head's certainly would heat down before long. And yet this terrible ordeal is exactly what

A WOMAN

Has to go through on washing days, and is seldom made over-heated at the hot work, she has to rub her life by going out into the open air to hang up the clothes.

These facts, which are known to every housewife, can readily explain why so many women

LOOK OLD

While yet young in years, and Physicians and Boards of Health cannot draw attention too strongly to the injurious effects of the usual way of washing, with its necessary steam and scalding, or boiling to get the clothes pure and sweet. Fortunately, this trouble can be avoided. Scalding, boiling, and steam alone away with. Clothes made sweet and beautifully white, and much

SOONER THAN

By the old way, by using the "SUNLIGHT" SOAP, a soap so purifying and cleansing that the dirtiest clothing can be washed in lukewarm water with very little rubbing, and Clothes, Bedding, and Linen cleansed without either Scalding or Boiling, while the work is so light that a girl of twelve or thirteen can do a large wash without being tired. Now there is a remedy for the great "washing-day" will be economical in its use and be within the reach of all. There is and a woman's

A MAN?

Who is not directly interested in having introduced into their homes THAT WONDERFUL WAY OF WASHING CLOTHES, which, when properly tried, does away with the hard work, offensive smell, and fearful steam on washing day; and makes the White Pieces Whiter, Coloured Pieces Brighter, and Flannels Softer, than they can be made by washing the old way, and also leaves every article as clean and sweet and as pure as if never worn.

NOW FOR THE "SUNLIGHT" WAY OF WASHING.

FIRST. - Dip one end of the things to be washed in a tub of lukewarm water, draw it out on a wash board, and rub the soap lightly over it so as not to waste it. Be particular not to miss soaping it all over. THEN roll it in a tight roll, lay it in the bottom of the tub under the water, and go on the same way until all the pieces have the soap rubbed on them and are rolled up.

THEN go away for 30 minutes to one hour and let the "Sunlight" Soap do its work.

NEXT. - After soaking the full time commence rubbing the clothes lightly out on a wash board, and the dirt will drop out, and the dye garment inside out to get at the soaps, but don't use any more soap; don't scold or boil a single piece, and don't wash through two suds. If the water gets too dirty pour a little out and add fresh. If a streak is hard to wash, rub some more soap on it, and throw the piece back into the suds for a few minutes.

LASTLY COMES THE RINSING, which is to be done in lukewarm water, taking special care to get all the dirty suds away, then wring out and hang up to dry.

THE MOST DELICATE COLOURS WILL NOT FADE WHEN WASHED THIS WAY WITH "SUNLIGHT" SOAP, BUT WILL BE THE BRIGHTEST.

SPECIAL NOTICE. To keep linen "WHITE AS SNOW" be very careful to rinse all the "SUNLIGHT" SOAP loose from the dirt, and it is very important that all the dirt and lather be got out by one or two thorough good rinsings.

Notice is hereby given that, unless it be shown to my satisfaction before the expiration of 21 days from the publication hereof that such Trade Mark has been previously registered, or that some other person is entitled to such Trade Mark, or that such Trade Mark is so like some other Trade Mark that it may be mistaken for the same, a certificate will be issued to the applicant, certifying that the said firm are entitled to the use of the same.
