Head Quarters,
Sydney, 26th April, 1888.

To enable the distribution of the Khedive's Star to be made as speedily as possible, members of the New South Wales Contingent (other than those at present serving in the Local Defence Forces, whose claims will be submitted by Commanding Officers) are desired to forward name and address in full, with Regimental number and letter of the Company to which they belonged, to the Assistant Adjutant General, Military Staff Office, Dawes Battery, Sydney. Applicants will also indicate the Mayor, or other recognized public official, to whom they wish their decoration forwarded, as under no circumstances can it be sent to individuals direct, personal identification in each case being absolutely necessary.

No. 3435.—C.S.O.

 $\frac{559}{87}$ Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth, 1st May, 1888.

OWNERS of Sheep are reminded that under the provisions of section 37 of the Scab Act (49 Vict. 21), every owner of sheep is required, on the last Saturday in the month of December in each year, to make a return in writing, which he must sign, of all sheep kept and depastured by him in any district of the Colony, and such return must be forwarded, within fourteen days after the same shall have been made, to the Resident Magistrate of the district in which the sheep were on the last Saturday of December. The fact of a district being clean or exempt from contribution does not do away with the necessity of making these returns, and the neglecting so to do renders owners liable to a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds.
