*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 3rd October, 1888.*

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Draft Bills, which it is intended to introduce into the Legislative Council during the forthcoming Session.

By Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

²⁸¹³
₈₈
A BILL for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of Gold found in or procured from the soil of the Colony.

WHEREAS it is desirable for public reasons to ascertain the quantity of Gold found in or procured from the soil of the Colony: Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. ANY banker and any person other than a banker into whose possession may come any gold, gold ore, gold dust, or gold bullion, if such gold, gold ore, or gold dust shall have been found in or procured from the soil of the Colony, or if the gold contained in such gold bullion shall have been found in or procured from the soil of the Colony, shall, on such gold, gold ore, gold dust, or gold bullion coming into his possession, declare the weight or value of the same in and by an affidavit to be taken before a Justice of the Peace under the provisions of the Ordinance of the 18th Vict., No. 12.

Declaration as to gold in possession.

2. ANY banker and any person other than a banker exporting or taking away from the Colony any gold, gold ore, gold dust, or gold bullion, if such gold, gold ore, or gold dust shall have been found in or procured from the soil of the Colony, or if the gold contained in such bullion shall have been found in or procured from the soil of the Colony, shall at the Customs declare the weight or value of the same.

Declaration as to gold for exportation.

3. ANY person failing to comply with the provisions of this Act may, on summary conviction before two Justices, be fined any sum not exceeding Ten pounds, or any sum not exceeding an amount equal to five per cent. on the value of the undeclared articles, whichever sum shall be the greater.

Penalty.

4. NO person possessed of or exporting or taking away from the Colony articles manufactured of gold, although such gold shall have been found in or procured from the soil of the Colony, shall be bound to declare the weight or value of such articles, either under the provisions of the first or of the second sections of this Act, if such articles are or could be used for personal wear. But any person possessed of or exporting or carrying away from the Colony articles of jewellery, including watches, manufactured of gold found in or procured from the soil of the Colony for the purposes of trade, or in number that in the opinion of the Justices is greatly in excess of what might be fairly deemed to be for personal use by such person, such person shall be subject to the provisions of the first or second sections of this Act, as the case may be, respectively.

Exception as to manufactured gold.

5. THIS Act shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1889.

Operation of Act.

6. THIS Act may be cited as "The Gold Declaration Act, 1888."

A BILL to provide for the Conveyance of Shipwrecked Passengers.

WHEREAS it is provided by the fifteenth section of an Act of the Imperial Parliament, passed in the 26th and 27th years of the reign of Her Majesty the Queen, and called and known as "The Passengers Amendment Act, 1863," that it shall be lawful for the Governor of a Colony to forward any passenger or cabin passenger to his intended destination who, not by his own fault, finds himself at a port other than that to which he was bound, unless the Master of the ship in which he was a passenger give, within forty-eight hours, a written undertaking to forward or carry on such passenger within six weeks, and fulfils that undertaking:

And whereas it is provided by the fifty-second section of an Act of the Imperial Parliament, passed in the 18th and 19th years of the reign of Her Majesty the Queen, and called and known as "The Passengers Act, 1855," that it shall be lawful for the Governor of a Colony to defray the whole or part of the expenses incurred in and about the picking up at sea from a boat, raft, or otherwise of a passenger or cabin passenger:

And whereas it is provided by the sixteenth section of the said first mentioned Act that all expenses incurred by a Governor of a Colony under the said fifteenth section thereof and under the said fifty-second section of the last mentioned Act shall become a debt due to Her Majesty and her successors from the owner, charterer, and master of the ship:

And whereas those provisions are applicable only to certain voyages of specified distance and duration, and it is expedient that similar provisions be enacted in reference to colonial voyages of shorter distance and duration than those specified in the said Imperial Acts:

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Governor may send on passengers if the master of the ship fail to do so.

1. IF any passenger or cabin passenger of any passenger ship bound for any port within the Australasian Colonies shall, without any neglect or default of his own, find himself at any port or place in this Colony not being the port to which the said ship was originally bound, or at which he or any public officer or other person on his behalf may have contracted he should land, it shall be lawful for the Governor, or for any person, board, or body authorised by him for the purpose, to forward such passenger to his intended destination, unless the master of such ship shall, within forty-eight hours of the arrival of such passenger, give to the Governor or representative as aforesaid a written undertaking to forward or carry on, within six weeks thereafter, such passenger or cabin passenger to his original destination, and unless such master shall accordingly forward or carry him on within that period.

Governor may pay expenses of taking off passengers at sea.

2. IF any passenger or cabin passenger of any passenger ship shall be taken off from any such passenger ship or picked up at sea from any boat, raft, or otherwise, if the port or place to which he shall be conveyed be within this Colony, including its dependencies, it shall be lawful for the Governor, or for any person, board, or body authorised by him for the purpose, to defray all or any part of the expenses thereby incurred.

