(3.) The occupier of any premises, when requested by the board within the jurisdiction of which the same are situate, or by any officer thereof, shall state to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief, the name and address of the owner of the premises occupied by him, under a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds.

FINANCIAL.

84. THE ordinary income of a board shall be made up of:—

Income of board, how made up.

1. The rents, issues, profits, and dues arising from or out of the lands, tenements, and other property of the board or under its control and management, together with any fines or penalties that may be payable in consequence of any injury done to the same, or otherwise.
2. Fees, profits, or rents arising from or out of any public reserve with which it may have been endowed.
3. All dues and fees authorised by the Governor to be exacted in respect of any building, ferry, jetty, wharf, erection, or work placed by the Governor under its control or management.

4. All fees for licenses, and all fines and penalties which by this Act or any other Act or Ordinance are made payable to any board or recoverable under any by-law, excepting so much of the latter as may be payable to any informer.
5. All fines and penalties that may be incurred and recovered under the provisions of this Act within the district.
6. Any general rate made and levied.
7. Voluntary subscriptions of money or labor for the general or special purposes of a board.
8. All sums of money which may from time to time be granted or apportioned from public funds for the purposes of the district. Provided always that of all such money not more than one-fourth shall be expended on minor roads, and the balance thereof shall be expended on main roads.

85. A BOARD is hereby authorised to make and levy such rate or rates within the limits of the district, not exceeding in the aggregate one shilling in the pound in any one year upon the rateable value of all rateable property within the district, as may be deemed by the board requisite for the purposes of this Act, and such rate shall be called the general rate.

Board authorised to make a rate.

86. FOR the purpose of determining the rateable value of property for the purpose of the said rate, a board shall cause a book to be kept (to be called "The Rate Book") according to the form contained in Schedule F. to this Act, and shall enter therein all rateable property within the district, and shall in the appropriate column state the full, fair, average, estimated net annual value of the same clear of all outgoings: and such value shall, in the case of all lands, tenements, and hereditaments that have been unoccupied for a period of six months previous to making up such book, and of any waste piece of land, be taken at one-tenth of its full fair value in fee; and the said board shall cause to be entered in the said book the names of the owner and occupier and the other particulars indicated by the form given in the said schedule.

Rate book to be made.

1. Such book shall be made up and completed on or before the second Saturday in December in each year, and the chairman shall then sign his name at the bottom of each page therein and shall set his initials against any alteration or erasure therein.
2. The net annual value set against all rateable property in the said book so signed by the chairman shall for all purposes be deemed to be the rateable value thereof during the year, beginning on the first day of January next ensuing.
3. The said rate book shall at all times thereafter be open to inspection by a ratepayer.

To be completed before 2nd Saturday in December.

To be conclusive as to annual value for ensuing year.

And open to inspection.

87. WHENEVER any such general rate has been ordered to be made and levied by the board as aforesaid, the chairman shall on a vacant page or pages of the rate book, to be left blank for such purpose, enter a memorandum of such order and shall sign the same and shall then give public notice thereof, and shall publish a copy of the same in some newspaper published in the Colony and circulating in the district.

Manner of making rate.

Thereupon, at the expiration of fourteen days after the publication of the last of such notices the amount of such rate shall, subject to any by-law that may be made by the board relative to the times and modes of payment and of enforcing payment of the same, become due from and payable by, in the first instance, the tenant or occupier at the time of the making of such rate of every such rateable property, and in the next instance within the year in which any rate is made, from and by any subsequent tenant or occupier, or if there be no such tenant or occupier, or if the board be unable to enforce payment by any such tenant or occupier as aforesaid, then from and by the owner of the same.

Amending rate books.

88. IF it shall at any time appear to the board that any property which ought to be included in any rate book shall have been omitted therefrom, or that the name of any person has been inserted therein as the owner or occupier of any property in respect of which some other person ought to have been assessed, or that any other matter purely of error shall need rectification, the board may cause a description of the property so omitted and the name of the owner or occupier to be inserted therein, together with the annual value at which such property shall be rated, and may also substitute for the name of the person erroneously inserted therein as the owner or occupier of any property rated the name of the true owner or occupier thereof, and correct any such other error in the said rate book as may be requisite.

Board may use previous year's rate book.

89. THE board may in their discretion, instead of causing to be prepared and published a fresh assessment in any year, use the assessment of the last or any previous year, with such alterations and additions as may appear necessary, and such assessment, with such alterations and additions as aforesaid, shall, on public notice being given that the same will be used as the assessment for the ensuing year, be deemed to have been duly made and published.

Overdraft.

90. A BOARD, pending the collection of any rates or subsidies in aid of rates or grants which may be payable by the Government, may, for the purpose of carrying on or completing public works then in progress, obtain advances from any bank by overdraft of the current account; but no such overdraft shall at any time under any circumstances exceed one-fourth of the prior year's income.

What to be proved in order to recover rate.

91. IN any proceeding taken to enforce payment of any general rate authorised to be levied under this Act, it shall be sufficient for the board to prove that a memorandum of the order ordering such rate to be made was signed by the chairman, that notice of the same was duly given, that demand has been made for payment of the said rate at least fourteen days before the commencement of the said proceedings, and that the same has not been paid, that the person against whom such proceedings are taken is or was at the time of the making of such rate or such demand as last aforesaid the tenant or occupier of the premises, or, if the proceedings are taken against the owner, that the premises are unoccupied or that the board is unable to enforce payment by the tenant or occupier liable in the first instance as aforesaid;

Proceedings thereafter.

