HIS Excellency the Administrator directs it to be notified, for the information of the Legal Profession and the Public, that on the 8th day of February last Her Majesty was pleased, with the advice of Her Most Honorable Privy Council, to order that, from and after the date of the publication thereof by the said Administrator, "The Colonial Attorneys Relief Act," passed in the twenty-first year of Her Majesty by the Imperial Parliament, shall, subject to the qualifications enacted by "The Colonial Attorneys Relief Amendment Act, 1884," come into operation in this Colony; although persons may, in certain cases, be admitted as Attorneys or Solicitors in the Colony without possessing all the qualifications for admission, or having fulfilled the conditions specified in section three of the said first-mentioned Act.

By Command,
OCT. BURT,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

AT THE COURT AT OSBORNE HOUSE,
ISLE OF WIGHT,

The 8th day of February, 1890.

Present,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Lord Chancellor,
Lord President,
Lord Arthur Hill,
Sir James Fergusson, Bart.
Sir John Lubbock, Bart.
Sir John Gorst.

WHEREAS by "The Colonial Attorneys Relief Act," passed in the twenty-first year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, it is enacted that Her Majesty may from time to time, by Order in Council, direct that Act to come into operation as to any one or more of Her Majesty's Colonies or Dependencies, and thereupon, but not otherwise, the provisions of the Act shall apply to persons duly admitted as Attorneys and Solicitors in the Superior Courts of Law and Equity in such Colonies or Dependencies, but no such Order in Council shall be made in respect of any Colony, except upon application made by the Governor or person exercising the functions of Governor of such Colony or Dependency, and until it shall be shown to the satisfaction of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies that the system of jurisprudence as administered in such Colony or Dependency, and the qualification for admission as an Attorney or Solicitor in the Superior Courts of Law and Equity in such Colony or Dependency, answer to and fulfil the conditions specified in section three of the said Act, and also that the Attorneys or Solicitors of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity in England are admitted as Attorneys and Solicitors in the Superior Courts of Law and Equity of such Colony or Dependency on production of their certificates of admission in the English Courts, without service or examination in the Colony or Dependency:

And whereas by the Colonial Attorneys Relief Act Amendment Act, 1884, it is enacted that upon application made by the Governor or person exercising the functions of Governor of any of Her Majesty's Colonies or Dependencies, and after it has been shown to the satisfaction of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, that the system of jurisprudence as administered in such Colony or Dependency answers to and fulfils the conditions specified in section three of the Colonial Attorneys Relief Act, and also that the Attorneys and Solicitors of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity in England are admitted as Attorneys and Solicitors in the Superior Courts of Law and Equity of such Colony or Dependency on production of their certificates of admission in the English Courts, without service in the Colony or Dependency or examination, except in the laws of the Colony or Dependency, in so far as they differ from the laws of England, Her Majesty may from time to time, by Order in Council, direct the Colonial Attorneys Relief Act to come into operation as to such Colony or Dependency, although persons may in certain cases be admitted as Attorneys or Solicitors in such Colony or Dependency without possessing all the qualifications for admission, or having fulfilled the conditions specified in the said section three, and thereupon, but not otherwise, the provisions of the Colonial Attorneys Relief Act shall apply to persons duly admitted as Attorneys and Solicitors in such Colony or Dependency after service and examination, that is to say, no Attorney or Solicitor of any such Colony or Dependency shall be admitted as a Solicitor of the Supreme Court in England, unless, in addition to the requirements of the Colonial Attorneys Relief Act, he prove by affidavit that he has served for five years under articles of clerkship to a Solicitor or Attorney-at-law in such Colony or Dependency, and passed an examination to test his fitness and capacity before he was admitted an Attorney or Solicitor in such Colony or Dependency; and further, that he has since been in actual practice as Attorney or Solicitor in such Colony or Dependency for the period of seven years at the least:

And whereas application has been made by Sir Frederick Napier Broome, K.C.M.G., Governor of the Colony of Western Australia, that the Colonial Attorneys Relief Acts may be directed to come into operation within the said Colony:

And whereas it has been shown to the satisfaction of Baron Knutsford, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, that the system of jurisprudence as administered in the Colony of Western Australia answers to and fulfils the conditions specified in section three of the Colonial Attorneys Relief Act, and also that the Attorneys or Solicitors of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity in England are admitted as Attorneys and Solicitors in the Superior Courts of Law and Equity of Western Australia on production of their certificates of admission in the English Courts, without service or examination in Western Australia;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-recited Acts, and in execution of the powers thereby in Her Majesty vested, Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her most Honourable Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of the publication of this Order in Council by the Officer administering the Government of the Colony, the Colonial Attorneys Relief Act shall, subject to the qualifications enacted by the Colonial Attorneys Relief Act Amendment Act, 1884, come into operation as to the Colony of Western Australia, although persons may, in certain cases, be admitted as Attorneys or Solicitors in the said Colony without possessing all the qualifications for admission, or having fulfilled the conditions specified in section three of the said Act.

And the Right Honourable Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies is to give the necessary instructions herein accordingly.