3. ALL expenses incurred under the first and second sections of this Act, or either of them, by or by the authority of the Governor, including the cost of maintaining a passenger until forwarded to his destination, and of all necessary bedding, provisions, and stores, shall become a debt to Her Majesty and her successors from the owner, charterer, and master of such ship, and shall be recoverable from them, or from one or more of them, at the suit and for the use of Her Majesty, in like manner as in the case of other Crown debts; and a certificate in the form in the Schedule hereto annexed, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit, purporting to be under the hand of the Governor or his representative as aforesaid, stating the total amount of such expenses, shall in any suit or other proceeding for the recovery of such debt be received in evidence without the proof of the handwriting or of the official character of the Governor or his representative as aforesaid, and shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the amount of such expenses, and that the same were duly incurred; nor shall it be necessary to adduce on behalf of Her Majesty any other evidence in support of the claim, but judgment shall pass for the Crown, with costs of suit, unless the defendant shall specially plead and duly prove any facts showing that such expenses were not duly incurred under the provisions of this Act.

Expenses incurred under the two preceding sections to be a debt due to the Crown.

4. THIS Act may be cited as "The Passengers Act, 1888."

Short title.

SCHEDULE.

Form of Governor's (or his Representative's) Certificate of Expenditure.

I hereby certify that acting under and in conformity with the provisions of "The Passengers Act, 1888," I have defrayed the expenses incurred in rescuing, maintaining, supplying with necessary bedding, provisions, and stores (a), and in forwarding to their destination (b) passengers who were proceeding from _____ to _____ in the passenger ship _____ which was wrecked at sea (c).

And I further certify, for the purposes of the third section of the said Act, that the total amount of such expenses is _____ pounds, and that such expenses were duly incurred by me under the said Act.

Given under my hand this _____ day of _____ 18 ____ .
Governor of, &c., or a person duly authorised by the Governor of, &c.

(a) Omit any of those items of expenditure which were not incurred.

(b) State number.

(c) State generally the nature of the disaster, and where it occurred; or if the passengers were only left behind, without any default of their own, state the fact accordingly.

A BILL to provide for the Inspection of Boilers.

WHEREAS explosions dangerous to life and limb may occur by reason of boilers being unsound, and it is desirable to prevent the same: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. NO boiler, whether marine, stationary, or movable, shall be used in any city, town, municipality, or port, or within six miles thereof, for any purpose whatsoever, unless and until the same be inspected and passed in manner hereinafter provided.

All boilers to be inspected.

Inspectors of boilers to be appointed.

2. THE Governor may appoint Inspectors of Boilers in and for every city, town, municipality, and port in the Colony, who shall have jurisdiction for the purposes of this Act in such city, town, municipality, or port, and within six miles in any direction from any part of such city, town, municipality, or port. Provided always, that the Governor may appoint the same person as Inspector in and for more than one of such places.

Inspector to give certificate of fitness of boiler.

3. IF an Inspector on examining a boiler deem the same fit for use, he shall give a certificate to the effect that having inspected the same it is good for use for such period as he names in such certificate. Such certificate may be in the form given in Schedule A. to this Act.

Penalty for using boiler before inspection.

4. IF any person use any boiler for any purpose whatsoever in any city, town, municipality, or port, or within six miles in any direction from any part of such city, town, municipality, or port, in or for which an Inspector shall have been appointed, he shall, on summary conviction before two Justices, be fined any sum not being under Five or over Twenty pounds.

Penalty for using boiler after expiry of certificate.

5. IF any person, when an Inspector shall have given a certificate that a boiler was good for use for a certain period, shall use the said boiler in any part of the Colony for any purpose whatsoever after the said period has expired, and without having obtained a further certificate of its fitness for use for a further period, such person shall, on summary conviction before two Justices, be fined any sum not being under Five pounds or over Fifty pounds.

Penalty for using boiler after refusal of certificate.

6. IF any person, when an Inspector shall have examined a boiler and shall have declined to give a certificate of its fitness for use, shall use the said boiler in any part of the Colony for any purpose whatsoever, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction on indictment or information be imprisoned for a term of not under three nor over twelve calendar months with hard labor.

Inspector's fees.

7. THE fees due and payable to an Inspector in respect of the inspection of a boiler, and of a certificate, and of each of them, shall be paid by the owner of such boiler to such Inspector for such Inspector's personal use and benefit. The fees to be taken by an Inspector shall be those mentioned in Schedule B. to this Act.

Short title.

8. THIS Act may be cited as "The Boiler Inspection Act, 1888."

Schedule A.

Form of Certificate.

