WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

No. 47.

Government House,

Perth, 13th March, 1888.

SIR,—You have doubtless noticed, in the press, telegraphic and other reports of the disastrous floods which occurred on the night of the 3rd of last month in the Greenough District of the Colony.

2. This calamity took place when I was absent in Victoria, and the action required on the part of the Government was judiciously and promptly taken by my Deputy, the Honorable Sir Malcolm Fraser, K.C.M.G., and by the very energetic and excellent Government Resident at Geraldton, Mr. Maitland Brown, a copy of whose official report I enclose (*dated 24th February, 1888), together with copy of the telegram (*dated 29th February, 1888) which, after perusing and considering the report, I caused the Colonial Secretary to address to Mr. Brown.

3. The losses occasioned by these floods to the Greenough farmers and settlers have been severe. Much sympathy for the sufferers has been excited throughout the Colony, and all classes have joined in the movement to raise subscriptions, in money or in kind, for those requiring relief.

4. I cannot but think and hope that the enormous body of water which has inundated the Greenough District, and much of which will probably remain for some time standing on the lower levels of the country, will, in the end, by enriching and fertilising the soil for a considerable period to come, bring, in many cases, a substantial compensation for the immediate losses occasioned by the flood. But, however this may ultimately be, the calamity is for the time severe, and many families of hardworking settlers are brought to the brink of ruin.

5. The public subscriptions which have been raised, coupled with the aid from public funds mentioned in the Colonial Secretary's telegram, will, I hope, be sufficient to deal with cases of distress.

6. Four persons met their deaths during the floods. It is indeed a wonder that the sudden and extraordinary rush and height of waters over a large expanse of country did not occasion a far greater loss of life.

7. I desire to bring to your special notice the energetic and judicious action of the officer whose name I have already mentioned (Mr. Maitland Brown, Government Resident at Geraldton), in at once proceeding to the spot, and in rendering continued and indefatigable assistance to both the settlers and the Government.

8. Full accounts of the floods will be found in the files of the local newspapers forwarded to your office.

I have, &c.,

THE following letter and its enclosure, which have been received by His Excellency the Governor, are published for general information.

Persons desiring to subscribe to the fund mentioned are requested to forward their donations to Lieut.-Colonel Phillimore, R.A.

By Command,
OCT. BURT,
for Colonial Secretary.

London, April 28, 1888.

SIR,—The Committee of the Waterloo Memorial Fund have desired me to forward to Your Excellency the enclosed, and in the event of your approving of the step they are taking, would ask you to place the matter in the hands of the persons Your Excellency may think most suitable for carrying out the object they have in view—which is to give every one connected with England and interested in the Campaign of Waterloo an opportunity of joining in the memorial—and as the remaining sum required is small, they think that small individual subscriptions will be sufficient to attain their end.

I remain, &c.,

R. S. LIDDELL,

Colonel,

Hon. Sec.

His Excellency

Sir F. Napier Broome, K.C.M.G.

WATERLOO MEMORIAL FUND.

The Right Hon. the Lord Mayor of London.
Colonel the Lord Wantage, V.C., K.C.B.

Major-General Sir Reginald Gipps, K.C.B.
Major-General Godfrey Clerk, C.B.

Hon. Sec.

Colonel R. S. Liddell.

At a meeting held at Apsley House, on February 21st, 1888, it was announced that the above Committee had been formed, on the invitation of His Excellency the Lord Vivian, Her Majesty's Minister at Brussels, for the purpose of raising funds for the erection and preservation of a monument in memory of the British officers, non-commissioned officers, and men who lost their lives in the Waterloo campaign.

No memorial at present exists, and the opportunity is now taken of the old cemeteries at Brussels being removed, and the remains of our soldiers buried there, and in the farms round Mont St. Jean, being placed in the new cemetery at Evère outside the town, to appeal to the country for funds to erect a monument, worthy of those who fought for England in the battles of 1815.

It was also proposed that the object of the meeting should be communicated to the whole of Great Britain and her Colonies, in order that the subscription should assume a thoroughly National form. Lord Vivian estimates that £3,500 will be required to carry out the object in a desirable manner. Over £2,000 has already been collected.

Messrs. Drummond, Bankers, Charing Cross, Messrs. Cox and Co., Craig's Court, and Messrs. Martin and Co., 68, Lombard Street, have kindly consented to receive subscriptions.
