WESTERN AUSTRALIA, }
No. 98. }

Downing Street,

SIR, 26th December, 1890.

I have the honor to transmit to you, for communication to your Government, a copy of a note which has been received from the Mexican Chargé d'Affaires respecting the estate of the late James Randall, a British subject, who has died intestate in Lower California.

I shall be obliged if your Ministers will cause the edict which accompanies the Mexican Chargé d'Affaires' letter to be made public in the Colony under your Government in such a manner as they may think desirable, with the view of attracting the notice of the supposed heirs.

I have, &c.,

KNUTSFORD.

Governor Sir W. C. F. Robinson, G.C.M.G., &c., &c., &c.

Senor del Campo to Lord Salisbury.

Mexican Legation,
175 Cromwell Road, London, S.W.
10th December, 1890.

MY LORD,

The English subject, James Randall, having died intestate at La Ensenada de Todos Santos, Lower California, the Civil Judge of that place has issued a summons citing the heirs of the said Mr. Randall, who are supposed to be in Australia, to appear in person, or through their representatives, within eight months from the 18th of October (date of the summons), in order to make good their rights.

As there is no Mexican Consul in Australia, and having been instructed to obtain the publication of the summons in that British Colony, I venture to address myself to your Excellency and to ask, if there is no objection to such a course, that the accompanying copy and translation of the summons by the Judge of Lower California may be transmitted to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, in order that it may be sent by the Colonial Office, if thought right, to the proper authorities in Australia for publication, and in order that that summons may thus come to the knowledge of the heirs of the late James Randall.

With anticipated thanks, &c.,
(Signed) P. M. DEL CAMPO,
Chargé d'Affaires.

H. E. the Marquis of Salisbury.

Edict.

James Randall, a British subject, having died intestate in this city, and as it appears from the information that he left heirs in Australia, the Judge of First Instance, Pedro Rendon, who has charge of the case, ordered under date of the 18th October of the present year, that all persons who may consider themselves as having rights to the estate be convoked by Edicts, summoning those resident in Australia to present themselves at this Court, within eight months, to establish their claim, with the understanding that such not being done, procedure will follow according to law.

And for its publication the present Edict is issued at La Ensenada de Todos Santos, Lower California, Republic of Mexico, the 25th October, 1890.