This is to certify that I have inspected and examined a boiler [describing its size] now [describe whether fixed into any machine or ship, and where such machine is fixed or the name of the ship] belonging to [give the name of owner], and I find that the said boiler is fit for use for months from this day of A.D. 18

Inspector of Boilers.

Schedule B.

For every Inspection of a Boiler 2 guineas

A BILL to further amend "The Boat Licensing Act, 1878."

WHEREAS it is expedient to further amend "The Boat Licensing Act, 1878": Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. THE twenty-first section of "The Boat Licensing Act, 1878," shall be read and construed as if after the word "boats," wherever mentioned therein, the words "vessels or steamers" had been inserted, and as if after the word "boat" the words "vessel or steamer" had been inserted.

Amendment of 21st section of 42nd Vict., No. 24.

2. THE twenty-second section of the said Act shall be read and construed as if after the word "boat" therein the words "vessel or steamer" had been inserted.

Amendment of 22nd section of 42nd Vict., No. 24.

3. THIS Act shall be read and construed together with "The Boat Licensing Act, 1878," and also with the Act, passed in the 50th year of Her Majesty the Queen, to amend the same.

7. The Contractor and his servants to be amenable to the existing Jetty Regulations.

8. The Contractor not to be compelled to load trucks with goods placed more than three yards from the rails, nor to place goods discharged from trucks more than three yards from the rails; if a further distance is required, a special arrangement may be made with the owner of the goods.

9. For performing the above services the Contractor will be permitted to charge one shilling and sixpence per ton, as per scale published in the Government Gazette of the 8th November, 1881, on all goods trucked to and from the sea and shore end of Jetties.

10. For goods trucked after hours, on holidays (on permission being obtained for so doing from the Principal Officer of Customs or Officers in charge of jetties), the Contractor will not be allowed to charge more than 2s. 6d. per ton, but he will be permitted to make special arrangements with parties requiring his services.

11. A bond of £300 for Albany and Geraldton and £100 for all other jetties, with two sureties in similar amounts, will be required for the due performance of the Contract, and the Contract to terminate at any time on the Government giving one month's notice.

12. When a Jetty needs repair such as to interfere with the traffic, the trucking must be done in a way most advantageous under the circumstances, and no remission of rent will be made.

13. The principal Officer of Customs to have the right to settle all disputes between truckers and owners of goods, and to fix and determine charges for trucking such goods on which dispute may hereafter arise, whether fixed or not by any previous scale for calculating tonnage.

14. The Principal Officer of Customs' decision in all such matters to be final, so far as they do not interfere with the laws existing in the Colony.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender for any of the above-named services, and reserves to itself the right of accepting a portion of a tender.

The supplies to be delivered at such places and times as may be required by the Government or persons deputed by it.

The Contractors will be liable for any expense which may be incurred by the Government in consequence of the non-performance of their contracts.

Payments to be made monthly, and for general supplies for the quantities actually consumed in the month.

No transfer of any Contract will be permitted, without the previous consent of the Government.

Each Tender must bear the bonâ fide signatures of two responsible and approved sureties, who will be required to be bound for the due performance of the Contract, under a penalty of about one-fourth of the estimated sum to be paid under each contract. Parties are requested to be careful in drawing up their Tenders, which should be in strict conformity with this Notice.

Forms of Tender may be had on application to the various Resident Magistrates, and at the Public Offices, Perth; and no tender will be entertained unless rendered on the prescribed form.

By His Excellency's Command,
MALCOLM FRASER,
Colonial Secretary.

15. That any tender accepted for the service during 1889 will not commence until these conditions are signed by the tenderer and his sureties.

7.—BURIAL of PAUPERS.

To undertake the Burial of Paupers at Perth, York, Bunbury, Albany, Newcastle, Vasse, Guildford, Fremantle, Champion Bay, and Roebourne, during the year 1889. Tenders must state the price for the burial of an adult or child, respectively.

N O T I C E .

Crown Lands' Office,
Perth, 6th August, 1888.

THE undermentioned Leases and Licenses (forfeited through non-payment of Rent for the year 1888), full particulars of which are given below, will be offered for sale by Public Auction at the Crown Lands Office, Perth, on the 11th day of October; sale to commence at 11 a.m.

2. Each block will be offered separately at the upset price of £1 each, except the Special Occupation lands, which will be offered at the price shown opposite to each, and knocked down to the highest bidder; such bid or bids to be taken as a premium in addition to the annual rent. Quarter rent being charged for this year, except the Special Occupation lands, for which the full year's rent will be charged.

3. The upset price and the rent for the year paid on Special Occupation lands will be credited to the purchaser, on the final redemption of the land.

4. Premium and rent must be paid immediately after sale; failure of which will render the sale void.

JOHN FORREST,
Commissioner of Crown Lands.