Thereupon the board shall be entitled to judgment for the amount of the rate calculated on the rateable value of the land or premises as the same appears in the rate book, or on some less value which the court or Justices before whom the proceedings are taken may determine to be the full, fair, average net annual value of the rated premises, free of outgoings as aforesaid.

92. (1.) ALL rates leviable under this Act shall be recoverable either by action at law, by summary proceedings before any two Justices in the same way as any fine or penalty is now recoverable, or by distress and sale.

How rates may be recovered.

(2.) If any person shall think himself aggrieved by the valuation put upon property, and whether as regards the amount thereof or the manner in which such valuation shall have been made, or otherwise howsoever, it shall be lawful for such person to appeal against the same in the Local Court of the district within which the property is situate by serving a notice in writing to that effect on the chairman of the board at any time within twenty-one days after publication of the notice of every general rate, and by depositing in the hands of such chairman the amount of the rate assessed on such valuation and complained of by the appellant, together with a sum of two guineas to answer costs.

(3.) Such court shall have power to hear and determine all such appeals, not only as regards the subject matter thereof and the disposal of the deposits, but also to adjudicate on all the costs involved, as justice may require.

(4.) If any person shall think himself aggrieved by any such distress as aforesaid, and shall, whether there has been a previous appeal against such valuation or not, deposit in the hands of such chairman the amount for which such distress has been made, together with a sum of five guineas to answer costs, and serve him with notice in writing against such distress at any time before sale, then, but not otherwise, it shall be lawful for such person to appeal to the said court against such distress; and the said court is hereby empowered to hear and finally determine the same; and to confirm or disallow the distress; and to make such other orders in the matter in all respects as it shall deem just.

93. (1.) SUBJECT to the provisions of the next preceding section, the board shall be and is hereby empowered, in case of the non-payment of any portion of any rate leviable under this Act, within twenty-one days after demand made on their behalf on or at the residence of any tenant or occupier of the rated premises liable to pay the same or by posting the same upon the property in the manner hereinbefore provided with regard to notices, to issue a warrant under the hand of the chairman and seal of the board, directed to the bailiff to be named therein, and enjoining him to levy the amount by distress and sale by public auction of the goods and chattels that may be found on the premises so rated, or that may have been removed therefrom to avoid seizure and can be re-taken, or that belong to such tenant or occupier and can be distrained in any part of the Colony.

Power to board in certain cases to distrain for rates.

(2.) No sale of goods or chattels under this section shall take place until the expiration of five days after the seizure thereof, and no more fees than those stated in Schedule G. to this Act shall be taken.

Time for sale.

94. (1.) WHEN payment of any rate has been enforced against or made by any tenant or occupier not primarily liable to pay the same, such tenant or occupier may recover the same from the tenant or occupier primarily liable by action at law, as money paid for such tenant or occupier, or by summary proceedings before any two Justices, or he may in like manner recover the same from the owner, or deduct the same from any rent payable by him to the owner of the land, any covenant or agreement by or between such occupier and owner to the contrary notwithstanding.

Remedy to persons who, not being primarily liable to pay a rate, have paid the same.

(2.) The production of the receipts for such rates so recovered from or paid by such tenant or occupier shall be a good and sufficient discharge for the amount so paid or recovered on payment of rent to the owner.

(3.) When payment of any rate has been enforced against or made by the owner of any property, or the amount of any such rate has been deducted as aforesaid from the rent otherwise payable by any tenant not primarily liable to pay the said rate, such owner may recover the amount so paid from the tenant or occupier primarily liable by action at law, as money paid for such tenant or occupier, or by summary proceedings before any two Justices.

List of defaulters to be published.

95. EVERY board shall cause to be published in the Government Gazette, and in a newspaper circulating in the district, issued after the first day of January and July, respectively, in each year, a list of all persons who shall be in arrear in respect of any rate, and of the amounts due by them respectively, and in respect of what property; and from and after the date of such publication, such rates, with interest thereon at ten per centum per annum, and the expense of proceedings to recover the same, shall constitute a charge and have priority, after Crown Debts, to every security or claim of any description against the estate real and personal of the debtors respectively.

(2.) If the amount and the said expenses be not paid at or before the expiration of the time specified in such notice for payment, it shall be lawful for the board, and the said board is hereby required, to present a petition to the Supreme Court, stating the imposition of the rate on or money payable and recoverable in respect of the said property, the non-payment of the same, the fact that no distress can be found on the said property sufficient to satisfy the same, and the publication of the notices aforesaid.

(3.) Any Judge of the Supreme Court, on being satisfied of the proof of such circumstances, shall order the said property or such part thereof as may be deemed sufficient to satisfy the said rate and moneys and all expenses caused by the non-payment thereof as aforesaid to be sold by some person to be named in such order by public auction, and the proceeds of such sale (after deducting the expenses thereof) to be paid to the Registrar of the Supreme Court.

(4.) The Registrar, on receiving the same, shall out of such moneys pay to the board on demand the amount of such rates or moneys as aforesaid, and of all rates imposed on such property and due in respect thereof up to the day of such sale, and all costs and expenses incurred by such board in the premises, and shall hold the overplus (if any) in trust for such person or persons as may prove himself or themselves entitled to the same.

(5.) The said Judge may, at the time of making any such order, give any directions that he may deem proper touching the time and place of such sale, and the notices to be given thereof.

(6.) No neglect of any of such directions shall in anywise invalidate any such sale, but the person or persons neglecting the same shall be deemed guilty of contempt of Court, and may be ordered by the said court to make compensation, to be assessed as the said court may direct, to any person injured or damnified by such neglect.

97. A CERTIFICATE of the sale of any such property as aforesaid, according to the form contained in Schedule I. to this Act, shall be given by the person named in the order of the court as the person to sell the said property.
